CALLS OFF STRIKERS.

Mahon Orders Men Back to Work.

National President of the Street Railroad Employees Favors Arbitration.

Warns San Francisco Union Against Possible Revocation of Its Charter.

Meeting Speedily Held and Decision Reached to Apply to Calhoun.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The Carmen's Union voted, late tonight, to go back to work and submit the question of wages and hours to arbitration. The action was taken at a mass meeting of the union. Before becoming effective, however, it must be ratified by the seven affiliated unions. This, it is thought, will be easily obtained, and as a result the strike will be declared off.

In respect to the action of the union, President Calhoun stated that he would not deal, recognize or arbitrate with the Carmen's Union unless the union first instructs its members to return to work. Calhoun flatly denies that he made any proposition to National President Mahon. He says he will run his cars either tomorrow afternoon or the following morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President W. D. Mahon of the National Association of Affiliated Street Railroad Employés has telegraphed to President Cornelius to order his local men to call off the strike, go back to work and submit to arbitration, or surrender the charter of the union.

As a result of this telegram, a special meeting of the Carmen's Union was called last night. It was unanimously decided to submit to arbitration, and to return to work as soon as the names of the parties to sit as a board of arbitration shall be decided upon.

MAHON AS A FACTOR.

The action of Mahon has either absolutely broken the strike, and the old men will resume their positions within twenty-four hours, or he has simply complicated matters to such an extent that, in the end, it will result in a serious rupture between the local union and the National Association and an increased strain in the strike conditions.

MEN DENOUNCE CORNELIUS.

A Times reporter was present at a meeting of the carmen, which lasted almost until midnight. He heard the more conservative men of the order stand up and openly denounce the high-handed action of Cornelius in misleading the union and in allowing it to do what they knew was unconstitutional under their national organization, namely, to submit to arbitration and to strike without first offering to arbitrate.

"It is not true that the public is with us in this strike, the public is against us, and if we continue to stand on this unfair ground, our charter will be revoked by the National Association," said one man.

"I do not want this union to become the first local renegade and revolutionary organization in the city," said another.

RESOLUTION AND PREAMBLE.

The following resolution, which, if carried out, will end the strike at once, was adopted unanimously:

"Whereas, the United Railroads of San Francisco has now submitted to this union, through the international president of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employés of America, an offer to arbitrate the wage and hours proposals made to that corporation in our letter of August 18, and,

"Whereas, said corporation has amplified said offer by saying to the personal representative of said international president, that similar arbitration would be had by said corporation with all union men, its former employés, now on strike; and

"Whereas, said arbitration is proposed to be on these terms: The unions directly concerned name one arbitrator, the said corporation to name another, these two to name a third, the determinations of a majority of the arbitrators to be binding; the awards to be as of date of resumption of work; and each union to present its own case to the arbitrators common to all of them, now, therefore be it

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that said offer be accepted, and the Executive Board of this division is hereby directed to arrange in a way satisfactory to itself for formal acceptance and to announce the time for the return of striking

CALHOUN NOTIFIES AUTHORITIES

President Calhoun sent communications today to Mayor Schmitz, Gov. Pardee, the Board of Public Commissioners, the Chief of Police of San Francisco, and the Sheriff of the city and county, notifying them that the United Railroads is prepared to resume complete operation of all lines in city that were compelled to discontinue operation by the strike, "provided adequate protection be afforded the employés of this company in the performance of their duties."

Calhoun states that the company relies on the constituted authorities of the city and State to furnish protection.

"We respectfully request that you furnish all protection necessary to enable the United Railroads to peacefully and effectively operate its cars. If this can be done, we assure you that the service of the United Railroads will be peacefully, fully and promptly resumed," reads the communication.

STRIKE HEAT RISES; BARNS ARE STONED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Owing to the fact that Farley's men, who arrived just before dawn this morning, were badly in need of rest and in order to allow time for the schooling of the men and for the completion of arrangements for the protection of traffic, President Calhoun decided not to attempt to run any cars today. Calhoun was closeted, from early morning until late at night, with his lieutenants, refusing to see newspaper men and all callers whose business was not of importance to the preparations for tomorrow.

Calhoun has served notice on the State, county and municipal authorities that he is ready to resume car service on the lines of his company, and calls upon them to furnish protection for the men he has imported to take the places of the striking motormen and conductors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rioting and bloodshed began this evening at the Turk and Fillmore streets car barn.

All day, a turbulent mob of angry strikers, union tradesmen, Socialists and union sympathizers besieged and stormed the car barns throughout the city. The Turk-street combined power-house and car barn was the center of the disturbance.

Wagons were drawn up along the curb and big packing boxes were piled, from the tops of which men could look over the fence and incite the strike breakers to desert.

Wildly the mob rushed upon a stack of ties, a block away, and carried them to a sidewalk by the fence, piling them in a long row against it, so that they might gaze upon the forbidden ground.

Jawsmiths by the score vied with each other in appeals for the attention of Farley's men, while a seething mob, that packed the street for two blocks, jeered the strike breakers and howled with delight.

The noise was like the surging of waves against a rocky wall. No response, no sign came from within. At no time was there more than half a dozen men at once in the yard. They were content to stay under cover.

BOLDER AFTER DARK.

As darkness fell, the strikers became bolder and more threatening, and guards, armed with stout clubs, came out and ordered the men down from the fence. The crowd refused to budge and clubs were effectively brought into play, and men were dragged down from the fence by force.

Instantly a riot started. Stones were hurled at the guards and over the fence at the windows of the car barn. Men were cut about the head, were knocked down and trampled on.

SHOTS SCATTER THE MOB.

Then fifteen guards and strike breakers climbed to the top of the fence, from within, and began firing into the crowd. Fifty shots were fired, but most of them must have been into the air, for no one was injured by the leaden missiles. The fusillade scattered the mob and a squad of policemen arriving upon the scene, drove the strikers back and held the ground for the rest of the night.

A knot of sullen strikers was approached by the Times correspondent.

CLUBS IN RIPPLE.

Indorsed Pardee's Relief Work.

State League Delegates Told Republican Office Holders Must Be Indorsed.

Orrin L. Henderson President and Ruef's Candidate for Treasurer Chosen.

Spirited Debate Over Jap Exclusion Ends in the Idea's Adoption.

BY B. FRANK GREAVES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The only real ripple attending the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs occurred near the end of the closing session, this evening, when a San Francisco delegate presented a resolution indorsing the conduct of Gov. Pardee in calling a special session of president State League of Republican Clubs.

ORRIN S. HENDERSON,

the Legislature to extend relief to San Francisco. It smacked too much of a "boost" for the candidate, and several delegates quickly took exception.

After it had been explained that every Republican office-holder ought to be indorsed, as a matter of course, the thing went through in a perfunctory way.

An amendment to the Constitution was adopted, adding a third vice-president.

HENDERSON PRESIDENT.

Officers were elected as follow: President, Orrin L. Henderson, Stockton; First Vice-president, Thomas Rickard, Berkeley; Second Vice-president, T. F. O'Neil, San Francisco; Secretary, J. Harry Russell, Stockton; Assistant Secretary, Harry J. Blas, Santa Cruz; Treasurer; Gratz K. Brown, San Francisco.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee, one member from each Congress District, as named by President Henderson, includes Senator T. H. Selvage, Grove L. Johnson, G. Russell Lukens, H. C. Dibble, E. I. Wolfe, W. E. McGuire, "Corney" W. Pendleton and D. C. Collier.

The Army and Navy League members named on the committee are E. A. Dickson and S. D. Halleck, Los Angeles, and W. P. Squire, San José.

In his address of acceptance, President Henderson said he hoped to see a Republican club organized in every precinct of the State for work in the coming campaign. A high tribute was paid to Ferd K. Rule, the retiring president.

CONCESSION TO RUEF.

The election of Gratz Brown as treasurer was a concession to Ruef's clubs of San Francisco, which were represented more generally than those from any other part of the State.

FAVOR JAPANESE EXCLUSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 4.—A spirited debate was created at the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs, today, when State Senator Edward Wolfe, a delegate from San Francisco, introduced a resolution placing the convention on record as favoring the exclusion of Japanese. Among those who spoke in favor of the resolution were Judge Isadore Golden of San Francisco, W. H. Briggs of Stockton and Assemblyman Grove L. Johnson of Sacramento. The resolution was adopted by a viva voce vote.

GREETINGS TO VETERANS.

A greeting to the veterans of the Mexican, Civil and Spanish-American wars was delivered by Frank H. Short of Fresno. The response was made by Gen. C. A. Woodruff, U.S.A., retired. Addresses were also delivered by Judson C. Brusie and G. R. Lukens. The morning session was concluded by the reading of the report of the Committee on Resolutions.

"THE NEXT GOVERNOR."

WALTER PARKER NAMES HIM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Gentlemen, the next Governor," Walter Parker, passing Congressman Gillett through the door of the Los Angeles headquarters at the Sea Beach Hotel, tonight, made the announcement to a big part of the delegation who assembled after dinner to meet the candidate. The home crowd took the big association chief at his word, and greeted the candidate with acclaim.

Gillett thanked the delegation warmly for its promised support, and spent a few minutes in the headquarters.

LATE HOUR FIGURES.

The incident was taken as a sure indication of the way the ballots will go for the head of the State ticket. Tonight's figures, as revised at a late hour by Gillett's managers and by Walter Parker, are: Gillett, 457; Pardee, 180; Hayes, 36; Porter, 30; Ruef's to cast; total 825.

The Gillett people look for their candidate to win on the first ballot. Sentiment for the northern man simply swept the convention city today. Gillett badges adorned the breasts of hundreds of the delegates. The surface indications are that he already has the fight won. Gloom in the Pardee camp serves to confirm the impression.

Ruef, desperate, held a caucus of the San Francisco delegation, late tonight, to map out a plan of action. A bold move is threatened by the little boss to save something from the wreck. The key to the situation, which he at one time seemed to hold, doesn't fit the lock.

Rumors spread that Ruef had determined to spring the name of former Gov. Henry T. Gage of Los Angeles, in a mad endeavor to stampede the convention and especially to tear Los Angeles county and all of Southern California away from Gillett. Influential members of the Los Angeles delegation said they would stick to Gillett, rather than support even a neighbor whom Ruef might back.

SOUTHERN BOOMERS.

The arrival, early this morning, of the special train from the South, with the Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino delegations practically solid for Gillett, had a tremendous influence in forwarding the cause of the Humboldt county candidate. While it was known before that the South would come up with a whoop for Gillett, the presence of about two hundred delegates in person, most of them at once openly declaring themselves, had an effect as of magic on the situation.

CANDIDATE IN TOUCH.

Gillett's headquarters swarmed with visitors. The candidate got in touch quickly with the leaders of the delegations. He and Walter Parker had a long talk, and when Gillett parted from the Herrin lieutenant, both appeared jubilant.

A little later, Parker had a confab on the veranda of the hotel with Pardee's manager, Harbor Commissioner Spear. The latter looked more worried than ever when Parker had gone. Both Spear and Gov. Pardee appear worn from the strain. They make no extravagant claims, but stick to it that they still hold 300 votes. Parker says they never had more than 225.

Enthusiasm of the Gillett side is heightened by their belief that they can nominate positively without dealing with Ruef and has band of San

MOB TAKES TO HEELS

A Goldfield Hero is After Them.

Boycotted Newspaper's Boys Find Rescuer in "Diamondfield Jack" Davis.

With Brace of Guns He Bursts Out Upon Ruffians and Offers Fight.

Respectable Citizens Cheer Him as Anarchists Scatter. Troubles of Union.

BY HARRY C. CARR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD (Nev.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With a cocked six-shooter in each hand, "Diamondfield" Jack Davis, a pioneer of Goldfield, who has three nicks on his gun already, chased a howling mob of anarchists two blocks through the streets of the mining town this afternoon. Two newsboys of the boycotted known as "Diamondfield Jack," the gun-fighter, who routed a Goldfield mob yesterday.

Goldfield Sun had taken refuge from the mob in his office.

The strike came to a head this afternoon when two printers went pluckily out from the office of the Sun to sell papers on the street. A low-browed "dago," who looked more like a beast than a man, followed them, with a big banner declaring the paper to be "scab."

The smaller of the printers, wearing a union badge, was caught alone by the business agent of the I. W. W. and roughly ordered back. White as a sheet, the young fellow turned back, but all the way to the office he kept bravely crying: "Here you are! The Goldfield Sun! All the news!"

FOLLOWED BY MOB.

A mob of hundreds of ruffians followed him, yelling "scab!" One of the mob picked up a rotten tomato from a fruit stand and threw it at him, striking him in the back of the neck, the juice from the tomato spattering his clothes.

When he had safely entered the office door, the mob turned back to look for the newsboys. They were found far down the street, and were hustled roughly back.

MOB GROWS ROUGHER.

The mob grew rougher. The turn of a penny would have brought on a riot. The thugs began getting closer, and could be seen shoving and bumping the newsboys. As they got to the corner of a side street, a young clerkly fellow ran out and drew them down the street. The mob followed on the run, yelling like fiends.

The two boys turned suddenly into a little low building. Big brutal ruffians crowded up, muttering and yelling. Crash! went the front window. A moment after, following an ominous pause, the door suddenly burst wide open and out rushed a man whose face was livid with wrath.

"Get!" he ordered.

"DIAMONDFIELD JACK."

In each hand was an enormous experienced-looking cocked revolver.

"Get out you s— of b—!" he yelled.

With one wild shriek, the anarchists fled down the street, the brutal "dago" easily in the lead, running like a deer.

At cross streets, some blithering fool ran out and attempted to lay the restraining hand of civilization on the roused man from the desert. In an instant he was looking into the muzzles of two revolvers.

MOB GETS AWAY.

In this interval, however, the mob got away and Jack Davis turned and yelled in baffled rage, after their flying forms: "Come back, you —— — ——. Come back and fight. I am ready to die. I am here to die. All I want is six feet of desert to be planted in. Come back and fight, God d—— you!"

LIMITED WRECKED.

Los Angeles Train Has Bad Luck.

After an Eventful Night Experience It Bolts on Sherman Mountain.

Cars Are Ditched, Injuring Thirty-five People and Killing a Tramp.

Three Southern Californians Receive Bruises—Second Disaster This Week.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LARAMIE (Wyo.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Train No. 7, the Los Angeles Limited of the Union Pacific Railway, was wrecked this morning on the west slope of Sherman Mountain by being derailed. A tramp was killed and thirty-five passengers injured. The locomotive and three cars rolled over and all the cars left the track.

Yesterday morning, a similar wreck occurred to the eastbound Los Angeles train on Wasatch Hill, but no one was hurt.

Dead:

An unknown tramp.

Injured:

J. W. ZOOK, fireman, scalded from chin to shoe tops; will recover.

F. W. HARLOW of Omaha, chef of dining-car; back strained.

MISS BERTHA WASEM of Fort Dodge, Iowa, strain of muscles of neck.

MISS MARIE WASEM, strained neck and left shoulder.

MRS. FOCHT, Salt Lake, strained back.

CHARLES E. B. ARBER, Los Angeles, strain and bruise of muscles of back.

P. EASTERDAY, Fairbury, Neb., strain of muscles of neck.

CATHERINE LAINE of Ogden, back wrenched.

MRS. RUTH K. NELLUISH, Bloomington, Ill., nervous shock.

MRS. ETTA KING, Maxwell, Iowa, abrasion of foot and leg.

MRS. K. L. DODGE, Long Beach, Cal., bruise under left eye.

ISABELLE CROSHER, Los Angeles, neck injured.

T. L. GREEN, Indianapolis, shoulder bruised.

MRS. CHRIS SENNER, Iowa City, Iowa, bruised.

INJURED WILL RECOVER.

Thirty-five passengers were brought to this city on the relief train at 7:30 o'clock this morning, and all will recover. Zook is the worst injured of all, being badly scalded.

The train consisted of an engine, baggage-car, dining-car, observation-car, two standard sleepers and a tourist sleeper.

The accident happened on the double track, and the line is not blocked for other trains. A wrecker was sent from here, and the company expects to have the wreck cleared away in a short time.

BAD LUCK ALL THE WAY.

The train seems to have met with bad luck all the way between Omaha and here. At Sidney, Neb., earlier in the night, the train parted, and when the engineer went back to pick up the other part of the train, the engine became unmanageable and backed hard into the balance of the train, injuring two of the passengers, but not seriously.

An inquest was held over the tramp, but the Coroner could not learn his name. The jury returned a verdict of accidental killing.

ZOOK WENT WITH ENGINE.

Fireman Zook went into the ditch with his engine and received painful, though not serious, scalding. Hams Bangs, the engineer and Brakeman T. M. Dunelson, who was in the baggage-car, received some bruises and bad sprains.

CAUSE NOT DETERMINED.

The cause of the accident has not been determined. The train was running on schedule time when the accident occurred. The road is laid with new 90-pound steel rails, and the track is considered the best on the system.

"SAT ON THE LID."

An accident in connection with the wrecking of the eastbound train yesterday came to light today. In the express car was a safe containing $100,000 in gold in transit to Chicago, accompanied by a guard. He was thrown against the roof of the car and bruised, but made haste to find the safe again and sit on it. He stood guard twelve hours and then the safe was placed on another train.

CALL MONEY FLIES HIGH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—There was a flurry in the call money market in the last hour of today's trading on the Stock Exchange, the rate going to 20 per cent. by 2:45 o'clock, and at 2:55 p.m. money on call was quoted at 30 per cent., closing at that figure.

The stock market was unfavorably affected by the rise in money, and the active shares declined a point or more.

"NEXT GOVERNOR."

Francisco "guerrillas," who marched in Monday with their boast that they never would stand for Gillett because of the opposition to him from "Pinhead" McCarthy and Samuel Gompers. They marched down meekly when they found Gillett did not ask them to and would not buy their support. Now the Ruef bushwhackers are looking for a soft place on which to fall. They have been dickering with Pardee, hoping they might rally enough votes to keep the nomination from Gillett on the first ballot, and then send the convention off in a rush to some "dark horse."

SACRAMENTO'S DELEGATION.

Sacramento county's delegation, claimed by Pardee, is split since the slide to Gillett started. The future home of the next Governor has some delegates which wish to be in a position to ride in the band wagon. Large holes have been punched in the fancied strength of Pardee all along the line. His supporters are wailing that they are the only simon-pure anti-machine aggregation on the pike. They pretend to be horrified at the prospect of the State going into the hands of the Southern Pacific "machine," where it has been for so many years that the people cannot remember to the contrary.

ANTI-MACHINE SENTIMENT.

But it's an argument that the Pardeeites have taken up with a unanimity that would be surprising if it were not known to have emanated from the brain of Pardee's chief wire-puller, Mr Spear. As a matter of fact, there is strong anti-machine sentiment in this convention.

There is serious talk of organizing forces within a few days to eventually wrest the State from the political domination of the Southern Pacific. Delegates from all parts of the State vow that they have had enough of the collar and nose ring, but they stand for Gillett, they say, because they believe him strong enough to stand for the rights of the people as against the selfish interest of the railroad.

Granting Gillett to be the "machine" candidate, they express their preference for him as against Pardee, and above all, against anything bearing the taint of Ruefism.

"ORIGINAL GILLETT MAN."

George Knight, the original Gillett man, arrived today, registering from Humboldt, from which county he was sent as a delegate after Ruef had prevented his election from San Francisco. Knight will place Gillett in nomination.

WORKING ON HAYES.

There was talk today that Ruef would attempt to put Hayes in the executive chair, but that the San Francisco delegates would not hold together for that purpose. The impression is that Ruef is tapping the Hayes barrel to the limit. Out of the thirty-six Santa Clara votes for Hayes, the Gillett forces claim to be able to draw seventeen. They even assert that some of Ruef's own delegates will be for Gillett when hands are shown.

APPLICANTS FOR THE BENCH.

Every other fight, and there are many, is brushed aside for the time. Aspirants for the Supreme and the Appellate beaches are numerous. It is declared Justices Lorigan, Henshaw and Sloss will be returned to the Supreme Court.

Los Angeles is strong in support of Judge Curtis D. Wilbur for a place on the Second District Appellate bench, but the programme seems to be for Allen of Los Angeles, Taggart of Santa Barbara and Shaw of San Diego.

Justice Gray apparently must step out, because the Tulare delegation is pledged to Pardee for Governor, while other counties with favorite sons have been able to make trades to their advantage.

PRODIGIOUS TRADING.

The amount of trading of gubernatorial choice for offices of local desire has been prodigious. Lieut.-Gov. Alden Anderson seems to be the only candidate to succeed himself, although the place continues to be held alluringly before the eyes of Warren Porter, despite his protest that he does not want it.

"OLD STAND-BYS."

Secretary of State Curry, Controller Colgan and Superintendent of State Printing Shannon have no active opposition. Attorney-General Webb may be renominated, although John T. Williams of San Francisco and J. W. Wiley of Bakersfield are after the place. Sam Smith of San Diego is eliminated from the race, if Victor Shaw of the same city, goes to the Appellate bench.

SUCCESSOR TO REEVES.

F. W. Williams of Fresno is slated to succeed State Treasurer Truman Reeves, and W. S. Kingsbury of Los Angeles will be the nominee for Surveyor-General.

OTHER PLACES SOUGHT.

F. H. Cory and A. W. Johnson aspire to succeed Frank C. Jordan as clerk of the Supreme Court. Cory is Jordan's choice.

Theodore Summerland of Los Angeles thinks his prospects are good for railroad commissioner of the Third District, but Orrin S. Henderson, the incumbent, is a lively factor in the fight.

SUPT. KIRK BLOCKED.

Thomas J. Kirk, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is fighting bitterly for renomination, but the exposure of the favors extended to the school-book trust by the Text-book Commission, of which Gov. Pardee and Kirk are members, seems effectually to have blocked Kirk's chances of a third term. A. F. Gunn of the book company is here, and is said to be working hard for the superintendent's retention, while Kirk's wife, for a long time was chief deputy in his office, at $200 a month, is campaigning actively for her husband, electioneering unceasingly with delegates in the lobbies of the Sea Beach Hotel.

SAN FRANCISCO'S ISSUE.

Chief Deputy Wood of Kirk's office and Secretary Furiong of the State Text-book Commission, also are in the fray. Kirk's forces are said to be dealing with Ruef for the support of the San Francisco delegation. Help from this source may be denied, through the fact that Kirk cut down San Francisco's share of school moneys by a large amount in his last apportionment.

THE ONLY WOMAN CANDIDATE.

Miss Kate Ames, the only woman candidate, who wishes to succeed Kirk, also is working hard among the delegates. County Superintendent Edward Hyatt of Riverside county, however, seems to have the fight won.

LOS ANGELENOS' CAUCUS.

The Los Angeles county delegation will caucus at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Congressman James McLachlan, a delegate from Pasadena, is programmed for chairman. Some delegates declare they will not submit to the casting of their votes in the convention by the chairman.

CONVENTION MEETS TODAY.

The convention will be called to order at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by Col. George Stone, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. J. W. McKinley of Los Angeles will be elected chairman of the convention, unless some unexpected break occurs. He apparently is satisfactory to all sides. It is thought the balloting will not be reached before Thursday morning. There apparently will be an absence of the smoothness that attended the famous "greased" convention at Venice last month. It is predicted that the session will not end before Friday.

Santa Cruz, crowded Monday, is bulging on all sides tonight. Delegates are sleeping two and three in a bed at some places. The Board of Trade and the Citizens' Committee are extending many courtesies to the visitors, many of whom plan to remain several days after the close of the convention to take part in the big Native Sons celebration of Admission Day next Monday.

The weather has been hot in afternoon, chilly at night, and foggy and cool in the mornings.

TWO DISASTERS IN MONTANA.

ELEVEN PEOPLE INJURED IN WRECK NEAR OSWEGO.

Heavy Damage Done to the Train. Some of the Cars Are Thrown Completely Over — Accident Last Night at Glasgow Causes Injury to Two Coast Women.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OSWEGO (Mont.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Great Northern eastbound passenger train No. 4 was wrecked about two miles east of here, and while no lives were lost, there was heavy damage to the train.

Eleven people were injured, none of them seriously. The cause of the wreck is not known.

Mail, baggage, smoking and dining cars left the track, and some of them turned over. The sleeper was thrown on its side.

Wrecking crews from Havre worked all night, trying to clear the track, and traffic was resumed today.

The injured are as follows:

MRS. H. A. RAYMOND, Stevens Point, Wis., head cut and bruises.

MRS. A. B. ENSIGN, Fayette, Ind., head and back cut and bruised.

FRANK FISHER, teamster, Billings, cut and bruised about head and body.

REV. L. COLYN, Chester, Mont., cut and bruised and leg hurt.

JOHN KERR, Great Falls, Mont., shoulder cut and bruised, and head cut.

MRS. JOHN KERR, head cut and bruised.

WERFORD BOZE, Kalispell, cut about head and shoulders.

CONDUCTOR C. H. SCHRODER, head cut and two ribs broken.

C. H. HOWELL, Sioux City, Iowa, bruises about body and shoulders.

FRED PREBY, St. Paul, head cut.

The train was leaving at a fair rate of speed, it is stated, when the accident occurred, and the derailed coaches went over a small embankment.

SECOND WRECK LAST NIGHT.

A second wreck occurred tonight at Glasgow, several cars being overturned, and a number were injured, the most serious being Mrs. H. A. Raymond of Spokane and Mrs. A. Meening of Seattle.

VAIN CALL AS HIS LIFE EBBS.

ALEXANDER BELFORD MAY NOT SEE HIS CHILDREN.

Sufferer from Paralysis in Los Angeles, He Sends to Divorced Wife in Chicago for Son and Daughter, But Word Comes Back That He Has Seen Them for the Last Time.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch] Final scenes in a tragedy of high life finding its theme in the marital troubles of a former millionaire publisher of Chicago, are being enacted in Chicago and Los Angeles.

In silence Mrs. Helen McNally-Belford is awaiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Delia McNally, No. 824 North Park avenue, word of the death of her former husband, Alexander Belford.

The latter, suffering from parlysis at the Good Samaritan Hospital in the California city, has been refused permission to see again either Mrs. Belford or his children.

When he was stricken and taken to the hospital he began calling for his former wife and his children. Telegrams were sent daily to Chicago. Mrs. Belford was beseeched to go to Los Angeles.

"I am sorry, but can do nothing," was Mrs. Belford's final word, it is declared. It went in a telegram to the sick bed, after a score of telegrams had been sent by the dying man.

Alexander, Jr., 17 years old, and the daughter, a few years younger, are the Belford children. Their mother declined today to discuss her former husband's illness.

"Mrs. Belford cannot be seen," was the word of a domestic at the McNally home. "She has nothing to say of Mr. Belford's illness. The children are in her care. It is for her to say whether they shall go to see their father."

Until a fire which destroyed his printing plant brought the first blow to his fortunes several years ago, Alexander Belford was one of the best known business men in Chicago. His book-publishing business was one of the largest in the West. He married the daughter of the late Andrew McNally, multi-millionaire publisher.

Mrs. Belford later left her husband and returned to her mother's home in Chicago. A divorce suit followed, and in the Circuit Court she won her freedom and custody of her two children.

The condition of Belford was reported not critical last night. In the afternoon he was removed from the Good Samaritan Hospital, and withstood the change very well. He is under the care of Dr. A. Davidson.

YOUNG SAMPSON SWORN IN.

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) Sept. 4.—The second son of the late Rear-Admiral Sampson, U.S.N., to enter the present fourth class of the Naval Academy, was sworn in this morning. He is Harry B. Sampson, and was appointed by Senator Depew. His brother, Ralph Sampson, entered the same class several weeks ago.

SCHOOL CHAOS LAID TO DUNNE.

Mayor Dunne's evident sympathy with organized labor, which extends to playing politics with the Teachers' Federation, acknowledged to be the most dangerous disintegrating force in the Chicago school system, and which was largely responsible for his recent appointments to the school board, is held directly responsible for the chaotic conditions which were found to exist with the reopening of the schools today. The schools are without readers in five grades and must remain so for a period of from ten to fifteen days, and on account of the failure of the new board to certify the list of eligibles, 154 vacancies were reported in the teaching force. The book litigation was further complicated by a bill filed in the Superior Court to restrain the board from adopting the recently selected series of readers and setting forth that certain labor unions have conspired with the members of the board to keep the Rand-McNally books out of the public schools.

LA FOLLETTE'S FIRST SETBACK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator H. M. La Follette, who has been speaking four times a day for Speaker Lenroot for the Republican nomination for Governor, has sustained his first defeat since being elected Governor six years ago. Lenroot has, according to the best estimates available, been defeated, and Gov. Davidson, who was Lieutenant-Governor under La Follette, has been nominated by an overwhelming majority. Possibly the most unique feature of the whole campaign is the fact that this defeat of the junior Senator is inflicted under the primary law which was the issue under which La Follette won his first fight for the Governorship in 1900.

BAD CHARGES IN DIVORCE SUIT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

QUINCY (Ill.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. C. Henry Fosgate, a dashing leader of Quincy's social whirl, has entered a suit for divorce against her husband, proprietor of the Newcomb Hotel, and a well-known owner of fast horses and automobiles. Mrs. Fosgate charges her husband with gross indignity and habitual infidelity, and names several of Quincy's most exclusive society leaders as corespondents. She has enjoined her husband from disposing of his property during the pending of the suit.

MOB TAKES TO HEELS.

But there was lack of enthusiasm on the part of the mob.

Like the God of War, "Diamond-field Jack" stalked back, waving his two guns in the air, and went into his office.

After a while, the wretched gang sneaked back and stood like scared coyotes in the street, ready to run at the drop of the hat. They knew Jack Davis was not bluffing. He is known all over the West, as a "gun man," who will shoot first and inquire particulars afterwards.

RESPECTABLE CITIZENS CHEER.

As Davis went back into his office, with a parting glare at the anarchists, cheer after cheer went up from the crowd of respectable people who had gathered. This seemed to disconcert the mob as much as did the pistols. They hung around awhile, and then melted away. The newspaper sellers escaped by the back way.

If this incident brings a fight, an impromptu vigilante committee will stand with the boycotted paper. Many of Goldfield's richest business men are old cowpunchers, used to guns. They swear that no repetition of the Colorado horror shall happen here.

CAPT. ROSE'S WAY.

Among the number is Capt. Rose, who was educated at Annapolis, and was in the navy until disabled by wounds.

"I am in favor of going right into their own hall," he said, "and ramming the doctrine down their throats. I am ready to give up my life in this fight. I am in favor of legitimate unions, and employ union men in my mine, but I fought for American principles once, and I'm ready to do it again.

"We might as well have this right out now. If they are looking for a fight, it can't come too quick.

STRIKING NEWSBOYS.

The newsboys who were run off the streets by thugs today were printers and pressmen of the Typographical Union, employed by the Goldfield Sun. On account of the criticism of the I. W. W. in the Tonopah paper, the Goldfield paper was put under a boycott because both papers are owned by the same man.

The newsboys were persuaded to go on a sympathetic strike. The union printers of the Sun office were ordered to tear up union cards and join the I. W. W. They refused, and went on the streets to sell the papers themselves. Goldfield stores have been ordered by a committee to place advertisements in the Sun. Bitter trouble is sure to happen when the paper containing their ads. comes out tomorrow. Allen, the editor, says he will go on publishing, come what may.

PLOTTERS IN ARIZONA HELD.

Mexican Revolutionists Arrested by Rangers.

Much Dynamite Is Captured by the Americans.

Had Intended to Take Agua Prieta Monday Night.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Working up an expedition against a friendly government is the charge which is registered against twelve officers of the "Douglas Regiment of the Mexican Revolution," arrested here at 5 o'clock this afternoon by C. T. Connell, immigration officer, and Capt. Thomas Rynning of the Arizona Rangers and his men.

Among the twelve taken is Damaso T. Espanoso, an agitator who gave much trouble at Cananea. The men were taken at the half-way house near the international line. Four incendiary flags and much dynamite were captured by the Americans. The flags bear the legend, "Liberty, Patriotism and Justice."

Agua Prieta was the first objective point of the laborite gang. They had intended taking the city last night, and this was the cause of alarm to Americans. The Home Guards of Douglas have turned out to meet the emergency.

The Mexicans did not advance on Agua Prieta customhouse because they misunderstood the word from the company at Cumpus, it is said.

As a result of these arrests the authorities, it is said, have received information that members of the revolutionists' junta in Douglas have been expecting orders from Toronto to take up arms and enter Mexico.

The activity of the officers who have been endeavoring to thwart the plans of the agitators here, it is learned, is due to the revelations of a West Indian, who came here from Cananea to warn them that the revolutionists were planning an attack on all the towns on the border.

JUNTA OPPOSES VIOLENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 4.—Manuel Sarabia, in charge of the Mexican junta during the absence of the leader, Antonio Villareal, who is said to be in New York, visiting a sick brother, does not know anything of the alleged revolutionists or their plans.

"Neither our party in St. Louis nor our paper advocates anything like the methods reported in the Arizona dispatch," declared Sarabia. "We advocate working for great reforms in Mexico, but want only the ballot and the strike power used, and not force or anything in the way of rebellion."

CRUISER BOSTON TAKING WATER.

LIFEBOATS SWUNG OUT, READY FOR INSTANT USE.

Ship's Diver Finds Seam Three Feet Long, But no Holes—Arrival Fixed Today to Tow Warship to Bremerton Navy Yard Awaited—Bluejackets Begin to Show Strain.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) Sept. 4.—The United States cruiser Boston, which struck Peapod Rock in Rosario Strait, yesterday noon, is now lying in deep water in this harbor, in order to give the diver a good opportunity to prosecute his work. She has taken a good deal of water, and has listed five degrees to port. Seven cell compartments are filled.

Although the Boston has put out in deep water again after drawing in close to shore this morning in order that she might be run onto the sandy beach quickly if necessary, all her lifeboats are swung out ready for instant use.

The ship's diver, who is still at work, has found a seam three feet in length, which is admitting water, but has not yet discovered any holes in the hull. The vessel is believed to be badly wrenched. Commander Coffman is now awaiting the arrival of tugs to tow the Boston to Bremerton.

The 300 men on board are beginning to show the effects of the nervous strain to which they have been subjected during the past twenty-four hours.

The Boston foundered at low tide in a fog. The torpedo boat Paul Jones, on passing the stranded vessel, signaled by the Boston, and an hour of an hour was made to pull her free. Finally, the rising tide, which was a strong eddy from the Gulf of Georgia into the strait, forced the ships to leave the Boston to her fate and proceed to Bellingham without her. The Boston reached Bellingham under her own steam at 6 o'clock, and at midnight was sinking, two feet off shore.

The cruisers Boston and Princeton and the destroyer Paul Jones were diverted to leave Bremerton for Blaine for target practice. The Princeton reached her destination. The Boston is the flagship of the Pacific squadron. She has 4000 tons displacement and carries 300 men.

NINE COMPARTMENTS FILLED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The Merchants' Exchange has received a dispatch from Seattle saying that nine compartments of the cruiser Boston, now at Bellingham Bay, are full of water.

WOMAN'S FACE AT WINDOW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—A startling affidavit in behalf of Adolph Weber, awaiting hanging on conviction of having murdered his family at Auburn, was filed with Gov. Pardee today.

Mrs. [illegible] Potter of Fernley, Nevada county, deposes that she resided in Auburn at the time the tragedy occurred, and that when she heard the first alarm of fire she ran to her front gate, about 350 yards from and opposite the Weber home. She heard a scream and then saw a woman's face at a window, which she afterward learned was in Mrs. Weber's bedroom. The woman at the window cried:

"Save me, save me; for God's sake, save me!"

Mrs. Potter further avers that at no time not more than one minute elapsed from the sounding of the first alarm, and that the lower story of the Weber home was then in flames, which illuminated the second

DENIES AFFIDAVIT FOR WEBER.

SPOKESMAN'S FACE AT WINDOW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—A startling affidavit in behalf of Adolph Uhlfelder, awaiting hanging on conviction of having murdered his family at Colusa, was filed with Gov. Pardee today.

Mrs. Isabel Potter of Fernley, Nevada county, deposes that she resided next door at the time the tragedy occurred, and that when she heard the cries of fire she ran to her front gate, about 250 yards from and opposite the Weber home. She heard screams and then saw a woman's face at a window, which she afterward learned was in Mrs. Weber's home. The woman at the window cried:

"Save me, save me; for God's sake, save me!"

Mrs. Potter further avers that at this time not more than one minute had elapsed from the sounding of the alarm, and that the lower story of the Weber home was then in flames, which illuminated the second story, enabling her to see the woman at the window.

The evidence of the prosecution was that when the first alarm sounded only a slight blaze could be seen, and this came from the clothing of the murdered people, which had been set afire in the hope of concealing evidence of the murder. The prosecution also contended, fortified by circumstantial evidence, that Weber first killed his relatives and carried their bodies downstairs, where he set fire to them.

Mrs. Potter avers that she told Sheriff Keena and Coroner Shepard the circumstances as related in the affidavit, but she was never called as a witness for either side.

OVER-HOT WINE DEALS DEATH.

EXPLOSION CAUSES A PROPERTY LOSS OF $300,000.

Big Calwa Winery Near Fresno Ruined by Supposed Spontaneous Combustion, and Fire Adds to Destruction—San Francisco Refugee Is Killed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

FRESNO, Sept. 4.—As the result of a terrific explosion today, the shock of which was felt for a radius of ten miles, one man was killed and another dangerously wounded and $300,000 worth of property was destroyed by fire at the big Calwa winery of the California Wine Association, about three miles from town, on the Malaga road. The explosion was followed by fire, which completed the havoc and was responsible for the major portion of the loss.

The explosion demolished a big brick building and partially wrecked adjoining brick structures, of the largest sweet-wine-making establishment in the State. The cookhouse, bunkhouse and bonded warehouse alone escaped damage. The fire destroyed the sherry tank building, containing over 250,000 gallons of wine, an adjacent warehouse and several hundred cords of wood, besides damaging the fermentation cellar and setting fire to grass fields south of the plant.

The explosion took place shortly after 9 o'clock in the sherry oven, where wine was being subjected to pasteurizing process, and may have resulted from one of several causes, the one most likely being spontaneous combustion of gases from the overheating of the wine.

The man killed was Henry Shelling, 45 years of age, of San Francisco, a cripple who came here as a refugee after the fire. He leaves a family in that city. He was in the employ of the winery in San Francisco. He was sitting near the entrance to the building in which the explosion occurred. His remains have not yet been recovered. The injured man is Morris Peterson, a cooper, of No. 122 Isabelle street, Fresno.

TAX RATE FIXED.

SMALLER THAN LAST YEAR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State tax rate formally was fixed by the State Board of Equalization today at .476, the figure announced some days ago. The levy is apportioned as follows: General fund, .243; school fund, .188; interest and sinking fund, .01; university fund, .02; high-school fund, .015.

This tax rate is considered to reflect that California once more has proved her ability to meet a crisis. Last year the tax rate was 49 cents, but despite the tremendous loss occasioned by the April earthquake the levy this year is almost a cent and a half less than in 1905.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Tax Levy Apportioned.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—The State Board of Equalization has formally fixed the State tax levy as follows: General, .243; school, .188; interest and sinking, .01; university, .02; high school, .015; total, .476.

Binger Hermann Had Knowledge.

PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—More evidence to show knowledge on the part of Representative Binger Hermann as commissioner of the land office, and Congressman Williamson was brought out today at the trial of State Senator F. P. Mays, W. J. Jones and George Swinson.

Buddhist Missionary Arrives.

VICTORIA (B. C.) Sept. 4.—A Buddhist missionary, Solato, from the Enjakuji temple, at Kamamura, Japan, arrived here today by the Tango Maru on his way to San Francisco to establish a Buddhist temple there. The priest, who is of the Zen sect of Buddhists, is accompanied by four disciples and an interpreter.

DIVIDEND CHANGE RUMORED.

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] London has a persistent rumor that the Atchison directors will declare a semi-annual dividend on the common stock at the September meeting of the board tomorrow, instead of waiting till the October meeting. No verification can be obtained but a quorum is expected at tomorrow's meeting.

CALLS OFF STRIKERS.

"What will the strikers do when the cars are started tomorrow?" he asked.

THREATENS THE COMPANY.

"Do? Whose business is it what we will do? But you can bet there will be some broken heads among those scabs. The railroad is robbing us. We'll play that —— —— Calhoun at his own game. Every dam car barn of the system ought to be blown into the sea and sunk to the bottom of hell with dynamite."

The words were hissed from the mouth of a man who, except for his coat, wore the uniform of a carman.

"Do you realize what you are saying?" asked the astonished reporter.

"Yes, I know it, and I mean every dam word of it," snapped the insurrectionist.

"You dare say that, do you. Do you dare tell me your name?"

"Who in hell are you? You must be a cad, skiddoo."

GEARY-STREET LINE ACTS.

This afternoon the directors of the Geary-street railroad held a meeting, at which it was decided to decline the union demands that had been made upon the railroad. Horace G. Platt, president of the Geary-street line, made the following statement to the Times representative:

"The company, at its meeting, refused to take action on the demand of the carmen for $3 a day and for an eight-hour day. The company will wait until matters are adjusted between the United Railroads and its employés, and follow their lead."

When asked if the carmen would strike, President Platt said: "We expect them to."

CALIFORNIA STREET, ALSO.

This decision on the part of the Geary-street line is in accord with all past action which the company has taken on labor demands, and will be followed by President J. B. Stetson of the California-street line.

SCHMITZ FAILS AGAIN.

Mayor Schmitz spent hours today trying to select a committee of three on arbitration which would be satisfactory to both parties concerned. It was his plan to have the union select a man and the United Railroads select one, those two to select a third. His scheme utterly failed, as every attempt he has made in this matter has failed.

CORNELIUS TO BE SCALPED.

President Cornelius of the carmen's union rules from a tottering throne. His men are growing more and more dissatisfied with him, and President W. D. Mahon of the national association, it is understood, will ask for dismissal from office of Cornelius. It was learned yesterday, on positive authority that Cornelius has in his possession a letter received from Mahon, written before the strike was called, in which Mahon requested that no strike be declared until after full arbitration with the directors of the United Railroads. This letter Cornelius never read to the union, and he will be brought to answer for it. Cornelius knows that he is a beaten man, and that in all probability he will be ousted from office.

ONE THOUSAND MORE ARRIVE.

An industrial arm of 1000 men landed in San Francisco early this morning, and were distributed among four barns of the United Railroads without disturbance of any kind. It was a remarkable piece of strategy on the part of President Calhoun.

Calhoun is the man of the hour on the Pacific Coast. He is making history for San Francisco. He is winning, practically single-handed, the first great victory for industrial freedom at the Golden Gate. He is winning it diplomatically, quietly and thus far, peaceably.

The two trainloads of Farleyites that had been held in the vicinity of Sacramento by a wreck, preventing the landing of men in this city Labor Day, were sidetracked at Vallejo Junction last night. At midnight men were taken from the cars and marched onto a river steamer, the Mary J. Garrett. Quietly the boat dropped down the river and across the bay, and effected a landing on North Beach, at the foot of Fillmore street. Sitting quietly in his study at the palatial home, which he occupies on Webster street, President Calhoun awaited the arrival of his strike breakers.

CALHOUN TO BEAT THEM.

"This is a battle of peace, and not of war," he said to the Times correspondent. "As a study, it is far more interesting than war by force of arms. We are going to win this strike, beyond the slightest question of doubt, and it is my fond hope that we may win it without riot, without any bloodshed. But, in any event, cars shall be operated, and the strikers will be beaten.

"Except for a train wreck twenty-five miles beyond Sacramento, I would have brought 2000 men into this city Labor Day, without a trifle of excitement. Our plans were all laid, to be carried out in the morning of Labor Day, and while the unionites were marching down Market street, it was our plan to have an industrial army marching in from the waterfront. The occurrence of the wreck, which frustrated these plans, was a great disappointment to me. I was prepared to enjoy the humor of the situation.

HIS MEN NOT ARMED.

"Illustrating further that this is a battle of peace, let me tell you that there was not an armed man among the 200 strike breakers in the Valencia-street barn when it was surrounded yesterday by a mob of 5000 men. It was a dangerous game to play, but there was protection in the fact that the mob thought my men were armed. However, when the horde threatened violence, I will admit that a wagonload of baggage was driven into the car barn, and that while the baggage was never unstrapped, it contained firearms and ammunition."

As President Calhoun finished speaking the noise of an automobile caused him to hasten quickly to the front door.

"Come, they are here," he said.

MARCHING PHALANX.

Rounding the corner from Broadway onto Webster street, passing out of the drifting fog of the bay into the dim glare of the single electric light, came a squad of men. In the still hour of the morning the dark mass, moving rapidly forward with muffled tread seemed a phantom brigade. Marching twenty abreast, they made a solid phalanx of square of human beings, that moved as one man. In the front rank and along the sides, guards held the formation. At their belts gleamed revolvers. Farley's men were unarmed, except for the short clubs with which they had been provided. Preceding the men 100 feet, was an express wagon, containing baggage.

CALHOUN SMILES.

As the squad passed the residence of President Calhoun, a smile of contentment broke across his genial features.

"Can you not see that this is a battle of peace?" he asked. "Our every move in this matter has been to eliminate all possible antagonism of the striking carmen. We have gone out of our way. We have spent thousands of dollars additional to secure a peaceful termination of these difficulties. If trouble comes, it will not be our doing, but will be forced upon us. No man could have done more to avoid trouble."

The little army continued its way down Webster street, block after block, unheralded save by the faint echo of its own tread. At Turk street the column turned; the great gate of the Turk-street barn almost noiselessly rolled back, to close a moment later upon an empty street.

Just around the corner the Times correspondent encountered eight pickets, lounging away the night and keeping their tangled brains awake by virulent discourse over what they would do to the "scabs" and the United Railroads.

"LAYIN' FOR 'EM."

"Are any strike-breakers to be slipped in here tonight?" asked the Times man.

"If they try it, we're layin' for 'em, and will give 'em a warm welcome," said the pickets.

Two more squads passed, going to the Presidio-avenue and Hayes-street car barns respectively. At each car barn, the men found comfortable quarters awaiting them. The beds are single spring mattresses, and box couches. The barns have been equipped with bathrooms and commissary departments, and it is very evident that preparations have been made for a long siege, if necessary.

ALL ARE CONTENT.

The union has been raising a cry that the strike-breakers were being held in these bars against their will, and today Capts. Thomas F. Duke and N. O. Anderson of the police department visited the Turk-street barn and stated that all men who desired to leave could do so; that no man would be held against his will. Not one man responded, and the men said that they were satisfied with their conditions and were anxious to carry out the duties for which they had been brought to San Francisco.

WILD REPORTS OF DESERTIONS.

Wild reports of a large number of desertions by the Farleyites have been circulated by the union men, but in all not more than a dozen have proved fickle.

CALHOUN'S STRATEGY.

The complete story of the strategy employed in landing Farley's industrial army in San Francisco without a riot can never be entirely known, but it is an achievement which will never be forgotten. This fact can only be fully appreciated by coming in touch with conditions with which President Calhoun has had to cope. Including the electrical workers, there are more than three thousand strikers who were former employés of the United Railroad Company.

The inter-organization of these two unions to defeat Calhoun is complete, and rife with iniquity and trickery. These 3000 men were forced into picket duty under penalty of a fine. All the property of the United Railroads and all inlets to the city have been picketed, the pickets being divided into six watches of four hours each. Back of this organization of 3000 men is a mob of 20,000 or more union sympathizers, including loud-mouthed street gamins, lewd women of the under-world, ruffians, loafers and that class of humanity, which longs for trouble of any kind and will commit almost any act to aggravate trouble.

NEW YORK GUARD ARRESTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The first shots in the carmen's strike were fired this evening by strike-breakers at the United Railroads' car barn at Turk and Fillmore streets, and resulted in the arrest of John Poole, a guard from New York, on the charge of assault to murder.

C. L. Furniss, an electrician living at No. 2215 California street, was severely injured by being struck with some missile, a stone or a glancing bullet, which ripped open his face. A number of others received slight injuries.

Intense excitement reigned. The mob, inflamed and worked to a frenzied pitch by the shooting, quickly returned, after fleeing, and delivered a broadside of stones and any missiles they could lay their hands on. A number of the strike-breakers were hit, and received minor injuries in the way of cuts and bruises.

The police had great difficulty in forcing back the crowd. Rioting continued for over an hour, and an angry crowd surrounded the car barn late tonight.

Poole was arrested by the police and taken to the Bush-street police station. He declared he was an ex-deputy sheriff of Kings county, New York, and was in charge of the first contingent of strike-breakers which arrived here. He was released upon bail furnished by the United Railroads.

COMBINE OF REVOLUTIONISTS.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. Angel Ugarte, financial agent of the Honduran revolutionists, here to publish a revolutionary paper, says the republics will combine in the revolt on November 1. Five delegates are conferring here.

POLITICAL.

PUTS HEARST IN A TRADE.

Independent League to Arrange Cute Programme.

Support for Minor Offices, If Given Governorship.

Bryan Refused to Accept Order to Keep Quiet.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Preparations are being made by the managers of the Independent League to shape the proceedings of the State convention of the league in such a manner that they will be in a position to offer to trade the support of the organization for the minor places on the Democratic State ticket if the State convention will nominate W. R. Hearst for Governor.

To this end it was announced today that when the league meets in Carnegie Hall next Tuesday it will nominate Hearst for Governor, and leave the nomination of the remainder of the State ticket to a committee named for the purpose.

In the event of Hearst's nomination at the Buffalo convention, this committee will then be in a position to indorse the remainder of the Democratic State ticket, no matter who may be nominated upon it, without danger of protest from any one of the Independent delegates who are to attend the league convention.

This plan was approved by all the leaders at once, as it gave them an opportunity to deal with the Democratic State Convention, and to arrange a ticket which would apparently meet the approval of both organizations without leaving positive evidence of a secret arrangement between the managers of the two organizations.

BRYAN TURNED DOWN HEARST.

W. J. Bryan, before his return from abroad, received and rejected a request on behalf of W. R. Hearst to stand aside and permit Hearst to take the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in 1908.

The fact that the offer was made has become known from the Hearst side. After the rebuff which he received from Dist.-Atty. Jerome and Judge William J. Gaynor, whom he sought to make his allies in his campaign for the Democratic Presidential nomination, the attempt to induce Bryan to enter into a compact with him with the same end in view, probably will surprise many Democrats, but the circumstances are told with so much detail that it is impossible to doubt them.

Bryan was overtaken by the Hearst representative on the continent, and delivered his message substantially as follows: "Mr. Hearst wishes you to remember that he was elected Mayor of New York City last year, and that he was cheated out of his victory. He desires you to keep quiet and not permit yourself to be made the party leader. In return, he will pledge himself to serve only one term, and to insure the nomination for you in 1912."

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

ENTERTAINED BY CLUBS

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—W. J. Bryan and party arrived in Chicago this morning over the Grand Trunk Railroad. The party disembarked at the Forty-seventh-street station, five miles from the downtown district, and made the remainder of the journey to the Auditorium Hotel in automobiles.

Bryan was met at the station by a large party of local Democrats, made up of members of the Iroquois and Jefferson clubs. The first man to greet Bryan as he stepped from the train was Mayor Dunne. The entire party then posed for photographs in front of the train, which was placarded from end to end.

Bryan's programme for the day comprised an informal reception at the Auditorium Hotel, which lasted through several hours of the morning.

AT THE IROQUOIS CLUB.

Shortly before noon, he was driven to the headquarters of the Iroquois Club where he was entertained at luncheon. Addresses were made by President John W. Eckert and by Bryan. The latter spoke, in part as follows:

"I was told in Europe that when I returned home I would find a great many more people friendly to me than there had been at some previous period of my career. It was suggested that 'absence made the heart grow fonder.' This was pleasant in one way, but disagreeable in another, for I could not be absent always, and if absence made the heart grow fonder, there might be some danger to my return.

"I was somewhat worried when I received reports from various conventions of indorsements, kind resolutions, and it looked for awhile as if the Presidency, with all its troubles and its trials, was about to be forced upon me, whether I would or not.

HE WILL TALK.

"In the midst of my gloom I saw an interview attributed to a prominent Republican. He said that they had been a little scared, but that I was coming home soon and would commence talking, and then all danger would be removed. I have breathed easier since then, and I can say to the Republicans that if I do not kill my chances by talking, it will not be because I will not talk.

"I want to say to you that all over the world there is a perceptible growth in Democratic ideas. When I speak of Democracy I speak, of course, in that broader sense in which Democracy means the rule of the people. I think possibly there has been less progress in this country in the direction of Democracy than in some of the countries of the old world. That may be explained by saying that we have less distance to travel than they have in Europe, and we have, to some extent, felt a counteracting influence in the last twenty-five years that to my mind can be traced to the dominating influence in politics of great corporations interested in favorable legislation in special privileges."

Bryan then, amid much applause, advocated the election of United Staets Senators by the people, and continued: "I think it is time to speak plainly in regard to the United States Senate, and in my humble judgment the reason why reform has been delayed for a decade or more, is because predatory wealth has put corporation tools in the Senate, and until this can be remedied and the Senate brought into harmony with the voters of this country, there is not much prospect of reform."

Bryan contended that the Republican party, while in power, has not settled a single important question. He declared that the prosperity of the country had come in spite of the Republican party, and not because of anything it had done. On the trust question he said: "To the extent that the President has gone, I am glad, but he has not gone far enough, and he has not been able to take his party with him as far as he has gone."

NO "GOOD TRUSTS."

Bryan declared at the outset that the platform from which a successful fight could be made against a trust was that a private monopoly was indefensible and intolerable. A "good trust," he declared to be out of the question, for the reason that God never made man good enough to withstand temptations that are presented by a private monopoly. As a remedy for the trust proposition, Bryan declared that he was in favor of shutting up in the State that allowed its incorporation any trust that oppressed the people, and allowing it to operate in no other State. It would then be in a position to eat up the State that gave it birth, and that State would thereafter be careful not to be eaten a second time.

MRS. BRYAN ASSISTS.

BUT BEWARES OF INTERVIEWS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. W. J. Bryan and Miss Grace Bryan, who came in for almost as much attention in Chicago as did the great Nebraskan, were caught in the swirl of politics as soon as they alighted from the train. At the Auditorium Annex they hastened to the elevator to ascend to their rooms, but could not avoid the ovation that was awaiting them.

Mrs. Bryan assisted her husband in receiving the callers who came in never-ending streams. Although she was visibly fatigued, her manner had all the cordiality and friendly good will that is a gift of the Bryan family. She had a pleasant smile and a real interest in every one. She and her daughter often answered the rings at the bell in person, when Alexander Troup of New Haven, who came with the party from New York, and who had assumed the post, was not at the door.

Mrs. Bryan chatted with the "home folks," with most of whom she was acquainted, inquiring about their friends and family. She is one of the most gracious women whom a statesman ever had the good fortune to marry. Bright-faced, eager-eyed, quick of sympathy, and gifted with wit and keen judgment, she possesses a manner of meeting her casual acquaintances that makes them her friends. She has a smile that rivals Bryan's own, a little slower, but just as genial and as inclusive of genuine sympathy for one or a hundred.

Mrs. Bryan is a good talker, but she is extremely reticent about politics and wary of interviews. Once, when Bryan took some of the Nebraskans in an anteroom, off the reception room of the suite, for a quiet conversation, Mrs. Bryan was invited to join. Furthermore, she went. Her active intelligence, her intuition and her excellent judgment make her an active factor in the political councils of her husband.

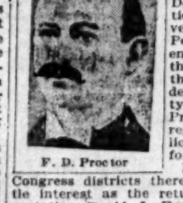
BAILEY TO GIVE BRYAN A RACE.

TIDE FROM THE SOUTH IN THE SENATOR'S FAVOR.

He Is Supposed to Have Received Advice from Henry Watterson in Regard to Presidential Campaign. "The Commoner" at Chicago Says He Will Talk.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Southern Democrats hare believe that Senator Bailey of Texas is preparing to make himself the candidate of that section for the Presidency. Bailey reached Washington last night from Kentucky, and went on to New York, after announcing that he would there give out a statement as to Bryan's advocacy of government ownership of railroads.



Senator Bailey

Bailey's appearance in Washington was a surprise, for he only left here a few days ago, ostensibly to go to Texas. There is speculation as to whether he did not meet Henry Watterson in Kentucky and receive advice from him to return to New York and stay there while talk about Bryan's views was going on.

Bailey has never been at heart a Bryan admirer, and his friends know that up to within a few months ago he thought it quite likely that Presidential lightning might strike in his neighborhood. There was, indeed, at that time considerable talk about him in this connection, but it was shortly swallowed up by the hullabalioo over Bryan. Now that the tide from the South seems to be running strongly against Bryan, it is thought that Bailey intends to hoist a sail to catch whatever breeze may be blowing in his direction.

In the opinion of Democrats around Congressional Committee headquarters, the time for such a maneuver, with the increased talk about the South having a candidate of its own to press on the next national convention, is exceptionally opportune.

VERMONT STATE ELECTION.

PROCTOR'S SON FOR GOVERNOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MONTPELIER (Vt.) Sept. 4.—National issues do not figure to any extent in the biennial State election held in Vermont today as the contest for Governor is not a straight one between the Republican and Democratic parties. The convention indorsed Percival Clement of Rutland, the nominee of the so-called Independent party. Fletcher D. Proctor is the regular Republican candidate for Governor.

F. D. Proctor

In the two Congress districts there has been little interest as the returns of Representative David J. Foster of Bloomington and F. S. Kittredge Haskins of Brattleboro from the Second District has been generally conceded.

Later: Proctor has been elected Governor of Vermont by a large majority. The Republican organization at 10 o'clock tonight claimed that his plurality over Clement of Rutland, the Independent and Democratic candidate, would exceed 15,000. The normal Republican plurality in Vermont is about 21,000.

Scattered returns received from two Congress Districts of the State indicate that both Representative Foster of Burlington (Republican) in the First District, and Representative Haskins of Brattleboro (Republican) in the Second, have been reelected by the usual large majority.

Returns from 100 towns out of 246 show that the Legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican. Up to 10 p.m. it was known that seventy-five Republicans, twelve Democrats and six Independents were elected.

WISCONSIN PRIMARIES.

FIRST SINCE NEW LAW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Sept. 4.—Primary elections were held throughout Wisconsin today for the first time since the law was enacted. The voters nominated candidates for four State tickets—Republican, Democratic, Prohibition and Social Democratic—and selected candidates for Congress, the State Legislature and county tickets.

Gov. Davidson

The chief interest centered in the contest for the nomination for the heads of the Republican and Democratic State tickets. Gov. James O. Davidson and Irvine L. Lenroot were the chief contenders for the nomination for Governor on the Republican ticket, while Senator Merton and John A. Aylward were candidates for the head of the Democratic ticket.

There were contests for Congress among the Republicans in all but three of the eleven districts. The only Democratic contest was in the First District.

"HELPERS" IN MINNESOTA.

DEMOCRATIC SESSION SHORT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) Sept. 4.—Gov. Johnson and a ticket of "helpers" was put in nomination this afternoon by the Democratic State Convention in session here. The convention was one of the shortest on record.

Gov. Johnson

In barely an hour after it was called to order, Gov. Johnson had been renominated. The threatened breach between Gov. Johnson and the Hearst leaders seemed in a fair way to be healed, the Hearst men, however, carrying their main point.

Frank A. Day will manage the campaign, but he will not be chairman of the State Central Committee. The probable selection is T. D. O'Brien of St. Paul.

POLITICAL STRAWS.

AGAINST CORPORATIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SYRACUSE, (N. Y.) Sept. 4.—W. R. Hearst, as guest for the Local Trades Assembly, addressed nearly three thousand persons here. In the course of his speech, Hearst said: "The producing classes should stand shoulder to shoulder in the struggle against the exploiting corporations."

WALSH IS SET OUT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

FRENCH LICK, (Ind.) Sept. 4.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, today received the letter from Charles A. Walsh, tendering his resignation as member of the National Committee from Iowa.

"I have read the letter carefully," said Taggart, "and it is the same as that given to the Associated Press. I have concluded to accept the resignation of Mr. Walsh with pleasure and without comment."

CALIFORNIA SOCIALISTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OAKLAND, Sept. 4.—The Socialist party nominated a complete State ticket, headed by Austin Lewis of Oakland for Governor and Frank J. Wheat of Los Angeles for Lieutenant Governor. Nominations of Congressmen and several State Senators and Assemblymen were also made.

NEEDHAM NAMED AGAIN.

FIFTH CONSECUTIVE TIME.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CASINO (Santa Cruz) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Congressman J. C. Needham of Modesto was renominated for Congress at the Fifth District Republican Convention, which was held tonight at the Sea Beach Hotel. There was no contest.

M. B. Harris of Fresno placed the candidate in nomination and he was named by acclamation. This is the fifth consecutive time that Needham has been nominated. Only once before in the history of the State has this condition prevailed, the Congressman in that instance being Loud.

Needham's nomination is practically an election, his district being strongly Republican, although when he was elected first it largely was Democratic. Counties comprising the Fifth District are: Santa Cruz, Monterey, San Benito, Fresno, Kings, Madera, Merced, Stanislaus and San Joaquin.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP CLEAN.

LITTLE WINS IN ARKANSAS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) Sept. 4.—Additonal returns from the State election show that Democrats will have 34 out of 35 members in the Senate, and 95 out of 100 members of the House, assuring the election of Gov. Jeff Davis, the Democratic nominee, as United States Senator.

J. S. Little, Democrat, for Governor, probably will have a plurality of 5000. At least 53 out of 55 counties have voted against the liquor license under the local option laws.

STEAM SCALDS PASSENGERS.

Vessel in the Niagara River Bursts Feed Pipe and Panic Ensues on Deck.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BUFFALO, Sept. 4.—Two women were scalded and 250 panic-stricken passengers spent about half an hour on the little steamer Koeber on the Niagara River. The injured women are Mrs. August Schenback and Mrs. G. P. Lurser of Tonowanda. Both are badly burned, but will recover.

When the steamer left Tonowanda for Edgewater, a resort on Grand Island, most of the 250 passengers crowded on the upper deck. This made the steamer top-heavy, and the swift current and rough water in the middle of the Niagara River caused her to reel heavily.

The passengers rushed from side to side of the deck, adding to the unsteadiness of the boat.

Suddenly, a steam pipe burst, enveloping the passengers in a cloud of steam. The excitement grew into a panic. The captain swung his boat toward the mainland, and, with the aid of the current and with the steam remaining in the boiler, succeeded in reaching a dock, where the passengers landed.

CRAPSEY CASE ON TRIAL.

Court of Review of the Episcopal Church Will Hear Evidence on Heresy Charges.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The case of Rev. Dr. Algernon S. Crapsey will come up today before the court of review of the Protestant Episcopal Church for determination whether or not his sentence of suspension on the charge of heresy shall be upheld. Prominent ministers and laymen arrived yesterday to attend the trial of Rev. Dr. Crapsey, rector of St. Andrew's Church, Rochester.

The defendant was accompanied by his lawyer, James B. Perkins. It is said that they will appeal for an adjournment on the grounds that Dr. Crapsey has not had time to prepare his defense, but this action will be strenously opposed.

FLASHES FROM WIRES.

Six men were badly hurt last night in an accident on the Thirty-ninth-street ferry line of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company. Several may die from internal injuries. They were hurt by flying splinters when a car crashed into a heavy van between Ulmer Park and Coney Island.

Invitations to attend and address the annual gathering of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress which is to begin at Kansas City on November 21, have been sent to Elihu Root, Joseph G. Cannon, Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, ex-President Grover Cleveland, Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, and Harvey D. Goulder, president of the American Merchant Marine League.

TEDDY, JR., IN DOCTOR'S CARE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GLENWOOD SPRINGS (Colo.) Sept. 4.—Limping slightly on his left leg, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., came into town this evening, and went immediately to the Colorado, accompanied by his friend, Shawn Kelly. They have been out eleven days, but so far have not succeeded in getting any game.

Yesterday young Roosevelt scratched his leg on some brush and the wound became somewhat inflamed, so he decided to come to Glenwood for medical treatment.

Dr. E. M. Schultz, resident physican at the hotel, examined the leg and prescribed cold applications during the night. He will open the wound tomorrow. The doctor says the injury is not serious.

GRAMMER ON REGULATION.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—Capt. J. G. Grammer, vice-president of the New York Central lines in Chicago, who has returned from the conference of the Interstate Commerce Commission and chief traffic officers of Eastern and New England trunk lines, a delegation from the Illinois Manufacturers' Association and the American Shippers' Association, yesterday, expressed the opinion that operation of the Hepburn regulation act will produce an effect less perceptible than did the old Interstate Commerce law.

Points You Should Know About Diamonds

By cutting a Diamond too thick.
By splitting the rough Diamond crystal and making two stones that are too thin.
By cutting the Diamond not perfectly round.
By leaving the girdle too thick instead of polishing it to a sharp edge.
By putting facets on unevenly.

More weight in the finished Diamond can be produced from the rough stone, but inferior Diamonds result. The brilliance is reduced and the value of the Diamond is less than if it were perfectly cut. Our flawless Blue White and Extra White Diamonds are crystals of rare color and purity, perfectly cut by the most expert cutters of the world. Their superiority is very apparent whenever placed beside a Diamond of improper cut or ordinary color. We deal in perfect Diamonds exclusively.

STENSLAND'S IN SULT

Morocco Appealed tion of Bank Pr Denies Spending Langdon Key—He

[BY DIRECT WIRE

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Paul O. Stensland, wrecker of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, was drawn a step nearer justice today, when Gov. Deneen petitioned Acting Secretary of State Adee in Washington for the good offices of the United States government in securing Stensland's extradition from Tangier, Morocco.

The authorities at Washington were asked to make a request upon the Sultan of Morocco for Stensland's delivery to Assistant State's Attorney Harry Olsen. At the same time Acting State's Attorney Barbour framed a request for a warship to bring the fugitive to New York, so as to obviate the possibility of Stensland's balking when he reaches other territory.

Open bitterness between the State Attorney's office and the police department was accentuated today when it was announced that two representatives of the former would be sent to Tangier to officiate in bringing back the prisoner, while Chief of Police Collins declared that he would send two detectives for the same purpose.

HERRING MAKES DENIAL.

Harry Herring, cashier of the bank, who was accused by Stensland, in an interview at Tangier of being his evil genius and getting the greater part of the money stolen from the institution, made a specific denial of every accusation made against him by his former employer.

He talked freely for more than an hour in the most extended statement he yet has made for publication, and asserted that so far from Stensland being his dupe that the shoe was on the other foot, and that he had been beguiled by the elder man into silence on the state of the bank's finances when he should have spoken.

In his confession made to Assistant State's Attorney Olsen at Tangier, Stensland took much of the blame upon himself, but declared Cashier Herring was the forger, and that Herring got most of the money. He declared in a lie that he had spent any money on Leon Langdon Key, or any other woman. He declared that he never spent more than $5000 a year himself, and that all the money he stole he put into real estate or investments in the hope of "making good."

STENSLAND SHOWS SURPRISE.

Stensland's confession began with a statement that he was surprised to learn that the total loss involved in the bank's failure will reach $2,000,000, and declared his liability to the bank did not exceed $500,000. He exonerated his son, Theodore, and the bank directors.

"My indebtedness began a long while ago, in 1890. It was a small affair, a small amount, and God knows I never intended to steal. I was in a tight hole and needed the money. I put my own note, genuine, not a forgery, in the box. Then it was suggested to me that the bank examiner would stand for it, and he did.

"Herring pointed out, in a roundabout way at first, that it was easy to obtain money that way. Then, when my own notes became too numerous, he suggested forgeries. First he tempted, then he urged, and I fell. Ever after that I was absolutely in his power. He owned me, body and soul. He knew I had to constantly use forged notes, and as the price of my silence he kept a lot of stock forgeries on hand, to be used as occasion required."

Diplomatic representatives will hunt for Stensland's money in various European cities.

CONFESSION CLEARS MYSTERY.

NEW LIGHT ENTERS THE CASE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—A cable dispatch from Tangier says:

Paul Stensland's confession, made to Assistant State's Attorney Olsen yesterday, clears up much of the mystery surrounding the events leading up to the crash which evolved the ruin of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank. He took much of the blame upon his shoulders, but declared Cashier Herring was a forger and that Herring got most of the money.

In his heart of hearts he was glad he was no longer a wanderer on the face of the earth.

"Why," said he, "think of signing a name not your own. It is worse than stealing. I did not know it would be so hard to be a fugitive."

Stensland did not delude himself with the idea of escaping punishment.

KNOWS CHICAGO JUSTICE.

"You have not been found guilty yet; you have a chance to make a fight in court," was suggested.

Stensland laughed and said:

"I know what a Chicago jury will do to me. I know Chicago juries."

He said he had made up his mind to flee on the Thursday preceding the Sunday on which he left Chicago. On Wednesday night he wrestled with the problem whether to blow his brains out or run. In the hours of darkness he decided to kill himself, but postponed the act until dawn and with the sunlight came the primal instinct to hold on to life and flight won over death.

His preparations were hurried. He had surrendered his life insurance policy for $5000 and had received $3000 as commission on the sale of the property of the Coöperative Store to the Northwestern Life Insurance Company. He drew $1500 as salary from the Mount Olive Cemetery Association. This was all the money he had taken with him.

"Why, with a million of dollars cash in the bank did you not take more?"

BIG SUM WAS AT HAND.

"I could have taken a quarter of a million dollars without trouble," he said, "but I did not want to. I never took one cent of cash from the bank and put it in my pocket. I never took a dollar belonging to other people."

Stensland's health at first was not the best. When he boarded the train on the start of his flight he fainted. On board ship he again was stricken, and for four days was on his back. In his first few days in Tangier he was far from well, and he went to Spain knowing the risk he took in moving from what he regarded as protected soil.

Assistant State's Attorney Barbour today made a demand on the United States government for a warship to bring Paul O. Stensland, the banker now under arrest at Tangier, back to this country. The request was sent by Barbour to Gov. Dineen, following a series of communications between the State executive and Acting Secretary of State Adee at Washington.

The request was sent by Barbour to Gov. Dineen, following a series of communications between the State executive and Acting Secretary of State Adee at Washington.

PERIL IN TRIP.

Barbour urged the seeming peril of bringing Stensland across foreign countries where the prisoner might suddenly balk at the prospect of returning to the United States. Moreover, Barbour asserts that Stensland may kill himself and points out with vigor the advisability of having Stensland brought back to this country as a Federal prisoner on board of a warship.

Atty.-Gen. Stead and Assistant State's Attorney Barnett were busy today preparing a petition to President Roosevelt asking him to see that the government of Morocco is asked to turn the prisoner over to the United States authorities without delay. This petition will be sent to Washington along with other documents, including the bench warrants for the arrest of Stensland.

Cashier Herring was filled with bitterness today when he read the statement cabled from Tangier, in which Stensland accused him of being the author of the ruin of the bank. Herring denied this with much energy, and reiterated his statements of yesterday, in which he declared that Stensland led him into the trouble, instead of he leading Stensland.

DINEEN ISSUES REQUEST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Sept. 4.—Gov. Dineen today issued a request to the State Department asking that the United States government make a request upon the government of Morocco to surrender Paul O. Stensland, arrested at Tangier yesterday.

Owing to lack of an extradition treaty with Morocco, the request on that government is in the form of a formal extradition request, but asks that Stensland be delivered to the State authorities as an act of grace.

HOPE FOR THE MONEY.

EXTRADITION IS SECONDARY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The State Department is more greatly concerned over the steps taken to tie up a deposit of money which has been made in a bank at Tangier, Morocco, by Paul O. Stensland, president of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank of Chicago, than with the extradition of the fugitive banker himself. Acting Secretary of State Adee is giving the question his personal attention.

It is the impression that no international complications would result if the authorities quietly kidnapped Stensland and returned him to this country for trial, but it is entirely a different question when it comes to the recovery of money deposited at a foreign bank regardless of whether that money was stolen or not.

There are certain questions of international law involved which must be settled before the deposit can be gained for the creditors of the defunct Chicago bank. The relations between the United States and Morocco are not as clearly defined as between this country and nations of continental Europe, and, therefore, the procedure is indefinite. Acting Secretary Adee has asked the solicitor of the State Department for a ruling to determine just what the department may do.

DEPOSIT MAY BE SMALL.

The deposit is reported to be about $12,000, and it is said Stensland may also have other funds in foreign banking concerns. If this should be the case the Chicago authorities probably will ask the State Department for assistance in recovering them.

Four dispatches were received at the State Department today from Illinois authorities—two from Gov. Dineen and two from State's Attorney Healy. While these were not made public it was stated that all were in the nature of appeals to the department that it do everything in its power to extradite Stensland.

The authorities are cognizant of the difficulties that must be overcome in view of the fact that there is no extradition treaty between this country and Morocco.

The American Minister to Morocco was sent a dispatch yesterday, instructing him to ask the Moroccan authorities whether they would surrender Stensland for removal to the United States. At noon today no reply had been received.

The entire matter of extradition and recovery of Stensland's deposit in the Tangier bank has been referred to the solicitor for the State Department. He may recommend that a war vessel proceed to a Moroccan port to take Stensland should the Sultan decide to surrender him.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Mexico City says:

With their bodies severely burned by the fires of Mount Colima volcano, fourteen adventurous delegates to the International Congress of Geologists, which meets in this city this week, returned here yesterday.

The trip to the crater of the volcano was a perilous one. It never had been accomplished by any one, although several attempts to scale the precipitous mountain had been made.

The members of the party of mountain climbers went about their work methodically. They established camps at different points on the ascent, and made a certain amount of progress each day until the summit finally was reached. The volcano was pouring forth great volumes of smoke, but this did not deter the explorers from advancing to the edge of the crater. A hot and sudden blast of fire from the depths below badly scorched the bodies of the men, and they beat a hurried retreat.

Those who comprised this daring party were:

A. Hovey of New York; John E. Wolf and H. F. Clelland of Boston; H. W. Reid of Boston; Rudolph Ruedman of Albany, N. Y.; W. H. Weed of Washington; Frank M. Adams and M. Bancroft of Montreal; A. P. Coleman of Toronto; George Berg and Rudolph Stabbe of Berlin; Yaumaka Yaki of Tokio; Paul Waltse of Mexico City and Enrique Husta of Guadalajara.

BISHOPS MEET IN SECRET.

PARIS, Sept. 4.—A secret meeting of all the French bishops and archbishops took place here today, and excited intense interest owing to the fact that the prelates will decide whether the break between the church and state is irremediable or whether it is possible to find a way of obeying the law, as well as preserving the church interests. About eighty Bishops are present under the presidency of Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris.

Demonstration Sale Reed ...Furniture...

Assuming that you are interested in knowing how Reed Furniture is made, we have placed two workmen from our own factory in one of the windows to give you a practical demonstration. And to increase the interest we have made a reduction in our entire stock of Reed goods for this week.

Take a Look at the Window

You will see two experts in the act of building reed chairs. You will appreciate the fact that it takes time, nimble fingers and much experience to build one. You will also be impressed with the quality of materials used. The naked frames are there, telling their own story of strength and ability to give service. Being made in our own factory under our own personal supervision, we can back up every piece with our absolute guarantee. We make four finishes in reed goods—the natural, the Mission Green, the Flemish and the Brown. Don't miss this interesting demonstration.

EXTRA SPECIAL!

THIS $5.00 ROCKER $3.25

This is the chair they are making in the window. It sells regularly for $5.00, and is a bargain at that. Even after you have seen the demonstration you won't be able to understand how one can be produced and sold at that price.

This special price of $3.25 is 50c less than a reduction of 25 per cent. We assure you that this opportunity won't come again very soon.

All Reed Chairs Reduced ¼

A uniform reduction of 25 per cent. will be in effect on all Reed goods this week. Our stock is complete—the assortment being superior to any offered in the city. You have your choice of the four finishes in chairs, rockers or settees. Here are a few prices to guide you:

BAT PAINED AT ROASTING.

Thinks He Would Have Beaten Black, "If."

Gans Praises Nelson as Very Game Fighter.

Joe Says He Will Save Money for the Future.

BY HARRY C. CARR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One belligerent eye peeking out of a swath of bandages, was all that was visible of Battling Nelson today. He was in bed in the care of a doctor in the Goldfield Hotel, where he was taken after the fight. He looked like a ship scene. At his bedside sat the soubrette with witch hazel. Bat's father was at the foot of the bed, forgetting, in his sorrow, that he ought not to sit down in his new store clothes. On a couch sat Tim McGrath, who was in Bat's corner at the fight. Tim watched the ministrations of the soubrette with cynical interest.

"Tex Rickard," the fight magnate of Goldfield.

"Me," said Bat, with faint resentment, "Why, I feel fine. It's just this eye. I'd licked if that darn skunk hadn't pretended he was hurt."

"Do you think he was only pretending?"

"Do I think he was?" snorted Bat as he floundered over in bed nearly unseating the soubrette. "Gee, don't I know it. Why that nigger took off his protector in the twelfth round, and I knew he was going to do something."

Bat colored and the soubrette hastened to dab him with the witch hazel.

"Gee," wailed Bat, "I didn't hit him hard. On the level it wouldn't have broken your spectacles. I saw it was started kind of low and stopped it."

To soothe his feelings he was told that every sporting writer at the ringside sent out dispatches roasting him after the fight.

BAT HAS DREAMS.

"What?" roared Bat, "me? Roasting me? Why I had him licked. All that blood was coming from Gans. Oh, well a little from me, but I wasn't even breathing hard."

"But they said you fought a dirty fight."

"Aw—gee," protested Bat, "why that referee was all the time grabbing me by the hair, and pullin' me away. Gans kept rubbing his old wiry wool in my face until he made it as raw as beefsteak."

Bat forgot his woe when he talked of the union strike and the chance of bloodshed.

"Say," said he enthusiastically, sitting up in bed while the soubrette struggled for equilibrium," I got one of those black Maria pistols that goes off nine times. I'll be in the fight."

"Which side will you take, Bat?"

"I dunno," said Bat cheerfully, "but if anybody comes at me he'd better land on me quick."

Gans came to Goldfield this afternoon to find out what the gate receipts were. The management claimed $69,751 was taken in. Gans was humbly polite to all the white people who congratulated him, and magnanimous to Bat. The new champion was badly cut and discolored about the eyes and cheek bones. His broken hand was badly swollen.

FOUL WAS INTENTIONAL.

"Yas sar," said Joe, "I feel as good as any one could after forty-two rounds like that. Yas sar, it was rough fighting, but you must give it to Bat that he was game. He certainly took a terrible beating. I think Bat tried to foul me on purpose to save himself," said Joe, regretfully. "He done it three times that round. The first time I thought it was an accident. Next time I says, 'Say what yo doin,' then he got me. I was strong when the fight ended. I was figuring on closing Bat's other eye when it began to grow dark. Me being a dark man myself he couldn't see well and I could have finished him with the one hand I had left."

"Yas sar, I'm going to save mah money this time. Yas, sar, for investments. I don't guess I'll ever be broke again. I've gambled away enough. I know I aint good for much more fight money. Some day I'll get it and get it good and hard. I've got offers of $1000 a week, and I'm going to try to save something to keep me when I get mine and have to quit."

GANS IS POPULAR IDOL.

NELSON STILL IN HIS BED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GOLDFIELD, Sept. 4.—Joe Gans came to town this afternoon and was followed by a crowd of admiring miners. Gans was in good shape with the exception of his right hand. That pained him some, and he had to sign the check for $11,000 that Tex Rickard handed him today, with his left hand. Gans leaves tomorrow morning for San Francisco. Battling Nelson remained in seclusion all day, as his features were not pleasing to the eye. Nelson will remain here for at least another day. The total receipts for the fight as given out by Tex Rickard were $69,715, the total attendance was 7491 and the paid admission 6972.

Nelson is so badly battered that he will stay indoors until he can leave town. He will not linger longer than is necessary, as he probably is the most unpopular man who ever visited Goldfield. Gans goes to San Francisco in a few days to consider theatrical engagements. With the exception of Nelson's party, not a dissenting voice has been heard about the decision awarding the fight to Gans on a foul. Even losers in betting make no complaint and numbers of them called on the colored man and congratulated him on the showing he made. Gans says that he was offered $25,000 to let Nelson win, but he would not say who made the offer.

Gans declares his belief that Nelson fouled him intentionally, knowing that he had no chance to win. The negro says that he was comparatively fresh when the foul blow was struck and was sure of winning. Had he not broken a bone in his right hand in the twenty-seventh round he would have finished the Dane before the thirty-fifth round. Larry Sullivan has announced that Gans is willing to meet Nelson again within two weeks, but sporting men think that another contest is not likely to be arranged so soon. Jimmy Britt says he is ready to meet either Gans or Nelson.

FIGHT CAUSES MURDER.

RACE RIOT IN CHICAGO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—Violence, and in one instance, murder, was the result of the race excitement that developed while the returns from the Gans-Nelson fight were being received in Chicago last night. The levee district was aflame with the spirit of lawlessness that broke out at frequent intervals as the partisans of one or the other of the fighters ventured an opinoin.

In one case, a drunken negro, overhearing a remark from two others of his own race, that did not suit him, whipped out a revolver and killed one of the men and wounded the other. In other parts of the city negroes were the victims of bettors who had lost money on Nelson. In South Chicago a fight between blacks and whites resulted in the severe beating of several negroes and the arrest of forty men. In another instance a negro on his way home was pursued through the streets and attacked as he fell exhausted on the steps of the house where he is employed.

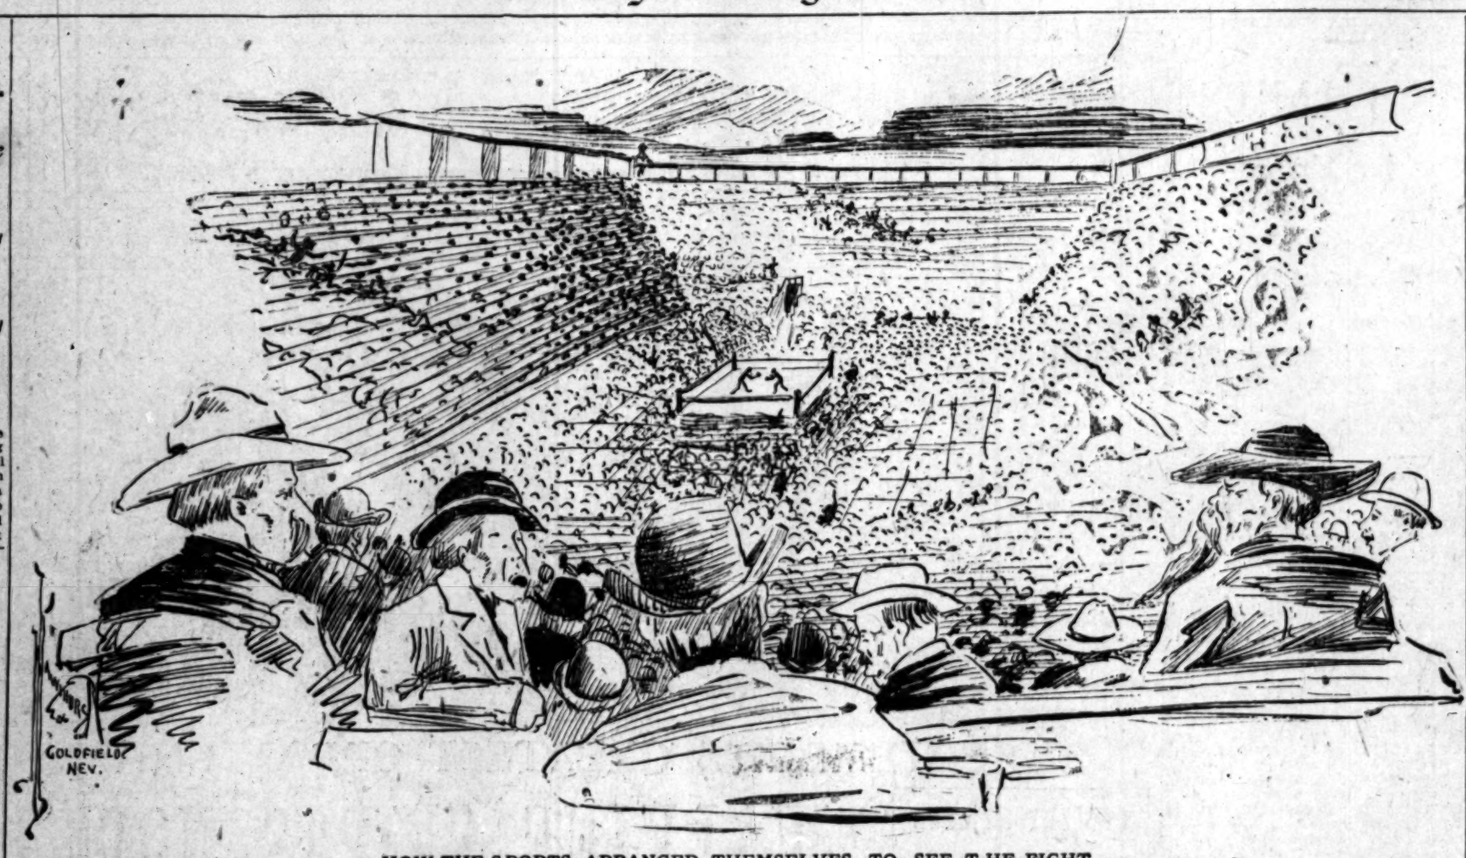
BALDY RECORD LOWERED.

American Four-Cylinder Car Makes the Difficult Run in Three Hours and Forty Minutes.

An American four-cylinder touring car, speeding over 100 miles of roads, is claimed yesterday to have lowered the record for automobiles between Los Angeles and Mt. Baldy thirty-eight minutes. It covered the distance and the climb up the mountain in the remarkable time of 3 hours 40 minutes. The previous record was held by the White steamer, two weeks ago, and the record of 4 hours and 18 minutes established by that machine was thought one that would hold a long time. The American car record is, of course, unofficial.

The American car was driven by James Speed, accompanied by J. E. Paul, the agent for the American Car Company on the Pacific Coast, and president of the Southern California Motor Car Company, which owns the machine. Both are experienced men in the handling of cars.

The trip is one of the most difficult for a touring car to make in all Southern California, and the American made a remarkable showing. Except for the wear and tear on the tires the car shows little the effects of the hard trip, and it will be possible for the company to use it for demonstrating purposes without even taking it into the repair shop. During the trip a temporary light seat was used, and aside from this the touring car required no change or repair.



HOW THE SPORTS ARRANGED THEMSELVES TO SEE THE FIGHT.

The "Frisco" fight trust put every dollar they had on Joe Gans before he entered the ring.

MEMSIC HERE FOR FIGHT.

Goes in Training for Mill With "Montana Kid," and Should Make Good Lightweight Event.

George Memsic, who, under the cognomen of "Jimmy Burns," is to box "Montana Kid" in the arena of the Pacific Club on the 14th inst., arrived from Chicago yesterday morning, and will at once begin training at Arcadia. A good match between lightweights is expected.

GEORGE MEMSIC.

Memsic is one of those boys who without the assistance of press agent of manager has gradually fought his way to the top, and his recent battles show him to be one of the most promising men in the lightweight division. Adam Ryan, one of the cleverest boxers in the Middle West, was his latest victim, Memsic beating him in ten rounds at Peoria last month.

Both men have agreed to weigh in at 133 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon for the coming fight, and have made a bet of $250 a side in addition to the purse offered by the club.

FIVE days from today, Locomotive Collision at Agricultural Park.

HARTFORD HARNESS RACES.

Cochato Annexes Big End of Futurity Event in Slow Time—Brenda Yorke Is Best Pacer.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HARTFORD (Ct.) Sept. 4.—The Hartford Futurity for trotters and pacers was the feature today of the second day's racing in the grand circuit meet at Charter Oak Park, the trotting division being won by Cochato, while Brenda Yorke easily carried off first money in the pacing division. There were only two starters in the latter division, the second horse being John Ward. The Hartford Futurity was worth $15,000, being the richest stake of the meet. Fifteen hundred dollars went to the pacers and $13,500 to the trotters. Summary:

Hartford Futurity, pacing division, two in three, purse $1500: Brenda Yorke won two straight heats and the race in 2:15¾, 2:13¼. John Ward also started.

Hartford Futurity, trotting division, two in three, purse $13,500: Cochato won the second and third heats and the race in 2:14¾, 2:16¾. Gay Bingen won the first heat in 2:17¼ and was distanced in the second.

The 2:08 class pacing, two in three, purse $2000: Rudy Kipp won three straight heats in 2:08¼, 2:07 1-4, 2:08¾.

FOOTBALL AT OCCIDENTAL.

First Practice Game Week from Today, and Merrill First College Coach to Have Squad Out.

Football practice begins at Occidental one week from today—September 12—and Merrill will be the first coach to have a squad out in the big Southern California colleges. Coach Holmes will put his first squad on the field September 17, and Pomona will get down to work September 23. Other schools will commence practice on the respective days college work begins.

The first big game of the season in Los Angeles will be the meeting of U.S.C. and Occidental, October 13, but there will be a number of tryout games in which the big teams will meet elevens representing smaller schools. U.S.C. thus will meet Whittier on September 29. These games chiefly will be interesting because of the opportunity given to see new men work. A number of promising candidates for each of the big teams are anxious to show what they can do, and much depends on the development of these men for the big games. After the minor games are played, the coaches and rooters can size up the varsity pretty well.

A one-year residence clause will not now be put into effect in Southern California, according to the belief of Coach Holmes of U.S.C. "I believe that the rule adopted in the agreement reached last January, which provides that a semester residence be sufficient, will prove adequate for years to come in Southern California. In the East conditions are different for the big schools make strenuous efforts to land new players. No such campaign for football material is made here, and I do not believe that a man will complete a full year's work which he must do in order to play through a football or track season, should he enter school merely to take part in athletics. To enter into spring athletics, according to the present rule, a student must complete the first semester's work and continue in the second semester. If he desires to take up football in the fall, he must complete the spring semester of work and enter regular classes in the fall. To my mind, this is sufficient to qualify a student in eligibility.

"I would like to correct the idea that the colleges are in a state bordering on war over athletic matters. As the schools are the best of friends with each other and there is no wrangling, as in professional sports. Our representatives meet and discuss rules and decide on policies. If one school does not feel able to live up to the rules as prepared or adopted by the other schools, it simply withdraws from contests in the line of sport in which the disagreement occurs, but the schools and their representatives remain friends. Conditions at the various schools may be adverse, causing disagreements which are not brought about by difference of opinion alone."

At Occidental the feeling is not so conciliatory as at U.S.C., and the prospects are that the Presbyterians will insist on a rigid ruling regarding eligibility.

SEAGIRT RIFLE CONTEST.

New Jersey Marksmen Leads Others at Shorter Distance Ranges. New York in Third Place.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SEAGIRT (N. J.) Sept. 4.—The progress expected was not made today in the National team match. When "cease firing" was sounded early this evening only the 200 yards and 600 yards, slow fire stages had been completed and only the first two of the 120 men had fired at the 800 yards slow-fire stage. There remain to be shot tomorrow, the conclusion of the 800 yards stage, the 200 yards rapid fire, the skirmish run and the 1000 yards slow fire.

The start of the most important military team company competition made in this country began promptly on time this morning and at the conclusion of the first stage Massachusetts and New Jersey were tied for first place, with scores of 509, and New York, which had thrice won the National trophy, was in seventh place.

When the work at 800 yards was ended New Jersey led with a total for the two ranges of 1031, with Massachusetts second, with 999, and New York third with 997. Other scores were:

	200 yds.	600 yds.	Total.
12 Washington	483	481	964
16 Oregon	463	475	938
20 California	483	430	913

New Running Records.

MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—A new Canadian record for the five-mile run was made yesterday by McCaig of the Montreal A. A., who covered the distance in 26:53. The former record was held by Grant of the New York A. C., in 27:25.

SPORTS BET MUCH MONEY.

Big Wads Change Hands on Gans-Nelson Fight.

Colored Champ Was Always Top-Heavy Favorite.

Losers Not Very Sore Over the Decision.

Local sports bet money enough on the Gans-Nelson fight here during the past two weeks to pay the salary of the Mayor for about nine years. The sum wagered was about $30,000, and there would have been more money put up if there had been more known about the condition of Gans.

It is doubtful if there has been a fight for years that figured to be such an open one, for while Nelson was known to be the best among the lightweights outside of Gans, the negro was the lightweight champion and had shown repeatedly that he was one of the best men that ever fought. Still, he has been fighting for twelve years, and has set a fast pace at times, and was mixed up on several occasions in fake fights and many sports who could not see how he could lose on form, were afraid of a possible fake, although the Goldfield miners had declared they would not stand for any such thing.

Even with doubts about his condition and his squareness, there was plenty of all kinds of money here to bet on him and apparently as much to wager on Nelson. The "wise" men who bet on what they call sure shots, and those who stuck to their dope books, played Gans to a fare-you-well, and wanted more, while the pikers and poor people stuck to Nelson probably because he was the best known locally of the two.

The biggest bet recorded was $1000 to $750, Lee Hart of Pasadena taking the long end, Gans at all times being favorite. The odds opened up here two weeks ago at 10 to 9, and at one time went down to 2 to 1 for small bets, but the greater part of the money was laid on at 10 to 7 and 10 to 8. Abe Brown of the Hub Clothing Company is said to have bet about $2000 on Gans at these prices. Abe Morris put down $300 on Nelson against $1000, and of course, didn't pick it up. Izzy Fleishman bet $650 to $500 on Gans and Eddie Hookstratton bet several hundred on the black champion.

Sam Schenck was another strong Gans man, and he certainly did cop a nice bunch of money on Little Joe that picked the cotton. Several weeks ago he got $90 to $100 several times, $200 to $180 and $100 to $80 several times, and cracked the Paris Mutuals for no less than $557.50 by putting up $25. Guess that isn't luck. At one place he bought twenty-five tickets at $1 each in the section for "20 and over," and as the fight ended in the forty-second round, Schenck had some easy money. Sam got 23 to 1 for $25, and each ticket paid $22.30. It is said he was betting for the same man that he placed money for at Ascot last winter, but whether he was or not, he got the money.

Charles Johnson bet $140 to $200 on Nelson, and is out that much, and Alex. Steinman got right on Gans for about $800 worth. Henry Berry laid $50 to $100 on Nelson, and Mike Pohaki had $100 on Gans at 10 to 8. Charley McClelland also had $100 on Gans. Billy Murphy had one bet of $400 to $320 on Gans, and several of $100 at 10 to 8. An eastern tourist at the Angelus also bet $400 on Nelson against $500 and can't cash his ticket. A local saloon man wanted to bet even money after the fifth round that the fight would not go fifteen rounds, but couldn't find any one that this looked good to.

As showing how crazy some sports were, a number wanted to bet 2 to 1 on Gans from the fifteenth to the twentieth round, and one Arizona mining man bet $5 with a local sport that there would be four men killed in Goldfield the night of the fight. A local millinery man had $700 on Gans at 10 to 7, and 10 to 7½, and there were so many $50 and $20 and $10 bets that no one could keep track of them. Any number of hats and suits of clothes were won and lost, and many of the cheap sports will be trying all this week to take in all the "drinks" and dinners they won on Gans.

This Is the Greatest Beach Between Ocean Park and Santa Barbara

It is a long-established seaport known to every sailor. The shipping interests there are steadily growing. It has every facility for a great coastwise and foreign traffic. The largest steamers load and unload at its wharf. Seven large warehouses testify to the magnitude of its shipping trade. The Bakersfield & Ventura Railway taps the richest agricultural section of California and Ormond Beach is its southern terminus.

The Santa Monica, Malibu & Ormond electric line now building from Santa Monica makes Ormond Beach the crowning feature of its scenic route. Its commercial activities make it the San Pedro of Ventura county, while its resort and amusement features make it as a second Long Beach.

AS AN INVESTMENT IT APPEALS TODAY TO EVERY WISE JUDGE OF VALUES AS THE GREATEST OF ITS TIME.

THE AFTER-EFFECTS

Distinguish Schlitz beer from the common.

Other beer may be equal to Schlitz in your liking. But perhaps it is green beer—insufficiently aged: and the after-effect is biliousness.

Or it may be impure, unfiltered, unsterilized; and the after-effect unhealthful. More than half the cost of our brewing is spent to insure purity.

That is how important we deem it.

Ask for the Brewery Bottling.
Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz.
To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded

MOST SUCCESSFUL INVESTORS.
THE MOST SUCCESSFUL INVESTORS ARE THOSE WHO HAVE PURCHASED INCOME REAL ESTATE; PROPERTY THAT PAYS INTEREST ON THE PURCHASE PRICE WHILE LAND ADVANCES IN VALUE. MANY CAPITALISTS LOAN MONEY SOLELY FOR THE INTEREST IT BRINGS, WHILST MANY OTHERS, ESPECIALLY IN LOS ANGELES, INVEST IN VACANT LOTS SOLELY FOR THE PROFITABLE ADVANCE IN MARKET VALUE. OBVIOUSLY IF THESE ARE PROFITABLE BUSINESS ENTERPRISES, THEN HE WHO INVESTS IN INCOME PROPERTY, THE RETURNS OF WHICH EQUAL THE INTEREST OF THE MONEY LENDER; HIS PROFIT EQUALS THAT OF THE MONEY LENDER AND ALSO THE VACANT LOT INVESTOR. TO THOSE WHO DESIRE THIS DOUBLE PROFIT, WE INVITE YOUR INVESTIGATION OF THE FOLLOWING.

STOCKS AND BONDS—

FOR SALE—
COEUR D'ALENE MINING STOCK.
I handle all the stocks quoted on this market of the Coeur d'Alene Mining District. I have invested a number of the properties owned by the different companies, therefore am familiar with the majority of the best known and most active stocks of the Coeur d'Alene, and have from personal investigation the real merit and value which these stocks represent.
Through my efforts in placing the treasury stock of numerous prospects, they have been developed into paying mines, among these being Success, Big Creek, and Tamarack and Chesapeake.
SNOWSTORM I originally sold at 15c. It is now worth $3. This stock will pay a dividend of 200,000, or 6c a share, in September.
BIG CREEK, another property the treasury stock of which I sold at 30c, is now soaring toward the dollar mark.
I am in the market for:
Snowstorm,
Idaho Los Angeles,
Reindeer,
Tamarack,
Chesapeake,
Stewart Benton,
Moonlight,
Ist,
I have for sale:
Idaho Los Angeles,
Benton,
Tarbox,
O. K.,
Reindeer,
Mayflower,
Moonlight,
Ist Paul,
Rex,
Stewart,
Hanley,
Silver Cup,
Little Chief,
Iron Crown,
Red Bell,
Great Northern (near Burke, Idaho.

THE D. & W. MINING COMPANY
owns a copper property located 40 miles from the Needles, Cal., which has a most excellent showing, and will bear the strictest investigation. We are offering the firs. block of treasury stock (limited to 50,000 shares) at 15 cents a share. This is a new property, but we have the recommendation of the best mining experts, and has exceptional values on the surface which have been proven to increase with depth. We have personally inspected the property, and what we say to you is from personal observation and not hearsay, and we are willing to back up our statements by offering to pay your way to and from the mine, if our statements are not borne out. From assays we have had of the ore, we expect to be shipping before a great while, therefore the opportunity to buy at this price, we will not last long.

Minus Money and Checks.

Joseph Rapini, a tourist from Glenwood Springs, reported to the police yesterday that he had been robbed of $700 cash and checks, on the previous night. He said he had attended a gathering and that while there missed the purse. Rapini is staying at No. 1515 Bank street.

Run Down by Auto.

E. H. Rydell, No. 461 West Thirty-ninth street, was run down by an automobile at Main and Twelfth streets yesterday noon. The chauffeur stopped long enough to find out whether Rydell was seriously injured, and when the victim in a dazed manner, said tha the did not thing he had been badly hurt, the auto driver left. Rydell was found unconscious later and sent to the Red Cross Hospital. He had sustained a fracture of two ribs.

Thrown from Car to Street.

In attempting to leave an in-bound Los Angeles-Pacific car at Sixteenth and Hill streets, yesterday morning, J. C. Plummer, a real estate man living at Santa Monica, was thrown to the pavement and sustained bruises about the limbs and breast. Mr. Plummer is 74 years of age. He thought the car had come to a standstill, but a jerk threw him from the steps. The car crew assisted Plummer to his feet and sent him to the Receiving Hospital.

Offers a Reward.

The public librarian offers a reward of $200 to any one who will furnish information that will lead to the conviction of the person who issued a fake circular, dated June 23, purporting to be signed by the librarian. He also offers 25 cents apiece for copies of the circular, which, among other things, extolled the virtues of expert historian, C. J. K. Jones, of the public library. At the time the circular was issued Librarian Lummis was on a vacation in the wilds of Arizona.

Bumped by Car, Ring Gone.

Jesse L. Edmundsen of No. 949 West Ninth street claims he was knocked down by a Ninth-street car about 7 o'clock last night at Eighth and Spring streets. He stepped off of a northbound car and started toward the old armory, when he was struck by a car going south. His left arm was bruised and his left wrist wrenched. In the accident Edmundson had the misfortune to lose from his right hand a beautifully designed thirty-second-degree Masonic ring which he values at $85. The ring is set with a diamond.

Woodward's Condition Critical.

Robert Woodward, the twenty-one-year-old boy who accidentally shot himself day before yesterday after returning from a camping trip up Mt. Wilson, still lingers between life and death at the Good Samaritan Hospital. With an X-ray photograph of the wound to guide the surgeon's knife an operation was performed at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The boy's strong constitution, which has supported him wonderfully through the pain that he has suffered in the last two days, gave way at the critical moment, and the surgeons were obliged t stop the operation before they had time to discover the exact location of the bullet. During the afternoon the patient's condition did not change, and the only hope that is now held out for his recovery is that he shall regain sufficient strength to undergo another operation.

San Jose Woman Who Married Salvationist Brings Suit Against Brother in Wisconsin.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MANITOWOC (Wis.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After twenty years Mrs. Hattlebough of San José, Cal., has made a demand for an accounting from her brother, Prescott Boynton of this city, on $12,000 which she alleges was intrusted to his care. A suit for that amount has been brought.

Mrs. Hattlebough is 72 years old, and was a widow at the time the money was given to Boynton. A few years ago she was married to a leader of the Salvation Army, and it is claimed that this caused the trouble between brother and sister.

The British battleship Lord Nelson, sister ship of the Agamemnon and second in size and armament to the Dreadnaught, was successfully launched at Barrow-on-Tyne today.

OIL WELLS GOING DOWN.

NEW LIFE INFUSED INTO THE COALINGA FIELD.

Story Told of a Successful Company That Has Struck Good Oil Sand—Other Companies Planning to Develop the District Whose Boundary Has Been Extended.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

COALINGA, Sept. 3.—Since the Lucile Oil Company struck the sand about three months ago, what is known as the west side of the Coalinga oil field has received a substantial boost, and already seven different concerns are drilling or getting ready to drill in the immediate vicinity of the Lucile property.

The history of the opening up of this section of the field forms an interesting and, in some points, a sensational chapter in development work here.

As was stated some time ago, the Old Glory and Big Pinoche Oil Companies were the pioneers in this section of the field, but their efforts, which were directed to selling stock, rather than striking oil, never amounted to anything, and their history ended five years ago and their successor was the Vanderzee Oil Company, a concern which, three years ago, located a strip of land near the Old Glory and started a well. The hole was drilled about 500 feet deep, and work was suspended, for reasons best known to the owners.

The shreeves Oil Company, composed entirely of Los Angeles parties, is at present drilling on the Vanderzee Oil Company's land, and secured its title in the following manner:

Shortly before the Vanderzee Oil Company suspended operations, the Lucile Oil Company secured fifty acres adjoining and began operations, acting in good faith, and intending to drill for oil. Shortly after they commenced drilling, the Vanderzee concern shut down, as stated, without having proven the land, but merely having done a certain amount of assessment work in order to hold its claim to the land, and for two years no work whatever has been done. The Lucile Oil Company kept "plugging away," and after several bunches of hard luck found what they were after. The representatives of the Vanderzee had been keeping close watch on the progress of the Lucile well, and when it was found oil had been reached, they showed signs of life. But there were others, who, also, had been watching developments, and one dark night a half-dozen hauling outfits might have been seen hauling boiler, engine, tools, rig timbers, etc., to a certain point on the Vanderzee Oil Company's property. They were not seen, however, except by those interested, and in the morning the stuff for a new rig was on the ground and a location notice signed by Thomas McDowell, Al Gueberson, S. R. Bowen and others was posted on the land. The Vanderzee Company at once secured an injunction on the new locators, restraining them from further operations, but the "jumpers," as they were called, secured a counter injunction, which was granted on the grounds that the land had never been proven to be oil land and that the Vanderzee Company had forfeited its title because no assessment work had been done on the property for two years. This secured the new locators in their position, and they began at once the erection of their rig, and later granted a lease for thirty-five acres and turned over the righ located theeron, to "Jim" Shreeves, a contractor here, who at once organized the Shreeves Oil Company. The location of this well is about 1000 feet west of the Lucile, and a good producer is certain to result.

It might be stated that in order to secure all titles and avoid any difficulty that might arise in the future, a compromise was effected between the "jumpers" and the Vanderzee people, whereby the 160 acres was equally divided. Thus it was that O'Donnell et. al. came into a very handsome piece of property on very easy terms.

The West Coalinga Oil Company has recently secured the northeast quarter of Section 12, about one mile west of the Lucile, and is now building roads and bunk-houses, preparatory to drilling. This concern is composed largely of Coalinga parties.

The Manchester Oil Company has a rig up about two miles south, and drilling has commenced.

It is said the Commercial Petroleum Company, or parties interested in that concern, have secured a tract of land in this vicinity and will begin drilling at once.

The flurry in this neck of the woods has infused new life into the Mt. Hamilton and Echo Oil Companies, both of which have been drilling in the neighborhood of Alcalde for a long time. The Echo was started about four years ago, and work continued on the well intermittently ever since. A small quantity of oil has been found at various depths but nothing in paying quantities.

It is now believed that the oil belt extends unbrokenly to the Kreyenhagen district, about twenty-five miles south of here, and where, about six years ago, several wells were drilled by the Black Mountain Petroleum Company and the Kreyenhagen Land and Oil Company, composed of Los Angeles people. Two grades of oil were found here. One is a high-gravity, green oil, and the other the regular heavy, black fuel oil, so familiar to oil men in this State. There seems to be no doubt but that this spot will be developed into an oil field at some future time, when the more accessible fields begin to wane. And there is no doubt but that this same belt extends on down through the Devil's Den country, where the Spreckels, several years ago, sunk many thousands of dollars drilling for oil, and on to the Temblor district, McKittrick, Midway and Sunset. Consumers of oil have no need to fear that the supply will become exhausted, at least for many years to come. The oil industry in California is yet in its swaddling clothes, so far as development is concerned.

J. F. Goodwin, superintendent, and Messrs. P. O. Teitzen and Sam Fleischer, directors, of the Pinal and Brookshire Oil Companies, in the Santa Maria field, last week made a visit to Coalinga, with a view of ascertaining conditions here. They report that the Santa Maria field shows no increased activity, owing to the success of the Graciosa Oil Company in securing the 20,000,000-barrel contract in Japan. The Santa Maria production is amply sufficient to take care of this contract, without increasing it. The Graciosa will have the assistance of the Union Oil Company in making deliveries on the contract, until it can get more wells drilled and be able of itself to furnish the oil.

The Power of Money
Though money doesn't make the mayor go, it sometimes induces the police to move on.
Money won't buy an entrance into certain circles, but a well-bred air, plus a well-attired person, often wins for a young man friends that he otherwise could not have made, and aids him to gain position that otherwise would have been beyond his reach.
The better you are attired the better your chance of winning out. Is there any more pointed reason why you should wear Brauer-Krohn made-for-you attire?

PERJURED TOTEMITES REFUTED IN COURT.

Impartial Affidavits Give Lie Direct to the Union Toughs of San Pedro Who Are Fighting an Injunction—A Pointed Argument.

"THE same law applies to all men, but when men organize to prevent other men from working it is unlawful.

"No one disputes the right of men to organize for mutual benefit; but it is always illegal for any set of men to combine to injure other men.

"When men cannot walk the streets to seek work without being interfered with, then this government is not free."

These were the three pertinent principles which formed part of the argument of Hon. James A. Gibson, of Bicknell, Gibson, Trask, Dunn and Crutcher, before Judge Conrey in the Superior Court yesterday in support of a petition for a permanent injunction to prevent the members of the Longshoremen's Union at San Pedro from interfering with the employers of the Crescent Wharf and Warehouse Company.

The legal history of this petition promises to become a causus celebre in jurisprudence and Judge Conrey ordered the matter submitted and will in all likelihood make a written decision which will be read with more than interest in every court in the land.

Nearly forty affidavits were submitted to the court by the company yesterday in refutation of those first filed by the union, in which the totemites set forth how virtuous they were and never—shocking thought—used any bad language, but with the most "respectful persuasion" argued with the independent workmen now at work for the company: That they did not make threats or intimidate the non-union men.

The argument of Attorney Harriman, of Harriman & Spring, on behalf of the union, that Judge Conrey should refuse to grant the injunction because the totemites were so good that there was no cause to grant it, fell to the ground with a spatter, yesterday, in face of the voluminous affidavits made by deputy sheriffs, special officers, restaurant-keepers and outsiders.

UNION'S VILE TACTICS.

These affidavits are for the most part filled with quotations of what the "virtuous" union longshoremen called the independent workmen, and which no paper would print. Vile, obscene and opprobrious epithets run through the affidavits so that it gives one a bad taste just to read them. Yet these are the "respectful" terms employed by the union roughs in "persuading" the independent men to quit work.

Attorney Harriman argued at length upon the "lawfulness" of a body of men to organize and cited laws by the yard. He especially dwelt upon the act of the California Legislature of 1903 which provided that such organization shall not be criminal or be prosecuted as conspiracy.

"There are two conflicting interests in San Pedro," explained Mr. Harriman. "One is trying to decrease wages and lengthen hours of work, the other is trying to increase wages and shorten hours of work. For three years the struggle has been going on to keep up wages."

Unfortunately for this argument, Mr. Harriman in the next breath told Judge Conrey that the only cause for trouble was that the union men would not work with non-union men, and then he cited the grievance of the union lawsmiths:

"Why, the company actually discharged these men because they refused to work with non-union men," he said.

He also announced that the capitalist keeps the children of the workers from attending school. Everybody smiled.

AFTER UNION, NOT MEN.

The union's attorney tried to minimize the effect the affidavits submitted by stating that they did not "name" the men who were alleged to have made the threats reported or to have used the vile language quoted.

But Mr. Gibson retorted that it was the union and its members the injunction was to restrain, and that in all cases the affidavits set forth plainly that it was union men who committed these unlawful acts.

Among these affidavits was one from Mrs. Annie Wilson, whose husband is proprietor of a restaurant near the docks in San Pedro, where some of the non-union men actually had the nerve to eat sometimes.

Mrs. Wilson under oath tells of how the union men in and about the restaurant had guns, rocks and clubs, and she heard them threaten to use them on the non-union men. She heard them threaten to burn down the Salt Lake Railroad wharf and to set fire to the oil tanks.

Mrs. Wilson also swears that because she served meals to some of the non-union men the union bandits threatened to burn down the restaurant and bullyragged her for "feeding scabs."

A special watchman from Long Beach, L. B. Wilson, tells in his affidavit of hearing the "respectful persuasion" of the unionists, and quotes some of the vile names they used. Wilson is lame, and he heard some of the strikers say they would "get him," meaning Wilson, because he was lame and could not run.

Special Officers W. H. Toler, D. Jackson, R. E. Powell, Roy Taylor, Deputy Sheriff H. W. Barrows, C. E. Redmond, agent of the Salt Lake Railroad at San Pedro; Superintendent R. H. Mock of the Crescent Wharf and Warehouse Company, and Manager A. J. Crawford of the Los Angeles night patrol, and many others told of the threats and language used by the union blackguards when trying to "persuade" or intimidate the independent workmen into giving up a chance to earn good wages.

VIOLENCE AND THREATS.

Superintendent Mock and Special Officer Powell tell of how the union's picket boat, "Examiner," filled with men, has continually gone from ship to ship which were being unloaded by non-union men to induce them to quit work, and failing in this, to intimidate them by making threats or calling them vile and indecent names, of which "scab" is of the mildest.

It was also shown that a union man named Mercer had committed violence and made threats. But Attorney Harriman for the union said that was only one man, and the company had failed to name any others, consequently the union should not be held responsible.

Following the argument of the union attorney, Mr. Gibson made an impassioned address, in which he set forth the true principles of man's alleged right to organize to intimidate other men. He said:

"The same law applies to all, but when men organize to prevent other men from working it is unlawful, and that is all we contend for in this case. No one disputes the right of men to organize for mutual benefit, certainly I do not, but it is always illegal for any set of men to combine to injure other men.

"When men cannot walk the streets to seek work without being interfered with then this government is not free. These men seem to think that because they belong to a union they can gather in great numbers and prevent men from entering the employ of the plaintiff.

"They have had no trouble with the plaintiff over anything except that non-union sailors are employed on the vessels. But the plaintiff does not own the ships, and has nothing to do with them. As stevedores the plaintiff is bound under the law to unload the ships, and they employed union men until they walked out in a body."

THE LAW IN THE CASE.

Three special cases similar to the one at bar were cited by Mr. Gibson in support of the contention of the plaintiffs for an injunction. One was that of the Chancellor of New Jersey, in which he granted an injunction against a labor union on the ground that no legislature could or had the power to make an illegal act a legal one.

In this State he cited the decision of Judge Sloss, then on the Superior Court bench for San Francisco, now on the Supreme Court bench, in the case of a restaurant proprietor against the Cooks' and Waiters' Alliance, in which he issued a restraining order prohibiting the strikers from parading in front of the restaurant which the totemites were attempting to boycott.

The third case was that of Judge Hunt of the San Francisco Superior Court, in the case of Pierce vs. the Stablemen's Union, in which he held that the acts of the Legislature of 1903 were unconstitutional, as no Legislature could make an illegal act legal which was criminal in its nature.

WATER FOR THE THIRSTY.

APROPOS the agitation for more public fountains and watering places for teams in the streets of Los Angeles, the kind act of a Pico Heights lady is worth presenting.

One of the interesting sights of Jasmine street is the memorial fountain lately erected by Mrs. Susie Risley Weare, in honor of her father, Levi Risley, and her mother, Mrs. Sophia Ann Risley. This fountain daily gives comfort to many passers-by. An appropriate tablet of marble is held in its masonry, and it is a fitting streets ornament for the beautiful home occupied by its donor.

There is constantly running fresh water for horses, and small stone water pools lower down wherein dogs may slack their thirst. Observing the use made of this fountain, even in this rather out-of-the-way street, one can but wonder that others do not adopt the idea of Mrs. Weare, and that memorial fountains do not appear on many of the city's highways.

People of Pico Heights take a pride in pointing out this useful and ornamental monument. It is said the improvement association of that neighborhood is considering the advisability of placing others at convenient points along Pico street.

HAS TO "SHOW" THE JAP CHIEF.

CHINESE JUNK WHANG-HO A COMER AT LAST.

Los Angeles Man Has Difficulty Getting Ancient Vessel Out of Little Brown Men's Hands, and Pays All Sorts of "Costs" to Do So—Expected in San Pedro on 15th inst.

After running the gamut of Chinese and Japanese diplomacy and being storm-bound in an out-of-the-way Japanese port, the redoubtable Whang-Ho, Chinese war junk, which has been purchased by a party of Los Angeles business men, is at last on her way across the Pacific, and is due to arrive in San Pedro harbor about the 15th inst.

Yesterday William M. Milne, who has represented the Whang-Ho Company, returned from a two months' trip to Japan. He brought the information that the Whang-Ho has sailed from the port of Uchinoura, in Osumi province, Japan.

It will be remembered that the Whang-Ho was purchased for a round number of thousands of American dollars from China, and that she is intended for exhibition purposes along the coast of Southern California. She sailed from China early last May, and was cleared by Consul-General Rogers at Canton, owing to the refusal of the Chinese government officials to clear a vessel of Chinese build and flying the American flag.

Everything was in readiness for the ship's reception, and a long wait ensued. Then across the Pacific came the word that a storm had caught the old junk, and that she had been forced into the Japanese port of Uchinoura, and that the Japanese chief of the village refused to permit the ship's departure because she carried firearms.

An agonizing wait ensued, in which cablegrams flashed back and forth to no purpose. The Japanese village chief was sitting on the lid that held the Whang-Ho in port, and refused to get off.

Then Milne started fast across the sea. He had cabled Capt. Hans Berg, a Dane, who is in charge of the war junk, that he was en route. This was almost the undoing of the entire arrangement.

When Milne arrived in Kobe he found that every official and every subordinate in sight knew of his mission and his intentions. The Japanese telegraph and cable systems are owned by the government, and every message is subjected to close scrutiny.

He was the first white man that ever visited the village of Ochinoura except the captain and mate of the Whang-Ho. No foreign vessel had ever touched at the little fishing port.

"The officials," said Milne, "looked upon the Whang-Ho as a filibuster. They asked why a Chinese war vessel, fully manned and carrying cannon and a full complement of arms, should say that it was headed for America. They suspected the vessel of being headed for Korea. There are uprisings and riots now going on throughout Korea, and the Japanese lay the entire blame for the trouble to the Chinese. They say that the Chinese, chagrined over the Japanese predominance in Korea, have instituted these riots, and are supplying the Koreans with arms.

"You can easily see, then, why the benighted Japanese village chief suspected the Whang-Ho, with its full complement of men and arms, of really being on its way to secretly distribute the arms among the Koreans and aid the rioting."

Efforts to explain the intentions of the local business men in regard to the Whang-Ho were futile. The Japanese mind could not "savvy."

"One morning," continued Milne, "I had just finished an hour's talk with the village chief, in an effort to convince the fellow that my intentions were all right, and was elated by the hope that I had at last convinced him of the error of his judgment. He answered: 'Plenty much arms. Plenty much men. Why is?'

On the last day of July Milne finally secured what he thought was the final clearance papers. He had the last conference with the village chief, and had paid a hundred and one little official "costs" that the chief had tacked on. He thought himself at last free. Then the old chief said the fishermen of the village had spent three days watching the Whang-Ho when it had first appeared off the entrance to the harbor, and during the storm that compelled it to seek shelter in the place, and that they, as a result, had lost the profits of the three days' fishing. As the head of the village, he demanded that Milne pay him the wages of the forty-five idle fishermen before he would grant clearance papers to the boat. Milne paid, and on August 1 the Whang-Ho set sail.

WHIPPED BY BROKEN BELT.

The accidental breaking of a belt at the Llewelyn Iron Works yesterday morning caused D. Silvester, a carpenter residing at No. 1764 East Main street, severe and painful injuries about the face and head. Sylvester was standing near the pulley on which the lower part of the belt whipped about.

RAILROAD RECORD.

RAILROADS IN BITTER FIGHT.

Mexican Central's Bold Move Arouses Harriman.

Pacific Coast Trade Is Bone of Contention.

Millions of Dollars Thrown Into the Breach.

Because the Mexican Central Railway has dared to make a bid for a portion of the trade of the Pacific Coast it is facing a bitter retaliatory move on the part of E. H. Harriman and the Espee, which is involving the expenditure of millions of dollars.

Harriman's decision to build from Guaymas to Guadalajara was reached immediately following the arrangement of the Mexican Central to complete its line through to the port of Manzanillo, in spite of the bluffing of the Southern Pacific.

The day that the Central determined after more than a year of inactivity to resume work on the Manzanillo extension, the Harriman forces were thrown into the field to rush a railroad through to the strategic point of Guadalajara, by which to bring the Central to time even at the ultimate necessity of pushing the line all the way through to Mexico City.

The bone of contention is the rich international Pacific Coast trade. Under the present arrangement the Southern Pacific and the Mexican Central are dividing this business through the El Paso gateway. But the Espee dominates the whole situation, and the Central believes that it has been getting the worst of the bargain in the division of the through rate.

But with its line completed through to Manzanillo, the Central will be in an entirely different position with regard to Pacific Coast business, and will be able to bring the Southern Pacific to almost any terms it may dictate.

With the completion of the Manzanillo extension, the Southern Pacific faces the prospect of a general readjustment, if not demoralization, of Pacific Coast rates, on terms which will be made by the Mexican Central. There is no doubt but the Central, in conjunction with some steamer line in which it will assuredly secure an interest, will make through rates from Seattle, San Francisco, San Pedro, and San Diego to all points in Mexico, which will be cheaper to the shipper and more advantageous to itself than the present arrangement.

Should this be done the Southern Pacific would either have to meet the rate by way of its long land haul, or entirely lose all its Coast business which now passes through the El Paso gateway. The Mexican road, occupying as it does, the central strategic position geographically, would be able to accomplish the astonishing feat of receiving shipments from San Francisco, through Manzanillo destined for points as far north as El Paso, and delivering them at less than the present Southern Pacific rate from San Francisco to El Paso.

In conjunction with the line of steamers which it already controls on the gulf coast, the boats of the Mexican American Steamship Company, it can receive shipments from New York destined for San Francisco, land them from steamer at Tampico, ship them overland to Manzanillo, 850 miles, trans-ship them, and lay them down in San Francisco at a less rate than the Southern Pacific could make and pay operating expenses on its 3000 miles of rail haul.

CURBING THE CENTRAL.

This is the situation with which the Mexican Central and the powerful anti-Harriman-H. Clay Pierce interests are menacing the Southern Pacific. This is the animus of the remarkable activities of the Harriman interests in breathlessly throwing down 800 miles of railway parallel to the Mexican Central, and tapping the rich Guadalajara district of the latter.

The purpose and intent of the Harriman interests to build a line of defense with which they hope to be able to hold the Central in hand is apparent. Through the medium of a continuous trunk line from Seattle to Guadalajara and even to Mexico City, if necessary, Harriman lieutenants hope that they will be able to compel the Central to maintain existing rates, and to refrain from making any rates with steamship companies lower than the Southern Pacific and the Mexican Central are now obtaining for the international coast business.

But while it will take the Southern Pacific six or eight years to complete its line to Guadalajara, the Central will be running trains in and out of Manzanillo by August of next year. By January 1, 1907, the contracting freight agents of the Mexican Central in New York, New Orleans, Chicago, and St. Louis and San Francisco will be contracting for the routing of transcontinental freight shipments by way of Tampico and Manzanillo.

They can make any rate which their freight traffic manager may authorize, and it is doubtful if the Interstate Commerce Commission could exercise any control over them.

Both the Harriman and Pierce interests are bending every energy to the stupendous task before them. All of the capital and men which human ingenuity can summon to the work are being employed, all to the end of reaching the goal as soon as possible.

While the Mexican Central has but about forty miles of roadway to build as against 800 of the Southern Pacific, some miles of that road have to be pinned to the solid side of sheer precipices under the shadows of the volcano Colima, or burrowed through endless tunnels and carried over spiderweb bridges of steel. And these stretches are costing as high as $500,000 per mile to construct.

On the other hand, the Southern Pacific is running a line of railway through a practically unknown country. It is traversing the Yaqui Indian districts of Sopora, clinging to the Sierras of Stualoa and Tempe and following the chain of mineral mountains through to the capital of Jalisco.

Harriman commands the prestige of his millions and vast railway interests, H. Clay Pierce and the Central have the solid backing of the Standard Oil, which never has been any too friendly to Mr. Harriman, and now less so since the coup in Southern Pacific in Wall street a few weeks ago.

PIERCE STANDS HIGH.

At the same time Pierce stands high with the Mexican government, and there is a pretty well-defined impression that he has already enlisted the sympathies if not the actual backing of the government for the Central in the prospective struggle.

Aside from any philanthropic interest which the government might take in the Central, it is a railway owner itself, and it is not at all improbable that the stock which it has recently acquired in the Central has been for the purpose of some day adding it to its system of merger lines, which would all the more complicate matters for Mr. Harriman's plans.

Southern Pacific engineers, after months of arduous work, have just finished the surveys of the proposed line all the way to Guadalajara. These surveys have been sent to the Department of Communications of the Mexican government, by which they will have to be approved before the work can be prosecuted.

This does not mean, however, that the work of construction is being held up. Gangs of workmen are busy on the portions of the survey already approved, and there will be no delay in waiting for governmental approval.

For the greater part of the distance as surveyed, the line runs along easy gradients, following as nearly as possible the sloping sides of the Sierra Madre next the Pacific Coast.

As soon as the plans have been approved by the department, work will be commenced from the Guadalajara end and pushed northward to meet the gangs working southward from Torin, 100 kilometers south of Guaymas, to which point the line is already complete.

BRIDE FOR DR. MORRISON.

Chief Surgeon of Santa Fe to Be Married Today to Charming Kansas City Girl.

That Dr. Norman H. Morrison, chief surgeon for the Santa Fé coast lines, with headquarters in this city, is to be married this morning to Miss Irma Rhodes, a pretty brown-eyed girl from Kansas City, will doubtless come as a surprise to many friends of this popular physician.

Nevertheless it is true, and the courtship is romantic, having been scarce a year induration. It is only that long since Miss Rhodes, with her mother and sister, came here to spend the winter. Dr. Morrison is a home-loving man. About a year and a half ago his wife died. Some time after Mrs. Kate D. Rhodes and her charming young daughter, Miss Irma Rhodes, came from Kansas City, here. They were old-time friends of Dr. Morrison and his family, and he was delighted to see them. His home had formerly been in Missouri. It was not many months until the doctor succumbed to the charms of the fair maid, who is an unusually bright and attractive girl, prominent in society in her home city, and, who has devoted much of her time to philanthropic work in connection with her mother, who has done a great deal along these lines. Mrs. Rhodes is one of the officers of the Children's Home in Kansas City, and has always been prominent in this and other charitable work. There is a children's home in Kansas City named the "Mattie Rhodes Home" in memory of Mrs. Rhodes's daughter, who died. Miss Rhodes is a niece of former Councilman W. H. Rhodes of this city.

Dr. Morrison came to California in 1872, and so may be called a pioneer. He lived in Santa Barbara at that time and later went to college in the East. He has lived in Los Angeles for the past twenty years. For several years he was police surgeon, and for seventeen years has been chief surgeon of the Santa Fé lines west of Albuquerque. He has done much work for the railroad and its employés. It was largely through his energy that the fine Santa Fé Hospital near Hollenbeck Park was a possibility. For many years Dr. Morrison had dreamed of such an institution for the good of the employés, and which they should themselves support. He drew all the plans for this structure, and saw that it was made complete in every detail.

The wedding, which is to take place today at 11 o'clock, at the temporary home of the bride's mother, No. 2557 South Hoover street, is to be witnessed only by immediate relatives. The home has been garlanded with soft greenery and brake ferns, and the couple will stand for the ceremony in front of the large fireplace, which is fastooned with greenery, over which falls a shower of the starry clematis. The same snowy blossoms are overhead and wound about the windows. The bride will wear a dainty gown of white organdie and lace and carry bride roses. A luncheon will be served in the dining-room, where spicy pink carnations and ferns lend an air of grace to the table.

Dr. and Mrs. Morrison will leave immediately for San Francisco, and from there will travel through the East, to be gone several months. On their home-coming the bride will be installed in the handsome Morrison home at No. 1263 West Adams street. Dr. Morrison has two children, Miss Lelah Morrison and Weyland Morrison, both popular in local society, and students at Stanford University.

In the application for a marriage license, Miss Rhodes's age was given as 30, and Dr. Morrison's as 52.

CALL TAKES NO HAND.

States He Isn't Mixed Up in Irvine Land Fight, Declares Title Best in the World.

Joseph H. Call, whose name carries weight as special government counsel in various important cases before the Interstate Commerce Commission, informs The Times that he has no connection whatever with the attack on the Irvine estate's holding in Orange county, and states that his name was used absolutely without authority by those who are making that fight. The story of the controversy was told in The Times yesterday, and one of the promoters of the scheme to wrest 30,000 acres from the Irvines on the grounds that it is misappropriated government domain freely gave the name of Mr. Call, among many others.

To show that he has no faith in the prospects of acquiring the lands referred to, Mr. Call declares that these Spanish grants are "the best titles in the world, and absolutely unimpeachable."

BRANDS IT NONSENSE.

Mining Man from Near Hermosillo Says Talk of Revolution Is All Bosh.

"All this talk of revolution in Mexico and of bitterness against Americans is nonsense," said Thomas Bentley last night. Mr. Bentley has for several years been foreman of the underground work at Minas Prietas near Hermosillo in the State of Sonora.

"There is no revolution and no probability of revolution. Americans are protected better there, I believe, than they are in their own country. There is no feeling shown there against Americans or American capital. All this talk about war on Americans is a hardship on the men from this country doing business down there as it is likely to cause bitterness where none exists now."

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

At yesterday's session of the City Council it was decided to complete the outfall sewer as soon as possible, and an ordinance was passed appropriating money to start the work.

The City Attorney reported to the City Council yesterday an ordinance designed to regulate employment agencies.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday officially formed the first big levee district in this part of the State, taking in almost the entire wash and bed of the San Gabriel River. An effort will now be made to control the storm floods in this valley.

Following the broomstick wedding of the Gypsy princess, Lena, to Prince Joe, in the Gypsy camp on Mission road, the bridegroom was arrested on the charge that his wife is less than 16 years old, and he spent last night in the County Jail.

Ranchmen in Shorb Precinct complained to the Supervisors that their precinct is too large and want it divided, or at least two polling places, where they can vote without having to travel many miles.

Manager Oviat of the Lyric Theater was convicted in the Police Court for permitting a child under 16 to sing and act at his place.

L. Marin, an ex-convict who tried to cut the arresting officer with a watermelon knife, is again in the toils for grand larceny.

Eighty drunks turned up in the police clutches from Saturday until Monday night. It was a Labor Day crop.

AT THE CITY HALL.

WORK TO BEGIN ON THE SEWER.

ORDINANCES PASSED BY THE CITY COUNCIL.

Will Let the Tunnel Section and Some Other Portions in Separate Contracts—Howton Tries to Block the Proceedings—Object to Spur Track.

The outfall sewer tangle took definite shape at the meeting of the City Council yesterday.

An ordinance was passed declaring it the purpose of the city to proceed forthwith to complete the sewer in accordance with the plans and specifications, and that "the work be relet in whole or in part, and, if in part, that the remainder thereof be constructed by day's work, under the charge, superintendence and control of the officers or agents of the city, the city to employ the labor and furnish the tools and materials necessary for that purpose."

Another ordinance was passed authorizing the Board of Public Works to expend a sum estimated at $2500 for the purpose of doing preliminary work in cleaning out, opening and deepening shafts and wells, in order to definitely ascertain the state of the work at many points.

These ordinances were passed in response to an agreement arrived at between the Board of Public Works, the City Council, the City Attorney and representatives of civic organizations, who met several days ago and thoroughly canvassed the whole subject.

The completion of Section 3, now generally known as the "tunnel section," will be let in a separate contract, and what other portions will be segregated and let in a similar manner is not yet definitely determined.

The preliminary work will be done immediately, and the advertisements are already in course of preparation for the submission of the tunnel section to bids. The report of the Board of Public Works to the Council states that about 15,000 feet of the sewer remains to be completed.

The only irregular feature about the proceedings was the very natural effort of "Spook" Howton to obstruct proceedings, bring about a new inspection of the work, and ask three members of the Bricklayers' Union to assist the city in determining the quality of the work done and materials used.

The Council paid no attention to Howton; just brushed his motion aside like they might dust from a coat sleeve. In an effort to shelve him, he was selected to preside at the session, President Summerland being absent, in the hope that he would not continue to make himself and the proceedings ridiculous, but it was a useless expedient.

Regulate Employment Agencies.

The City Attorney yesterday reported to the Council an ordinance regulating employment agencies, some of which have become a disgrace to the city by their disreputable tactics, and but for the objection of the "Spook" it would have been promptly adopted. The ordinance was framed at the instance of the Police Department, and provides that all employment agencies shall secure permits from the Police Commission, good for one year, before being permitted to do business, and that the commission shall have power to revoke the permit at any time on sufficient complaint. It will be taken up in two weeks.

Spur-Track Troubles

A number of protests have been presented against the Santa Fé Railway laying a spur track on Stephenson avenue, which privilege was recently granted by the Council. It works a great hardship on residents on account of reducing the width of the street, and they are up in arms against it. In seeking to have the privilege withdrawn by the Council the Board of Public Works called attention to the fact that the same company had laid a spur on Mills street without a permit, but probably would apply for one the moment attention was called to it. They recommended that in case the Mills-street spur was granted it be conditional upon relinquishing that on Stephenson Avenue. The matter was referred to the committee of the whole.

City Hall Briefs.

The letter of Prosecuting Attorney Beebe, asking for some special legislation from the City Council to cover the scattering abroad of bills of the defunct Georgia State Bank, and to furnish a definite penalty for passing them on unsuspecting shopkeepers, was referred to the City Attorney, with instructions to frame an ordinance.

The Board of Public Works was authorized to advertise for bids for the construction of an engine-house at Mohawk street and Sunset boulevard.

C. L. Burgess, chairman of the Board of Aldermen of Worcester, Mass., was a visitor at the session of the City Council yesterday and made a brief address.

A strip of land sixty feet wide, in the rear of the Los Angeles High School building, which is the property of the city, was condemned and ordered added to the school grounds.

A new haymarket ordinance was presented to the Council without reading, but went over for two weeks, in response to the usual objection from the Sixth Ward.

The Board of Public Works yesterday addressed a letter to the Civil Service Commission, looking to a modification of the rules so as to exempt laborers on the Owens River conduit and the outfall sewer from civil service rules.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

WILL BRIDLE SAN GABRIEL.

SUPERVISORS FORM FIRST BIG LEVEE DISTRICT.

Work of Confining Storm Floods from River Will Begin Soon and Its Rampages Ended — Improvements Expected to Increase Value of Property in the Valley.

At last the inhabitants of the San Gabriel River Valley will be allowed to "wrastle" with the storm floods of that "ornery" river.

The Board of Supervisors at its meeting yesterday officially formed the "New San Gabriel River Levee District of Los Angeles County" and named as the district commissioners, George H. Bixby, George E. Pillsbury and George W. Phelps. George Alexander made motion on the petition filed for the property owners by George Adams, Esq.

"It ought to be a pretty dry river bed with all these Georges," joked Supervisor Pete Wilson, but nobody cracked a smile.

For nearly two years ranchers in the San Gabriel Valley, or that part of it subject to overflow from the storm floods of the river, have been trying to secure protection. As it happened the turning of the river bed from one channel to another, while it would help one man, would injure another and there could be no agreement.

On July 17 last, the board adopted a resolution to make a levee district and the resolution was officially published for thirty days. But there were no protestants yesterday before the board when the matter came up for final action.

In spite of this the members of the board were exceedingly anxious that there should be no loophole in the organizing of this district which would make them personally, or the county, liable to suits for damages from ranchers whose land was damaged in any way by the storm floods when once the river was confined between levees, or its channel turned. Chief Deputy District Attorney Shaw reassured them on this point and then the resolution establishing the district was formally passed.

The action taken by the board yesterday was the climax to the work for this district started by Supervisor Longdon before his death and marks a new era in the handling of storm floods in Southern California. The district is formed under a recent State law and the property owners of the district so formed shoulder the expense by a special tax.

The petition acted upon yesterday was headed with the name of Supervisor T. F. Brady. It was signed by the majority of the property owners of the new district.

This district is a large one and takes in both banks of the new San Gabriel River for some distance on each side, all the way from a point just south of Washburn bridge, which is a furlong south of the Southern Pacific railroad bridge across the river, right down to the ocean. The district is an exceedingly crooked one, following in a large measure the present windings of the river.

It is the expectation of all of those directly interested that the formation of this district and the ultimate improvements which are contemplated will greatly increase the value of the lands which are now threatened each winter with damage by flood. Work will be begun at once.

PRECINCT TOO LARGE.

SHORBITES SEEK DIVISION.

Because they do not want to wander through the cañons, over the hills and far away, the voters of Shorb Precinct, or that portion of them who live on the other side of the hills, want to have the precinct either divided in two, or to have at least two polling places, where they can go to vote without spending half a day on horseback or trolley car in getting there.

A committee of ranchers appeared before the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon and petitioned to this effect, but ran against a snag. They were informed by Chief Deputy District-Attorney Shaw that no change could be made in a precinct within ninety days before an election.

But the committee was insistent. Its members stated that there were 177 registered voters in one end of the district and 200 in the other, with a range of hills between, and that surely the Board of Supervisors could have two polling places, and the citizens would pay the extra expense. But Chairman Patterson said the expense was not the point, but the law.

The matter was finally referred to the District Attorney to try and find a way to permit the voters to vote nearer home.

"I brought up this matter long ago, when there was plenty of time," declared Supervisor Brady, "but I was unceremoniously sat upon."

He was soothed.

BRIDEGROOM IN JAIL.

GYPSY PRINCESS LOSES HIM.

Complications have followed fast and furious the broomstick wedding of the Princess Lena in the gypsy camp on the Mission road last Saturday.

First, the whole tribe was arrested for indulging in a general free-for-all tribal scrap because the father of a Princess, Pierre Thompson, kicked at the three spavined horses his son-in-law traded for the Princess.

Yesterday, Joseph Lehan, the young husband, who got the best of this Princess trade in horses, began to wish he hadn't. He was arrested on a charge of rape, and passed last night in the County Jail. But, as it happened, Prince Joe had a hunch that trouble was coming, and, by aid of an accommodating Deputy County Clerk, broke into the Courthouse Monday in spite of its being a holiday, and secured a marriage license.

In his affidavit to get this license, Lehan gives his age as 22 years, and that of his bride as 21. The District-Attorney charges that the girl is only 14 years old.

But last night it was stated at the jail that, following the broomstick wedding by moonlight in the gypsy camp, the couple had the Rev. William Irvin, 96 years old, perform a regular marriage ceremony just before the bridegroom was arrested.

If this is proved to the satisfaction of the District-Attorney, it is probable that the charge will be dropped. This tribe of gypsies is from Brazil.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

HORSE EMBEZZLEMENT. First charged with grand larceny, Harry Dix was brought back from Santa Barbara yesterday and lodged in the County Jail, but later the charge was changed from larceny to embezzlement of a horse. According to the story, Dix and his father farmed some land on "Lucky" Baldwin's ranch and was loaned a horse by Foreman O. C. Berdie. Instead of returning the animal, they sold it in this city and went to Santa Barbara.

OLD, LONELY, SICK. So old that they are sick in mind and body, without relatives or children to care for them, James, 76 years, and Alice Galloway, 84 years old, are said to be incompetent to care for their little property in the suburbs of Pomona. Yesterday W. J. Wilton filed a petition in the Superior Court asking the court to appoint him the guardian of these old people and to care for their property.

SAID HE WAS TIRED. Mrs. Ora C. Morris was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Rufus D. Morris yesterday by Judge Conrey on the ground of desertion. But first Mr. Morris tried to get a divorce in 1898, but this was denied. Five years ago he told his wife he was "tired." He left home and never returned.

IS AFTER VIGNES. The grand jury at its session yesterday took up the investigation of the charges made by Harry C. Carr that H. C. Vignes, a deputy sheriff and guard at the Juvenile Detention Home, had tried to buy the votes of two newspaper men. One of these men, George Herriman, of the Examiner, was reported to have refused to pay attention to the summons of the grand jury to appear yesterday and testify, and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest and was sent to Santa Cruz for service. It was stated yesterday that Herriman will be charged by the grand jury with contempt of court.

WHO COOKED BREAKFAST? The all-absorbing problem of who should get up early and cook the breakfast wrecked the home of B. A. Bogh. Yesterday Bogh was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Alice B. Bogh by Judge James on the ground of desertion. It was in 1904 that Mrs. Bogh objected to cooking breakfast and when her husband insisted, left him and, according to the testimony in court, took to a sporting life. One witness testified that he met Mrs. Bogh recently and that she told him she still loves her husband best. But she won't cook breakfast.

CHILD SINGER IS TOO YOUNG.

THEATER MANAGER GUILTY OF EVADING THE LAW.

Girl Shown to Have "Gesticulated With Her Legs"—Mother Declares She Was There When Child Was Born and Knows Her Age—Theatrical Men Best Swearers.

The question whether it is right to inflict the antics of an infant phenomenon on a long-suffering public before the baby is 16 years old, was settled long ago in the minds of good mothers, but it was determined again yesterday in a legal way in Justice Rose's court, when Manager Oviatt, of the Lyric Theater, was convicted of permitting little Hazel Salmon to show her childish accomplishments before the motley crowd that visits his place on "amateur night."

People may laugh all they please about "bum" theaters, but if the Lyric becomes no more famous, it has served a purpose in making a record of the acrobatic feat of a human being "gesticulating" with her legs, and the fact that it is altogether possible for a mother to be present when one of her five children is born. Girls can "gesticulate" with their legs; Humane Officer Dearborn testified to having seen Hazel Salmon do this in the Lyric, and a mother is in the audience when her daughter is born, for Mrs. Salmon declared emphatically yesterday that she was there when Hazel came into the world, and knows her age.

It seems that on August 17 Hazel Salmon of No. 839 Gladys avenue went to the Lyric Theater at Main and Third streets, and was engaged to do a "turn." It was "amateur" night, which, in cheap-show parlance, means that the only night in the week when the audience is allowed to throw things at the actors, and when the regular actors of a place can act like hoodlums without being arrested for disturbing the peace. Of course, all theaters don't do these things, and probably the Lyric doesn't allow it. It was "amateur" night, however, and Hazel sang three times, and made a few little steps to accompany herself, and was awarded the third prize by the audience, receiving 50 cents for her night's work. For allowing her to perform the manager was arrested by the humane officer. The whole case hinged on the age of the child, the girl and her mother swearing they never said Hazel was 16 years old, and four or five men swearing that both declared the girl was over 16. The court convicted the manager because he should have seen from her size that she was not of legal age.

Mrs. Salmon was the first witness, and Attorney McDonald tried to mix her up in various ways, particularly in regard to when her girl, Hazel, was born, she having mistakenly stated in her examination by the Prosecuting Attorney that the child was born July 26, 1890, when she should have said September 26, as she claimed. McDonald desired to know how she could tell, and was she sure it was September instead of July, and she squelched him quickly by positively declaring that she knew the date because she was there. Later, when the girl was testifying, McDonald again returned to the attack on her age, and wanted her testimony that she is not 16 stricken out because it was hearsay testimony. McDonald's "break" here was laughed at, even by the court.

Humane Officer Dearborn cast off a pearl of acrobatic rhetoric when he solemnly declared in his testimony that he saw the girl, Hazel Salmon, in the Lyric Theater, "gesticulating with her arms and legs," but, unfortunately, this gem was overlooked by almost every one in the room. This, of itself, was enough to either acquit or convict the girl herself, if she had been on trial. Not satisfied with telling an astonished world that Hazel Salmon had "gesticulated" with her legs, Dearborn declared she had done this "while, after and during" her song.

In addition to Manager Oviatt, the witnesses for the theater were "Raymond C. Wilson," as he calls himself, who is a little man, with his hair parted in the middle and plastered down on each side, who declared he hadn't winked at Mrs. Salmon; a big fellow, named Wiley, who called himself the "head usher," but who, a policeman says, is the bouncer, and one King, an actor out of a job this week. These men swore that both these girl and her mother had said she was 16 and over. The girl and the mother swore they never said it. This was the testimony, and while there was more swearing to the truth for the theater than for the girl, the show manager was found guilty and will be sentenced tomorrow.

Bad Actor Nabbed.

L. Marin, a bloodthirsty-looking man, who is a real bad actor, is again tangled up with the police. This time he will probably be stuck away for a long time. He was picked up Monday afternoon in the Plaza district by Patrolmen Harrison and McIntosh, charged with having robbed an old peddler named Mike Lavin by breaking into his house and taking over $100 worth of stuff, among the lot being a suit of clothes and a pair of shoes that Marin had on when arrested. On the way to the Police Station he seized a watermelon knife from a fruit stand and tried to carve a policeman, but was overpowered. He served a year in San Quentin for grand larceny, and some time ago was released from the City Jail after serving sixty days for petty larceny. He was arraigned yesterday and bail of $1500 fixed by Justice Rose. His examination will be set today.

Police Court Briefs.

P. J. Murphy and Frank Hall, who are alleged to have held up several men in Eastlake and Central parks, and robbed them or extorted money from them on the statement that they were officers, had their preliminary examination before Chief Justice Austin yesterday and each was held to the Superior Court on the charge of extortion, with bail fixed at $1000.

Justice Austin spent all day yesterday trying the case of J. Smith, a horse trader, accused of selling two poor horses as good ones to A. Caterino, but the evidence was not sufficient to convict, and Smith was discharged.

WASHES HANDS OF THE RUM.

POLICE COMMISSION LAYS IT ON THE COUNCIL.

First Test of New Ordinance Made Last Night on San Pedro-street Application—Finally Held Over One Week With Notice to Protestants Not to Come Back.

As was anticipated, the Police Commission has chosen to accept the new license ordinance as a mandatory one, and they now seek to wash their hands of all responsibility in the granting of liquor licenses. The clause which is of general application to the whole city, reads as follows:

"No permit for a license to conduct a wholesale or retail liquor establishment shall be granted by the Board of Police Commissioners unless there shall have first been filed with the said board the consent in writing of the owners of two-thirds of the frontage upon both sides of the street whereon the premises proposed to be occupied is situated, between the nearest intersecting streets bounding the block in which the said premises are located."

The first test under this ordinance came last night in the application of E. Arnott for a wholesale license to be located at No. 1914 San Pedro street. A large delegation was present, to protest against the granting of the license, and while having the signatures of most of the residents of the section, they were short on frontage, because many of their signers were tenants.

When the application was read the clerk accompanied it with the statement that Arnott had more than two-thirds of the frontage on his application.

Instantly Commissioner Hagan moved the license be granted, and Sadler seconded it with alacrity, and it loked as if it would go through without giving the protestants a chance. There was a grand-stand play in it, however, for unless the Mayor voted for it, the motion would be lost, and he evidently didn't want to be in too big a hurry. Both Mason and James were absent.

"That's the law," said the Mayor; "the Council has laid it down, and that's all we have to go by."

Rev. Samuel T. Montgomery, as spokesman for the protest, contested this interpretation of the ordinance, and made a good point when he stated that the branch postoffice was in the same building. It is a fact that the United States does not permit a postoffice and a liquor establishment in the same building, and one or the other has to get out, and this point may be of use to the protestants.

After the matter had been talked over at considerable length, Hagan asked leave to withdraw his motion and substitute one postponing action for one week, in order to seek the City Attorney's opinion as to whether or not the ordinance is mandatory.

This was adopted, and then the Mayor again unbosomed himself to the ladies and gentlemen present, lampooning the press and the pulpit for abusing himself and the commission without cause, and advised the protestants to go to the City Council instead of to the Police Commission.

An amusing feature of the session was the manner in which Sadler assumed to be spokesman for the commission. He wished to shut off all talk and several times told Clerk McKeag to call the roll, a duty belonging to the Mayor. As the delegation was about to leave the room Sadler said:

"There'll be no argument at the next meeting. Please don't come here any more; go to the City Council, but don't come back here; we have the law to follow and that's what we propose to do."

"We'll be here all right," was the parting salute of Mr. Montgomery.

The place run by B. R. Randolph, the colored ex-policeman, at No. 730 Stephenson avenue, was before the commission on complaint that it was a nuisance and was driving people out of the neighborhood. Randolph proposed removing around the corner and locating at No. 306 Hewitt street, and this was referred to the Chief of Police for personal investigation. A roar is likely to come from that quarter also.

The annual encampment of the G.A.R. is now being held at Huntington Beach. The excellent program which has been arranged will attract many visitors. Go out today—cars at 6th and Main.

The VOSE PIANO

Pure and sweet of tone, for over half a century the Vose has been the choice of the true music lovers all over the United States. Over five thousand in constant use in Southern California today. Do you intend to buy a piano? Do you realize that you will probably never buy another one? Are you going to let a slight difference in price prevent you from owning a piano that you would always be pleased with? Do you think you would be satisfied with the ordinary "fairly good" piano, when you can get a Vose at a reasonably low price and on easy terms?

If you really contemplate the purchase of a piano, answer to yourselves these rather pointed questions, and then call and let us show you the Vose, a piano we guarantee to be just as good ten years from now as today.

We make a specialty of handling mail orders. Write us for anything in the musical line. Sheet music, talking machine records, small instruments, strings, etc., and your order will receive prompt attention.

NOT A JOB IS INTERRUPTED

Carpenters' Union "Strike" Isn't a Strike.

Complete Failure of Plans of Agitators.

Every Contractor Carrying on His Usual Work.

The blatantly-heralded "great labor movement," which would, according to the statements of the totemites either stop the wheels of industry in Los Angeles or establish the "closed shop," failed to materialize yesterday.

A day's vacation spent listening to the orations of paid labor bosses and the consumption of unlimited quantities of beer Monday failed to bring the courage of the totemites up to the sticking point, and yesterday morning but a paltry 200 men out of a total of about 15,000 workingmen employed in the building trades quit work.

Among this small number there were many who before the day was spent repented of their action, sought out the employers, and asked for their jobs again.

Not one building contract in Los Angeles was retarded by the efforts of the union walking delegates. The bricklayers, the plasterers and the structural iron workers continued work without one man falling out of line.

The Carpenters' Union, as was predicted, was alone back of the impotent effort made yesterday. The union lumbersmiths had spent all of Monday, Labor Day, in bolstering up the delusions of the members of the union, and they fondly looked for a general stoppage in the carpenter work about the city.

The result was but a farce, and the few men who did obey the orders of the paid hirelings who live like leeches upon the unions, did not state any cause of their quitting, but simply remained away.

At noon yesterday the statement was made that over half of the places left vacant by the small number of carpenters stopping work had been filled by recruits.

A meeting of the Master Builders and the Mill Owners' Association of Los Angeles was held in the afternoon in the Stimson building. The subject was discussed and a roster of the missing workmen made up. It was stated after the meeting that not one job had been seriously interrupted, and that further meetings of the association on this account are unnecessary.

After the meeting of the Mill Owners' Association a representative from this organization, which employs several thousand inside carpenters, met with the Master Builders and proffered the use organization all the men necessary.

The offer was accepted, but the statement made that there was little or no necessity of needing extra men.

The statement that a strike was to be called by the unions in the building trades caused a rush of unemployed craftsmen to the office of Secretary Kline of the Builders' Exchange, looking for work at the city wage rate. None of these men were accommodated, and as they are needed they will be given work.

Over half of the members of the Carpenters' Union quit work, according to the statements of contractors. One contractor reported having five union carpenters working for him and these refused to quit work when commanded to do so by the totem bosses.

Assistance told by a contractor at the Builders' Exchange was of an employee, a union carpenter, who had borrowed $15 from his foreman the week before to meet a payment due on a home he had purchased. This man had $21 coming to him last Saturday week, and out of this amount he paid back to the foreman the $15, leaving himself but $6 to face the world with.

Another man quit his work yesterday morning, as per instructions of the lumbersmiths of the union, but was back again within an hour with a decidedly long look upon his face, and a query if his job was still open.

Many have been reemployed.

Other contractors relate scores of similar instances, and they say confidently that the close of the present week will see the end of the "strike," which can be called such.

Mr. Leonardt, the largest contractor in Los Angeles, who employs over 1000 men, said yesterday that but a few of his men quit work and these he confidently expected to be back before the end of the week.

"There is no strike," said Mr. Leonardt. "The men have not quit for good. I believe that within a few days the determination to enforce the closed shop will falter, and they will be glad to work."

The Plumbers' Union made a stir yesterday. The men employed by Hyde & White, and by Lohman & Co., both contracting plumbers, have refused to work unless they receive higher wages, a half-holiday and the closed shop. This the firms refused to do, and last night the men of the Master Plumbers struck.

WANTED—THE EARTH.

A conference yesterday between delegates from the Master Plumbers and the Plumbers' Union, the employers agreed to pay the men $3 a day, which is an advance of 50 cents over former wages. The totemites refused to say the closed shop was not involved.

The result was a disagreement which left the Master Plumbers resting on their offer, and a determination to grant absolutely nothing above the present scale of wages.

The committees asked for another conference with the committee, but while the employers stated specifically that they would not entertain further suggestions as to a closed shop or more wages, they would meet them again this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

HOT-TEMPERED TEMPERS SIZZLE.

STOCKHOLDERS SAY DIRECTORS ARE CONSPIRING.

Rival Factions Call Meetings in Fight Over Control of Tempered Ductile Metals Company and Its Secret Process — Amended Complaint Charging Fraud Filed.

Stockholders in the Tempered Ductile Metals Company are getting hot. In fact they are fairly sizzling, and besides filing yesterday an amended complaint against W. V. Holley, J. E. Meyer, G. W. Bishop and the company, in which the three directors and officers are practically charged with fraud, they called a meeting of stockholders for next Thursday night at which there will be a warm time.

The other side, headed by the defendants, and which might be called the "administration" side, has also called a meeting of stockholders for Friday.

The Simon-pure stockholders will meet in Howell's Hall, No. 314 South Main street, while the "administration" meeting will be held in a room next to the "administration" office.

In the amended complaint filed yesterday the plaintiffs, who are H. D. Schulte, W. O. Henderson and W. H. Walker, tell of how the defendants apparently manipulated the stock of the Tempered Ductile Metals Company through the medium of the General Securities Company, as already explained in The Times.

They add that $20,000 received for stock sold, which should have been turned into the treasury of the company, has not been accounted for and directly charge the defendants with withholding this money. Also the plaintiffs explain how Holley and Meyer are alleged to have divided 50,000 shares of stock between them, which they received in trust for $1000 and sold for $15,000.

The plaintiffs charge that in pursuance of a contract entered into with Holley and Meyer they received 315,000 shares of the stock of the company upon condition that they sell enough treasury stock to turn in $60,000 to the company but though they got the shares they have not turned in the money.

Also it is complained of that the secret process of tempering metals has been placed in the hands of Holley and he has closed the factory for two months and refused to fill orders and is even said to contemplate divulging the secret of the process.

That furthermore the defendants are conspiring to render the stock of the company valueless that they may "in the end secure it and be the owners of said secret process."

It is also charged that because the former secretary of the company, W. A. Alderson, insisted upon Meyer, as treasurer, making an accounting he was removed by the defendants and Bishop put in his place.

The plaintiffs ask the court to restrain the defendants from making known the secret process; that they be removed from the board of directors of the company; that they be restrained from disposing of any of the assets of the company; that a receiver be appointed, and that the defendants be required to give an accounting and return the stock or the value of it.

Marconi Wireless Telegraphy Will Revolutionize the World.

The best invention ever offered the public. We say this without fear of contradiction. Don't wait until it is too late. This is a chance of a lifetime. It is advancing every day. We have some inside information that we know that will make it advance still more rapidly. We have an option on some stock that was purchased when it was very low. We can sell you this stock while it lasts very reasonable. In fact, we consider that it is cheaper today in proportion than it was one year ago. There is not much more of this stock left. When the company made up its books the 1st of January, 1906, they had only 29,000 shares left on its books. We do not think that it will take long to dispose of this. Our method of disposing of this stock gives the party with small means an equal chance. Remember that as soon as you make your first payment, from that day you have the benefits of all advances. English Marconi sold recently for over 300 per cent. advance and you cannot get any at that. We have a much larger territory. We can sell you either the American or Canadian. See us before buying elsewhere. CUT THIS OUT AND SEND IT TO US. Call or write for prospectus and terms.

PART II: EDITORIAL, LOCAL AND BUSINESS SECTION

Pen Points

The hole is now ready, and all Gov. Pardee has to do is to crawl into it.

The Los Angeles Carpenters' Union may now amuse itself by driving nails in its own coffin.

Mr. Bryan is also finding out that Hearst's politicians are merely hired political assassins.

Speaking of Grover Cleveland—but, come to think of it, nobody is speaking of Grover Cleveland.

Gov. Pardee will have the distinction of leaving office without being either hated, liked or pitied.

Whoever may own the next Congress it is already clear that it will not belong to Sam Gompers.

It will require more than the efforts of a few walking delegates to make Los Angeles stop sawing wood.

It seems to have been an erroneous idea that the Democratic party is dead. It has again carried Arkansas.

The news from Russia now having sagged down to only about 178 murders a day the public no longer takes any interest in it.

It is probably an easy matter to make Battling Nelson believe that the original Ethiopian in the wood pile is none other than Joe Gans.

Patrick Calhoun is being made aware that a contract with a labor union is about as binding as if it had been made with a band of gypsies.

It must be a matter of pride with both Gans and Nelson that they had the approval of their parents as well as the applause of the populace.

While the employers of Los Angeles may be safely called stand-patters, the union carpenters evince a desire to be regarded rather as sit-patters.

Apologies are tendered Mr. Bryan for crowding him off the front page owing to the popular demand for the details of the prize fight at Goldfield.

The Women's Christian Union is opposed to college yells. Some of the ladies probably got a whiff of the boys' breath when the yell was being emitted.

Jim Hill says that the people must do more farming. And, while he doesn't say so, he doubtless prefers that they do it along the line of the Great Northern Railway.

If we understand James J. Hill correctly, it would be far better if a great many of those people who are farming the public would come out West and farm the land.

If it weren't for the invention of linotype machines William R. Hearst would go broke buying capital I's to print the things he says about himself in his own newspapers.

Twelve months from this time all that will remain of George C. Pardee at the State capital will be his picture on the wall, and no one will take the trouble to wonder whom it represents.

Willie Hearst made a speech at Syracuse on Labor Day in which he expressed his belief in the distribution of wealth. The political leg-pullers will greet the announcement with three more cheers.

The striking thing about the ships that paraded before the President on Monday is that in five years from this time the whole outfit will not be worth more than it will bring in the junk market.

We think Jim Hill or any one else is foolish to worry about what will become of the people of the future. They will find a way to take care of themselves. But, if they don't, they won't bother us about it.

The modern labor union is gradually preparing to so arrange things that the ordinary working day will begin at 11 o'clock in the forenoon and end at a quarter past 1 in the afternoon, with an hour between for lunch.

The Governor of California, who has long been a shining light at irrigation congresses, is absenting himself from the present congress at Boise. He seems to prefer the cold water that will be thrown on him at Santa Cruz.

During the next few months twelve admirals will be retired from the United States navy. During the next five years all the ships now composing the navy will also be retired, but millions of dollars will be spent to build new ones in their places.

President Roosevelt, Mr. Carnegie and others are respectfully informed that too large a number of people in this country stood too many trouncings in the little old red schoolhouses learning the present method of spelling to willingly start in now to learn a new way.

Now we know what ails Mr. Bryan. Dr. Albert Shaw, in the Review of Reviews, says that his fault is "a love for settling things by reducing them to the form of a dictum of eternal and immutable application." This, evidently, is why he does not believe the members of a convention can frame a proper platform for the Democratic party but it must be left for the people. Mr. Bryan believes he is the people.

PARDEE NOT AVAILABLE.

It goes without saying that the Republican candidate for Governor should be a strong man, in whom the voters of the State have confidence. It is an inevitable inference that the candidate should not be Dr. Pardee, who has been tried and found wanting in the essential quality, and has forfeited popular confidence.

It was no political opponent who dubbed Gov. Pardee "the weak brother." That characterization embodied the deliberate judgment of observers of his course wholly outside the radius of influence of State politics and personal prejudice. Gov. Pardee is an amiable person with no stability of purpose, no decision of character. It is easy to induce him to make promises, but no man can tell what he will do when called upon to redeem them. As Governor he is vacillating and weak in the spine. As a politician he is shifty and not to be depended upon.

The renomination of Pardee, viewed from the standpoint of the practical politician, would be a blunder; it would be an invitation to defeat. It was the vote of Southern California that saved him four years ago, but Southern California has lost confidence in the "weak brother" and will not come to his rescue again. Gov. Pardee has alienated this section of the State from his following by disregard for its interests and by wobbling subservience to those who seem to be foolishly envious of its growth and prosperity.

California is not safely Republican in off years. The Democracy, encouraged by previous successes, is hopeful and is watching the Santa Cruz convention in eager readiness to profit by a blunder. If the Republicans put up a weak man, the Democrats probably will put up their strongest man, and it is not unlikely that the strong Democrat would win against a weak Republican.

It is the patriotic and the party duty of the Santa Cruz convention to let Dr. Pardee resume the practice of his profession—not politics, but his other profession—and select the strongest candidate possible to head the ticket in the coming campaign.

THE CARMEN'S FRIEND.

An article in the San Francisco Call of September 2 states that soon after the earthquake and fire which devastated San Francisco in April, President Calhoun of the United Railroads "sought to show some recognition of the faithfulness displayed by the carmen in saving the property of the company, and in exerting themselves in restoring the car service." In furtherance of this generous purpose, Mr. Calhoun announced his readiness "to distribute over $50,000 to those employés who had done loyal service," but he was dissuaded from doing so by President Cornelius of the Carmen's Union. The latter declared that the distribution of the money would create dissensions among the recipients, and that it was impossible to measure out rewards with exact justice.

It seems that President Calhoun first sought to obtain from the company's records and his subordinate officials the names of the men who had stood loyally by the company in its hour of trial, and had been active in preserving its property and serving its interests. When he found that neither the records nor the division superintendents could furnish him with the desired information, Mr. Calhoun (still determined to expend a sum in excess of $50,000 in bonuses to his faithful employés) appealed to Cornelius, president of the Carmen's Union, to assist him in finding out the names of those whom he wished to reward. Instead of meeting this generous proposition in the spirit in which it was tendered, Cornelius declared that it would be impossible to discriminate justly among the men. That "some had neglected the company because of higher duty to dependent ones;" that "many had performed services in those trying times that had come to the attention of no particular authority;" that "much difficulty would be encountered, and the task of making exact distinctions would fall of fair and intelligent results." Cornelius further declared that all sorts of complaints and dissensions would arise among the men, and for this reason he strongly opposed the generous and philanthropic plan of President Calhoun.

The bad taste of "looking a gift-horse in the mouth" is proverbial. Cornelius virtually declared, in refusing the offer, that the men who supported him were not fit to receive the proffered bonuses.

The San Francisco Call is not particularly friendly toward President Calhoun and the United Railroads, and it would not be likely to give them credit where credit is not due. Besides, Cornelius virtually admits the truth of the story, but claims that he was not aware that $50,000 was to be distributed. There is no good reason to doubt, therefore, that the facts are substantially as stated above.

Who is the better friend to the carmen—Cornelius, who prevented their receiving the handsome bonus of more than $50,000, or President Calhoun, who desired to bestow it?

Many of the carmen lost about all they had in the world in the great catastrophe. The cash bonuses which Mr. Calhoun proposed to distribute among his faithful employés would have assisted in no small degree to tide them over their temporary difficulties. Cornelius stood in their light and prevented their receiving the money which they so sorely needed. Evidently, the men were unaware, at the time, of President Calhoun's thoughtfulness and generosity in making his kindly offer of assistance. Some of them are finding out, now, that their best friend is the man whom they are fighting, and that their worst enemy is the man whom they allow to dictate their actions.

FRONTIER FAKERS BUSY.

The frontier fake factories at Nogales and El Paso are working overtime on the wholly imaginary uprising in Mexico against the Diaz government and the Gringo. These fakers are moving "large bodies of armed men"—unidentified and mysterious—in northern Sonora, and hinting vaguely at renewal of rioting in Cananea, and fake newspapers are printing their miserable lies and predicting immediate "sanguinary conflict on the border."

There is no insurrection in Sonora. There will be no revolution in Mexico while President Diaz lives. There may be sporadic disturbances in mining camps, instigated by labor agitators from the States, similar to the strike riot of last June in Cananea, but outbreaks of that sort will be suppressed by the Mexican authorities without American intervention.

Strike riots do not demonstrate the inability of a government to protect its own citizens and resident foreigners. If they did, Mexico would have as good reason for sending troops to San Francisco as the United States has for contemplating military invasion of Sonora.

The Mexican authorities were caught unprepared and unwarned at Cananea last June, but they soon got control of the situation, and they now have it well in hand. Repetition of the disturbance will result painfully to agitators and rioters.

Early reports of the Cananea riot, sent out by the liars at El Paso and Nogales who have been for years the pest of American journalism, were monstrous inventions. The "news" coming from the same sources now is of the same character. The arrest of the twelve measly agitators at Douglas, Ariz., yesterday, shows how the so-called "revolutionists" will fare.

LAPSES FROM THE NORMAL.

What is society to do with so base and monstrous a degenerate as 16-year-old Robert Gordon of Chicago? No punishment could be adequate, and probably no punishment that could be inflicted upon him would be of any avail in the way of reformation. However much we may feel that the death penalty would most fittingly comport with his crime, the instincts of the normal human being revolt at its infliction in such cases, for it is apparent that an individual so morally deficient can not properly be held up to a high standard of moral and legal responsibility.

Young Gordon appears to be a second Jesse Pomeroy, with some of the Pomeroy boy's better qualities left out. It is stated that while in court he (Gordon) "smoked cigarettes incessantly." This habit may or may not have been among the causes of his shocking depravity. It has become quite fashionable, of late years, to attribute to the vice of cigarette-smoking all the evils that human nature is heir to. There are many persons who are no doubt ready to believe that the smoking of cigarettes brought about, in some mysterious manner, the recent destruction of Valparaiso. Up to the present time, however, no clear connection has been shown to exist between young Gordon's cigarette-smoking and the unfeeling cruelty which he exhibited in the murder of his younger companion.

To the average normal mind the moral deficiency of this young degenerate is inconceivable. The unconcern with which he told of beating his eight-year-old companion into insensibility with a brick, digging a grave in the soft earth, stopping occasionally to quiet the victim with a blow on the head, and finally burying him while he was still alive and struggling to get away, taxes credulity. It was one of the most revolting narratives in the records of crime, and yet young Gordon entered into the minute details of the horrible affair as if it had been an everyday occurrence, and he laughed over it as though he considered it a good joke. He took the police to the spot under the sidewalk, near his home, where the young lad, Joseph Reed, had been buried alive, watched them coolly while they disinterred the body, and expressed no remorse when he perceived its mangled condition.

The question recurs, what can society do to protect itself against such monsters as this young pervert? The answer is difficult. Fortunately, there are comparatively few cases of degeneracy so extreme as this one. But there are innumerable gradations of degeneracy, and they permeate all strata of society, from the highest to the lowest. They are the unsolved riddle of the sociologist, and the despair of the moralist.

In the processes of evolution nature sometimes reverts to lower types. This is to be expected. But in the entire animal kingdom, so long a step backward toward the primeval beast is seldom encountered. The case of young Gordon is one which should enlist the profound study of the most eminent alienists and of the most learned physiologists.

Perhaps sometime, somewhere in the obscure recesses of future knowledge, men may discover the earliest beginnings and the ultimate causes of these lapses from the normal which so retard the progress of the human race. Perhaps sometime, with clearer light and fuller knowledge, society may find the courage requisite to declare that as much attention shall be given to the production of normal, sound and healthful human beings as we now bestow upon the breeding of prize hogs. With a better race of men we shall have better morals, less crime, and infinitely more happiness.

THE RULE OF THE ROAD.

There is to be a celebration in the Saxon City of Dresden, this year, to commemorate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of the "Keep to the Right" rule of the road. It will be for the good of the world if a widespread interest shall be manifested in this celebration. A great deal of fuss has been made over anniversaries that are of far less importance.

The people of Los Angeles, for instance, need look no farther than the crowded highways of their own busy city to have it impressed upon their minds how necessary it is at all times to observe the "Keep to the Right" rule established in Dresden a century and a half ago. If that rule were observed by the rushing throngs of vehicles and pedestrians on the streets of this, as well as of every other busy city of the world, there would be fewer accidents to record and fewer violent deaths to lament.

The rule of the road is familiar enough to all, but it is astonishing how lightly it is regarded and how flagrantly it is disobeyed. One has but to stand on the sidewalks of any of our traffic-crowded streets to observe the proof of this assertion. Wagons, carriages, automobiles, bicycles and every form of vehicles rush along regardless of whether they should keep to the right or not. The result is collisions, accidents, wounded persons and animals, and frequent fatalities. Even pedestrians obstruct the movements of one another by failing to keep to the right as they hurry along.

Los Angeles might, with a good grace, join in the celebration that Dresden is about to hold in memory of one of the most useful and needful rules ever laid down for the guidance of mankind.

That the uniform of a United States soldier does not obliterate the color line has been proved at Fort Brown, Tex., where colored soldiers were assaulted for daring to pass white women without leaving the sidewalk. The uniform should not protect rowdyism, but it should protect men, no matter what their color, who are minding their own business.

When George F. Watson of San Francisco starts a new reform party on the platform of anti-graft, anti-trust, honesty and truth and no mud slinging in the campaign, he accepts a large contract. The $100,000 he is willing to spend for the promotion of the movement will prove but a drop in the bucket of expense.

It is distressing to learn that disorders are rapidly increasing in the provinces of Yaroslav, Volhynia, Simbirsk, Kazan and Yekaterinoslav, Russia. The Cossacks, in their haste to suppress the disorders, are likely to fall over some of these names, with disastrous results.

MOONRISE AT GOLDFIELD.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER.

Elias Lyman.

Elias Lyman loves to lie—
He lies all morning in the shade
And when the sun at noon gets high
He lies where fresher shade is made.
He lies around all afternoon,
And talks about the days gone by;
Beneath the silver, silent moon,
He loves to lie around and lie.
He lies upon the river side,
His float upon the ripples lies—
His fishing talent, when applied,
Will make you murmur with surprise.
He lies upon the mountains, too,
When he is on his hunting trips;
He lies upon the ocean blue
When he is gazing at the ships.
Elias lies on summer nights
Upon a hammock 'neath the trees;
In winter when the blizzard bites
He lies about and says he'll freeze;
He lies abed till half-past eight—
Should you peep through his bedroom door
You'll see this wonder, sure as fate,
His clothes are lying on the floor.
Elias Lyman lies about
A great deal more than you or I;
Of this there's never any doubt;
He loves to lie around and lie.
Some day we'll stand beside his tomb
And sadly wipe our teaful eyes,
And read, with deep drawn sighs of gloom,
This: "Here Elias Lyman lies."

Strange Coincidence.

While this is the season for snake stories, and we are prepared to read and believe anything of that nature, the story that comes from Tennessee is tolerably far-fetched. We are assured that two ladies of the highest society circles were out in the woods plucking blackberries when a blue racer snake, which also had rattles, started after them, and ran them for sixteen miles, tooting all the time like an auto horn.

We might believe it, were it not that in an adjoining column we find an able article headed: "Is Drinking on the Increase Among Women?"

Beneficial Climate.

"Leffingwell," we say to our friend, "your auto does not cough and gasp and pant as it did a few weeks ago. Have you had it fitted with new engines?"

"No," he explains. "I took it through Arizona and New Mexico on a road trip, and the climate did wonders for it."

WILBUR D. NESBIT.

[Copyright, 1906, by W. D. Nesbit.]

It would be hard to beat the impudence of this Vienna thief. Finding that the tenant of an office was away for a few days, he managed to secure a key that would open the door. After a good look around, he thought he would begin by taking a new Oliver typewriter. So he went on the street and, calling a licensed city messenger, took him up to the office and told him to carry the typewriter to a pawnshop, where he tried to sell it. The pawnbroker refused to buy it without proper proof of ownership, whereupon the thief invited him to come to his office. He then for the third time entered the place and invited the pawnbroker to sit down while he took a sheet of paper out of a desk and coolly wrote out a declaration that the machine was his property, and signed it with the name of the office tenant. The police are still looking for this impudent robber.

Pending the arrival of the sea serpent, and the mammoth gooseberry, and the three-legged hen, and other old friends, it is exhilirating to hear from Hanley (Staffs.) that the local policeman becoming alarmed at the ringing of an electric bell in a shop, rushed in and faund that a spider had "so wound its web from the bell to the battery that the connection caused the bell to ring." The truth of this story is proved by its strict moderation. There is no suggestion of a fierce struggle between the policeman and the spider, or of the arrest of the latter and a subsequent charge of being drunk and disorderly.—[London Tribune.

MEN AND THINGS OVER THE SEAS.

To Study American Schools.

British educators are evidently waking up to the fact that the educational system of this country may have some good points that can be engrafted upon the English system with advantage, as it is announced that five hundred English teachers will be brought to America this fall and winter on educational tours, the plan being to represent every class from the kindergarten and defective senses instructors to professors in England's greatest universities. Applications are being made by teachers in all parts of the United Kingdom for a chance to take part in the excursions.

Two Royal Personages.

Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria is a distinguished ornithologist and his knowledge of the science of birds is equaled by very few in Europe. He devotes a good deal of time to the subject and is a member of the Ornithological Society of Vienna.

Emperor William of Germany had for his imperial yacht in the cruise along the Norwegian coast the sumptuous Hamburg-American liner Hamburg. The Kaiser wore civilian clothes at all times, tabooed all talk of politics and changed daily those privileged to sit at his table that there should be no thought of favoritism. The one royal prerogative that is never foregone is the demand that no one shall address him until spoken to.

An American.

The Duchess of Marlborough cannot forget her American birth, according to an incident that floats across the ocean to her friends in the United States. Like all American women, she is said to have a great penchant for the floating veil, to which the British have never really taken. Her headgear invariably boasts it, and, like all her garments, it, too, is purple or mauve. The story goes that the King once said to her: "Duchess, what is the idea of these rags you tie around your hats?" She replied she always wore one because she wanted to make quite sure that no one would take her for any nationality except that of an American.

Prince George to Resign.

Prince George of Greece, heartily sick of his Governor-Generalship of Crete, which virtually entails his exile to an island which is in no sense congenial to him, has now definitely decided to resign and to sacrifice the civil list of 240,000, which he has been drawing for the last eight years. Prince George has been a distinct failure as Governor-General, and, instead of modeling his rule upon the strictly constitutional régime of his father, the King of Greece, has apparently taken for example his relatives, the most reactionary of the Russian grand dukes.

The Sultan's Insult.

In view of the awkward contretemps which has taken place at Constantinople, where the Sultan has publicly affronted the United States by declining to receive the newly-appointed Ambassador, John G. A. Leishman, it is said that one of the principal objections that the Sultan has to a full-fledged American Ambassador at Constantinople is the belief that it will entail the presence in the Bosporus of another foreign man-of-war as guardship. All the great powers who maintain full-fledged embassies in the Turkish capital have, ipso facto, the rights of maintaining a warship of their navy under the walls of Stamboul by way of protection of the members of the diplomatic mission from any popular rising, a right that is deeply resented by Turks of high and low degree. At the time of the Armenian massacres the late Sir Michael Herbert, who died as British Ambassador at Washington, availed himself of his authority as chargé d'affaires at the Turkish capital to land a large detachment of sailors and marines from the British guardship in the Bosporus and to march them, fully armed with their machine guns, through the streets of Constantinople to the embassy, a display of force which contributed more than anything else to stop the massacres, which were tolerated, if not connived at, by the Padishah.

PEOPLE OF THE COAST.

Mrs. T. Wetteland and Mrs. C. Borquist of Portland, Or., are heirs to a $5,000,000 estate in Melbourne. It is expected they will each receive from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000.

L. D. Apsley of Hudson, Mass., is in Seattle, seeking a site for the manufacture of rubber goods, not only for the Pacific Coast, but for the orient trade. Several hundred men will be employed from the start.

According to Dr. George M. Weh[illegible] Portland, Or., a wealthy resident of that city who is addicted to the morphine habit proposes to journey to Korea to avail himself of a new cure said to be in use there.

Dr. H. B. Mehrmann of Oakland was given a banquet at which 1500 people were present in honor of his election as State president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. It is said to have been the largest banquet ever given in Oakland.

R. Robinson of Portland, Or., manufactures more cheese than any man in the West. He owns three factories himself, and buys from dozens of smaller concerns, and ships the product all over the United States and markets abroad. He estimates the total cheese product of Oregon for the present season will be in the neighborhood of 4,000,000 pounds.

T. J. King, general manager of the [illegible] & Wing, cod-fishing firm at [illegible], says that "this year's catch of cod on the Alaska coast will amount to 255 tons. Most of the fish goes to [illegible]. Alaska cod is second to none. It is finer, fuller fish than the eastern product, and as the eastern banks are gradually giving out it is securing a [illegible]ing. In a few years it will replace eastern cod almost entirely."

[PUBLISHER'S NOTE:—The figures shown are practically net, as the number of the papers being returned to the office from carriers, routemen, newsdealers, country agents, newsdealers' stands, Railway news companies is permitted to return unsold copies, being the exception to this rule.

The Times guarantees that the average circulation from month to month, year in and year out, is more than the bona-fide circulation of the other two Los Angeles daily newspapers combined. It has certified circulation from the American Newspapers' Association, whose examiner recently investigated fully its circulation records. The Times was the only morning newspaper in Los Angeles which dared permit the association's representative to actually investigate its circulation through carrier and mail service, etc.]

THE POLITICAL WATCH TOWER

This year, for the first time in all its sad and sordid annals, the Democratic organization of Los Angeles county will forswear the empty pleasure of naming a ticket—have a ticket of its own—for the people to knock down. In the twenty years last past the Democrats of Los Angeles county have elected one Superior Judge, one District Attorney and one Supervisor. If the memory of any man runneth to the contrary let him arise and speak up for the sake of the party aspersed; the man in the Watch Tower has it from the lips of the Sad-Eyed Chief, who ought to know, for he has led too many unsuccesses to be in doubt.

It has been finally decided that the Democratic County Convention when it meets in Los Angeles September 20, shall "refrain"—that's the official dope—from nominating a ticket, and instead shall adopt as its own the slate to be put up by the County Independents, "provided men worthy of Democratic indorsement" (?) be selected as candidates by the Non-affiliationists.

These candidates, comprising a full county ticket, are to be nominated by an Executive Committee to be named by the County Independent Committee of One Hundred, and the slate will then be ratified or revised, as the case may be, by the Hundred.

The latter body is now in course of formation, and it is boldly whispered by certain ones on the inside that its complexion, when finished, will be pretty nearly two-thirds Republican. That very many of the members will be citizens of more than average prominence, men of fine type, is more than rumored.

Thus far the getting together of the Hundred has been a mystery of secrecy; the accumulating of material has been kept deeply shrouded from the public gaze. Nobody will divulge any of the names of the "conspirators," nobody will tell where or when they have been meeting, nobody will hint at the candidates they have in view. "Within the present week the Hundred will be completed. Then their names and somewhat of their plans will be announced through the press." The Sad-Eyed Chief said that.

He also said this: "Unless some unforeseen change is made in present plans, the Democratic County Convention will nominate the Independent ticket entire. The ballot will then carry three principal columns. In one will appear the names of the regular Republican candidates, nominated at Venice; in the other two will be printed the names of the candidates put up by the Committee of One Hundred, and indorsed by the regular Democratic convention. That is, if John Smith should be selected by the Independents and accepted by the Democrats, his name will be printed twice on the ballot; and so on throughout the full ticket."

With the combined support of their own followers and the insurgent Republican element accredited to be in sympathy with the Independent campaign, the Sad-Eyed Chieftains figure to have a chance to win. So did Bat Masterson before his fight.

Some of the "interested parties" are showing fidgety over the Committee of One Hundred's slowness in announcing the bi-partisan city candidates. If the names were known outside of the elect, it might be told in the assertion that the overabundance of available material is what's the matter. The Executive Committee of the Hundred will not announce the chosen names until the morality discussion has been settled, and yesterday it was positively asserted by members of the executive body that the man to succeed Owen D. Aldrich has not yet been picked.

Further than this, the same authorities declared that the choice does not lie solely between W. H. Washburn and Lee C. Gates.

The Committee of One Hundred promises to be one of the livest forces in one of the liveliest campaigns Los Angeles has ever gone through. Say the Hundred: "We shall not adopt a platform in the usual acceptation of that term. We will go before the people on a plain, brief declaration of purpose, namely, to put up for election the very best men irrespective of party affiliations or national fads.

"A city is nothing more nor less than a big corporation, and the only way to run it right is to adapt to its affairs the same business principles and business methods that make for success in the conduct of business concerns. Such fads, if you so choose to call them, as Federal ownership of roads, tariff reform, direct legislation, etc., have no more to do with municipal administration than the income tax policy has with the running of street cars in 'Frisco."

The municipal Committee of One Hundred is considering the advisability of making a house-to-house canvass of voters, and probably will decide to do so. The utmost care will be taken to the prevention of fraud at the polls both before and during the election. Forces of men are now at work to detect colonization schemes, which the Hundred proposes to nip severely in the bud.

The Executive Committee, through one of its members, yesterday stated that the committee is not yet in position to say when its candidatorial slate will be made up. "Wait till we get a move on," he said; "the rest will be easy."

THE WATCHMAN.

TO LIE BESIDE HIS SON.

Wishes of Charles Gollmer Brought All the Way from Germany to Carry Out His Wish.

In order that his remains may rest beside those of his eldest son, the late Charles Gollmer, a Los Angeles pioneer who died twenty-four days ago in Dettingen, Germany, was sent back over ocean and continent and arrived yesterday. Mrs. Gollmer, who had accompanied her husband upon his visit to the fatherland, was firmly to her resolve that she see his last wishes carried out, tenderly directed all the sad details necessary to the accomplishment of the long return journey, until she met at New York by Robert Gollmer son, who had hastened to the city.

The party reached its destination this morning, and before the sun set over Rosedale this evening the wish will be carried out. The body will rest beside that of the son, while the sorrowing members of the family will be content that they have done all within the compass of human power to respect his memory and honor. The long return that covered many thousand leagues is a touching striking instance of a mother's love, as Gollmer died in his native town, where his own parents were buried, but chose to be brought back to be interred by the side of his beloved children.

On his arrival in Los Angeles the body was taken to the undertaking parlors of Riedeman, Meyer & Co. on Main street, and will remain there until 10 o'clock this morning, when they will be removed to the family residence at No. 1520 South Flower street. Gollmer was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and the services, which will be held at 2:30 this afternoon, will be under Masonic auspices. The deceased was also a member of the Turnverein and the Pioneers, and representations from those organizations will be at the funeral.

Gollmer leaves, beside a widow, three children, Mrs. May Breer, Miss Gertrude Gollmer and Robert Gollmer, all of this city.

FIVE days from today, Locomotive Collision at Agricultural Park.

Cut Glass Some Specially Priced

Unless you've been here within the last week you can have but a faint idea of what remarkably pretty pieces of cut glass can now be bought for $2 to $3.

Perhaps our strongest value for today is a tumbler at $3 a half dozen—a very pretty shape with finely cut designs covering nearly the entire glass. Easily worth half as much again.

5-inch nappies of heavy glass with the rose design deeply cut—this is a size that can be used for many purposes—$2.25 values at $1.50 each.

6-inch nappies in several entirely new cuttings—dainty pieces that would readily bring $2.75. The price will be $2.

Tumblers with the old Colonial cutting at bottom and the three-cut bands at top—plain but attractive and always in good taste—$1.75 for a half dozen.

NO "WACKS FIGGERS" FOR BARLOW FETE.

BY STINSON JARVIS.

ARTEMUS WARD claimed that his "wacks figgers wus a strikly morll show." For about a century the same claim has been made for Mrs. Jarley's waxworks and Mme. Tussaud's counterfeits, while a thousand other shows of like kind have done something to suggest that in the entertainment of the public the best morality is identified with inanimate figures. This seems to have some analogy to what our prejudiced forefathers said, that there was no good Indian but a dead Indian; and in the church there is no saint but a dead saint. Consequently when the big garden fete on Figueroa street will have no wax figures it is clear that it will not be a strictly moral show of the old kind.

In other directions, also, this charity festival may lack the somewhat negative virtues of Mr. Ward's exhibition. It has been openly admitted that there is to be a wheel of fortune in active use on the grounds. How this mechanism works cannot here be exactly described because I never got near enough to fortune's wheel to find out, but in common reputation it is an invention of Satan for the extraction of 10-cent pieces in a pleasurable way. While you may here draw a prize worth far more than the amount you risk, it cannot be denied that this is a game of chance, and the highest moralities of the thirteenth century were a unit in perceiving that the use of such a machine was a sin. Although his only certainties were death and taxes, man was never allowed to buy a chance at pleasure; but ecclesiastical prejudices seem to have altered, and as Bishop Johnson will take the first throw he will thus evaporate the resulting curse for us all, and no one will be broken at the wheel in punishment—though this particular wheel may perhaps get you broken in another way.

Another item which shows the almost marvelous up-to-dateness of Los Angeles is the introduction of "The Psychic Booth." Shades of Dodona and Delphi, just think of it! Try and calmly imagine a professional clairvoyant in the presence of the lords of church and state. Is it not distinctly odd to here find the devil and all his works harnessed to the cause of Christian charity?

And in dealing with such stuff as dreams are made of, Cleo can certainly deliver the goods. She has the stuff with her. It is no slang to say that Cleo herself is the stuff. I thought she earned her money when among other things she told me of a baptismal name I had not used for twenty years; and when she came to deposit cash in the Mercantile Bank, Mr. Stewart took a dollar from a pile and asked the date of it. She immediately told it. Consequently Mr. Stewart, who is one of the present committees, thinks she will much assist the funds of the Barlow Sanatorium.

People who are prominent in this good work put Cleo to peculiar tests before this fete was thought of, and whoever conceived the idea of getting her assistance for charity is unconsciously preparing the way for valuable knowledge of a very ancient kind; because the faculties used by Cleo (which are only slightly out of the normal) were also used in the working of the Delphic Oracle and other institutions which, with the exception of those of our Hebrew fathers, were exclusively identified with paganism. Thus it marks a new era in the general advance when Cleo goes through her little psychic stunts at an entertainment patronized by Bishops Conaty and Johnson; and this is all a special delight to those who for many years have tried to ding it into the general comprehension that clairvoyance (when genuine) is a natural fact. Any satisfactory trance patient can do what Cleo does while awake, and a great deal more, but there has been much difficulty and delay in bringing these truths into the consideration of highly educated people.

If the purchase of a chance be immoral, what about the cigar booth—proverbially uncertain—and the fish pond, too, which will probably reproduce the general gamble of the sport. And, by the way, where is Rajah?—she who rode the camel in that sedate and puritanic way? It seems to me that among all these pagan revivals, games of chance, vaudeville, and other untheological allurements the presence of Rajah is necessary as an offset—just to balance the thing and give it more of a strait-laced and strictly proper look.

Still—come to think of it—Rajah was not exactly a wax figure, and perhaps she might fall to supply everything that the Mr. Ward thought necessary for a "strikly morll" show. For this reason the educational element has not been neglected, and among the "trained animals" will be found every Darwinian grade of created creature, from the monad plastidule to Mr. Lott's "negro minstrels;" while the imported tribe of Navajo Indians will show how pleasing "our return to nature" could be. Step up, gentlemen! Try the Navajo depilatory! Absolutely painless as modern dentistry! Get scalped while you wait! The only certain cure for dandruff! Come right up!

Now, this is all educational and improving. Which of course, is what we are after. But if, like the immortal Sairey, you must be "kep' up," don't forget the different refreshment booths. The sugar here used is supplied by the society reporters, and its sweetening quality is beyond question.

But one serious word! Don't get the idea that this is an exclusive society parade. It is not. I am requested to make this point clear. Your 25 cents is wanted for as good a cause as ever appealed to the healthy. Make the doubtful heathen machines produce Christian certainties; for behind all this gaity there is the grimness of the old arena, and "those about to die salute you." Start the pagan wheels a-going like a Chinese prayer-machine, and your Bishop or your rabbi will back you to the limit.

OF THINGS LITERARY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The literary agent, who was recently so savagely assailed in a magazine article by Henry Holt, the American publisher, has found an able champion in David Christie Murray, the well-known novelist. Mr. Holt described the agent as "a very serious detriment to literature and a leech upon the author." The business of the literary agent, Mr. Murray says, "is to see that the author receives his fair and proper share of the product of his own labor. If he had not been wanted, he would never have arrived." The publishers themselves have made him a necessity.

"How," he asks, "can a literary agent be a serious detriment to literature unless he exercises some deteriorating influence upon the quality of the work done by his clients, and in what respect can he do that in which the publisher does not do the same? So far from the literary agent being detrimental to literature, he is a most distinct aid to the production of his clients' best, inasmuch as he relieves him of the harassing necessity of chaffering for his own wares. And quite apart from that, the writer of books is safer in the hands of a man whose interests are everywhere coincident with his own than he is in the hands of one whose pecuniary position is adversely affected by every penny he unavoidably makes over to the author. Even if no publisher in the trade were too anxious to strike a good bargain in his own behalf, the agent would be worth his fee."

Mr. Murray has no sympathy with the lamentations that are sometimes raised over what is termed the "Commercialization of Literature." "There is hardly any more offensive cant in the world than that which pretends that real literature is not produced for money," he says. "Much of the greatest would have been left undone if there had been no money to be got out of it. The sharp tooth of necessity gnaws the man of genius until it drives him to his desk. He would often be well content to let his great thoughts escape in talk, or to dream his dreams in silence. But he has Abbotsford to make into a feudal mansion, and we get the 'Waverly Novels,' or he has his old mother to bury, and he turns out 'Rasselas.' Does anybody suppose Inay Goldsmith would have given us 'The Vicar of Wakefield' if he had seen no potential coats and ruffles and bowls of punch in quills and ink and paper? The money doesn't make the genius, but it calls it out—it wakes it from its easy-arm chair, it puts it on its mettle. Thackeray wrote 'Hamlet'—in the way of business. Non olet pecunia. Money leaves no taint on these achievements any more than it does anywhere else on sincere work."

Several authors in these days combine literature and commerce and apparently get quite as much satisfaction from the money they make by the latter as they derive from the earnings of their pens. George R. Sims wrote many hair-raising thrillers in the shape of melodramas before he thought out his recipe for his now well-known hair restorer. There may be a connection between the two, but, at all events, "Tatcho" has brought its inventor a comfortable fortune, which is added to yearly, if one may judge by the costly advertisements which appear in the papers. A few years ago, "John Strange Winter" wrote a recipe for rethatching bald heads and promptly placed it on sale under the name of "Hair Food," which according to advertisements, "may be obtained from her publishers." This is a combination of literature and commerce with a vengeance. Sir Gilbert Parker is one of the busiest men in the world of commerce, and this perhaps is the reason why so little has been heard of him lately by the reading public. The picture postcard trade is adorned by the presence of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who is a director of Messrs. Raphael Tuck & Sons, and takes an active part in the management of its big business.

Miss Arabella Kenealy has been telling how she became a novelist. Her father—he was Dr. Kenealy, a great legal luminary in his day and a fine classical scholar, but chiefly remembered now as the Tichborne claimant's lawyer—believed that school life and too much discipline cramped children's characters, and allowed his large family to run more or less wild and follow their own bents. "At twelve years old," says Miss Kenealy, "I had never done a sum nor learned a table of arithmetic; I knew nothing of geography, of English grammar or of English history. But I had read twelve books of Homer, four of Virgil, knew Sallust's Cataline and Jugarthine Wars, could tackle the Greek Septuagint and had Greek and Latin grammar more or less at my fingers' ends. In those days, I wrote for the most part poetry, and my hero was ever the fair-haired Achilles.

"At sixteen, becoming fired with the ambition of studying medicine, for some years my literary aspirations were quenched in the hard routine of walking a hospital and reading for exams. Then, having qualified, came that interval of leisure in which the young doctor, having put up his brass plate on a door, sits down the other side of it to wait for patients. In this interval my literary tastes revived, and my medical experience, coming crowding into my mind, found expression in my first novel, 'Dr. Janet, of Harley-Street.' This being eminently successful, led, after a mental struggle (for I loved my medical work,) to my final abandonment of this for the career of a writer."

From all of which it may be inferred that Miss Kenealy, on whatever mental diet she had been nourished in early life, was bound to amount to something, simply because she was much more bountifully endowed with brains than most women.

INTERESTS RAILROAD MEN.

Among the vast throng which will assemble to witness the railroad smashup arranged for Admission Day afternoon at Agricultural Park, there will be many railroad men from all sections of California and the surrounding country who hope to gather data from the wreck which will assist them in solving the vexing problem of how to minimize the danger to life on railroads. Ever since speeds were increased to fifty or more miles an hour, and engines enlarged from little dummylike locomotives to the great moguls of today, the different degrees of destruction wrought by collisions have been puzzling the men whose duty it is to safeguard the traveling public.

Milk-Watering Charge Off.

City Prosecutor Beebe yesterday dismissed the charge of watering milk preferred against Benjamin Berres, No. 1504 West Washington street, about August 23, by the City Chemist. The grounds for dismissing the case were that there was not sufficient evidence against Berres.

WILL BUILD NEW STEAMERS.

HAMBURG, Sept. 4.—The Hamburg-American Steamship Company today announced a plan to issue $5,000,000 new capital, making a total of $30,000,000. The official statement explains that the increase is necessary to build new steamers and says the America and the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria have hitherto been unable to take more than half the passengers asking for accommodations. Hence the company intends to build others of the same type and establish a regular weekly service to New York of that class of vessels. Additional tonnage is also required for other lines.

WILL END.

The Times Scholarship Contest will end at midnight, September 8th. To be counted, subscriptions and coupons must bear postmark not later than that hour and date. The last coupon will be printed in The Times next Wednesday morning.

All day yesterday subscriptions and coupons poured into headquarters for favored contestants, and the beauty of it is, almost every single candidate received some sort of a contribution, so no one felt neglected. Public interest is at white heat, and contestants are making a splendid finish.

The largest score of the day was turned in by Grace Allen, the old soldiers' favorite, who brought in almost 8000 points. Bertha Smith was next in line with nearly 6000, and close at her heels was Vivian Bassett with 5000. Zetta Crouse took fourth rank with 4400, and right behind her came Earl Robinson with 3800, and fast heading on his heels was Mansie Kim of Bakersfield, with 3400.

Other heavy scorers were Merle Prewitt, 2784; Esther Zuber, 2500; Maud Ashurst, 2347; Fannie Wolff, 2000; Mary Lallich, 1300; Bertha Cohen, 1400; William Bolstad, Ignatius Parker, Leona Smith and Edna Wagner, each, 1200; Elizabeth McTear and Joanna Cameron, each, 1000.

A HOT RACE.

The spirited race between the Pasadena girl and the San Bernardino county girl is growing hotter and hotter. Both Vivian and Bertha turned in heavily yesterday, but Bertha gained on her rival, so that this morning she lacks but little more than 600 points of overtaking her. Vivian appeared at headquarters early in the day with a two-hour subscription, that counted her 800 points, and was off in a flash for

WILL END.

The Times Scholarship Contest will end at midnight, September 8th. To be counted, subscriptions and coupons must bear postmark not later than that hour and date. The last coupon will be printed in The Times next Wednesday morning.

All day yesterday subscriptions and coupons poured into headquarters for favored contestants, and the beauty of it is, almost every single candidate received some sort of a contribution, so no one felt neglected. Public interest is at white heat, and contestants are making a splendid finish.

The largest score of the day was piled in by Grace Allen, the old soldier favorite, who brought in almost 90,000 points. Bertha Smith was next in line with nearly 6000, and close at her heels was Vivian Bassett with 4400, and right behind her came Earl Robinson with 3800, and fast trailing on his heels was Mansie Kim of Bakersfield, with 3400.

Other heavy scorers were Merle Prewitt, 2784; Esther Zuber, 2360; Maud Ashurst, 2347; Fannie Wolff, 1500; Mary Lallich, 1300; Bertha Cohen, 1460; William Bolstad, Ignatius Parker, Leona Smith and Edna Wagner, each, 1200; Elizabeth McTear and Joanna Cameron, each, 1000.

A HOT RACE.

The spirited race between the Pasadena girl and the San Bernardino city girl is growing hotter and hotter. Both Vivian and Bertha turned in heavily yesterday, but Bertha piled on her rival, so that this morning she lacks but little more than 600 points of overtaking Vivian appeared at headquarters early in the day with a two-year subscription, that counted her 2000 points, and was off in a flash for more, after a hurried consultation over the 'phone.

LAURA LLOYD,
first of lower five to enter dress circle.

COVINA AND AZUSA.

The first change in the score occurs at the eighth row, where Zetta Crouse of Covina pushes Maud Ashurst down a place and takes the Azusa girl's perch unto herself. Maud won't stand for that, though.

"Please send me a new subscription book by the first train," was the message over the long-distance 'phone from Azusa that saluted the manager yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The distressed voice at the other end of the wire was that of "Our Maud." She urged the greatest haste. "I have lots of subscriptions," she yelled, "and no receipt book. Can't you send it out on a special?" The book went. "Our Maud" will be heard from later, and then the Covina girl will take a fall unless she rustles around lively.

WATCH THEM JUMP.

Earl Robinson is the second one on the long ladder to make a move this morning, and he sprints up two rungs, past Fannie Wolff and Orestes Orfila, to the tenth perch. Fannie lacks but a couple of hundred or so of leaping over that Arizona athlete, too. She is going some these days. Fannie is bound to be a winner, and if all those promises made her early in the campaign are fulfilled, it will mean great things for Fannie. Don't disappoint her. Cash in, friends.

A COMING BANKER.

Mansie Kim rises a row this morning, too, and crowds William Bolstad down. The coming banker will get after that Chinese contestant about bright Los Angeles girl.

FANNIE WOLFF,

WILLIAM BOLSTAD,
bound to be a banker.

today and it's likely those prosperous gentlemen who are interested in this bright little chap, who is seeking a scholarship in the Brownsberger night school that he may take a special course in banking, will see to it that the boy has his chance. William, it will be remembered, is the alert young messenger boy in the Security Savings Bank and he has canvassed outside of working hours only, so he has not had the full opportunity that some of the other contestants have had. Give the boy a lift, gentlemen; he is in every way worthy of it and a few subscriptions at this critical time will mean success or failure in winning the scholarship.

A Boyle Heights woman who signs herself "A Mother of Boys" sends forty-five coupons for William and with them come her good wishes for success, for both a scholarship and cash prize, too. "He is deserving and should win them," she says.

THIS WAS A "RAISER."

Minnie Ponedel was made very happy yesterday by an annual subscription that raised her score 500 points. It raised Minnie's spirits, too, about 500 degrees, and it raised her on the ladder a couple of rows, placing her back on that seventeenth perch that she lost yesterday morning. Minnie smiled some when that subscription came in. Make her smile again.

HERE'S A CLIMBER.

Estella Green passes Gladys Eastman this morning. She is climbing steadily toward the 20,000 column. There has not been a more faithful worker in the contest than Estella. Day in and day out she has perseveringly pegged away, gradually rising in the score. She is working for a scholarship in a business college. Help her along.

A HAPPY SURPRISE.

Mary Lallich's heart will bound with joy this morning when she sees her place on the ladder three rungs higher than it was yesterday. This is like a fairy tale. A lady, who has been watching Mary's struggles, came to the office yesterday and left two subscriptions, one for a year and one for six months, in Mary's favor, and so this morning the Gardena girl passes three city candidates and rises into the thirty-first row. It will be remembered that Mary set her mark for the twenty-third row. Somebody else help her along toward her goal. She richly deserves all she gets.

THE "GIBSON GIRL."

Wilma Gibson of Yuma enters the 16,000 row this morning by grace of a liberal contribution. A Los Angeles lady who helps her along writes thus of her: "I was in hopes the Arizona people would help her climb up a little higher. A little encouragement is a great help to these anxious ones at the close of the contest. I was pleased that the San Diego lady remembered her and as I have helped others who are now safely assured, I feel interested in those who need help. I will try and do more for her."

SHE'S A LEADER.

Laura Lloyd is first of the five on the lower rungs of the ladder to enter the dress circle of the five-figure crowd, which she does this morning. Laura is an energetic little miss, who is trying hard to win a scholarship in an art school. She has worked steadily and tried hard to climb. Laura loves fun, and there is usually a roguish smile on her face no matter how dull the day. She has never lost courage, and works for pure love of it. She is a subject for congratulations this morning in that she reached the five-figure row in advance of her competitors and exactly two days after the scholarship manager suggested this little five-handed race.

NOW FOR MONROVIA.

It looks as if Leona Smith, the Monrovia girl, would be the next to put her neck under the wire down there. Her score advanced over 1200 points yesterday. Evidently Monrovia is waking up to the fact that there are two Smiths in the contest. That thrifty foothill town should see to it that their representative reaches at least a score of 10,000. Get busy out there.

LEADER QUIET, BUT OH MY!

Merle Prewitt has not been in town this week, but her scores of friends are not allowing her interests to suffer, and Merle herself is working down in Orange county to beat the band. It looks from this distance as if first place is assured to her, but there is no telling when some other candidate may leap into prominence. Orestes Orfila is maintaining a silence that is big with meaning. His final score is bound to be tremendous, and it looks now as if he intended to make but one more.

SHE'S FOXY.

Esther Zuber rode twenty-five miles on her wheel yesterday. She did not appear at headquarters till late in the afternoon, when she dashed in, flushed with victory—and the rays of the sun, which had dyed her neck and cheeks a brilliant carmine. She was smiling and seemed very happy and hopeful, but did not incline to take any one into her confidence, except one of the cashiers at the subscription counter, with whom she held an animated conference, which ended by the continued thump, thump, thump of the date stamp on her receipt book, which she then immediately clapsed tightly in her hand and hied herself to scholarship headquarters on the fourth floor, where she turned in a measly 2500 points and went away again with that fat subscription book in her hand and all those points up her sleeve. She'll give them down about next Saturday—or before, if that fifth perch is threatened.

OUR MAIL BAG.

Vida L. Snow of North Kern street sends as many coupons as there are weeks in the year to Veda Snow of Santa Barbara, and says: "I think my interest in her is chiefly due to the similarity of our names."

A Garvanza woman writes: "I admire the courage of Joanna Cameron. Although a stranger, I send her these few coupons to help obtain a scholarship." Joanna will feel terribly disappointed if she fails to win that Los Angeles Business College scholarship she is working for. She needs it, too, to enable her to win her way in the world for her father was taken from his family of children by a cruel accident a couple of years ago, and so Joanna must make her own way in the world. Help this little daughter of a Mason along. Several members of that fraternal organization have given her aid already. Joanna is an unusually bright girl, and will be fully capable of winning her way in the world if she can get an education.

"I am not personally acquainted with any of the scholarship contestants," writes one lady, "but have read what you had to say of each of them, and feel that there are none more worthy or more in need of help that Mary La Lanne. Inclosed find sixty-seven coupons for her."

A Riverside party writes: "Please credit Bertha Smith with twenty-four coupons, inclosed. I hope to see her name second on the list again.

"A RIVERSIDER."

Another note reads: "Inclosed please find sixty-seven coupons for Bertha Smith from a little girl who has been saving them since the contest commenced."

Over 2000 coupons were turned in yesterday for Mansie Kim, coming from all parts of the State. It is simply marvelous how complete and spontaneous has been the response to the plea for help for this Chinese girl who seeks a business education. She is setting a precedent for her race which appeals to every one. Mansie returned to her home in Bakersfield last night to finish up her work of canvassing there, as she has several thousand points promised in subscriptions.

THE LAST COUPON.

The last coupon is printed this morning. The sooner all coupons can be sent to headquarters now the quicker the final announcement can be made when the contest closes, as the counting of the thousands of coupons takes time. Please forward your coupons, then friends, at your earliest opportunity, put up in bunches of twenty-five and tacked together at one end with the name of the contestant whom you desire to aid written on the top one.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

OF all the recherché summer outings given recently, one of the jolliest was a launch party a few evenings ago by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pinkham of Terminal Island, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Will Nevin, a young bridal pair, and also for Mrs. Nevin's sister, Miss Saunders of Montana, who is visiting the Nevins.

The party of Los Angeles people, which included young married couples, took the 5:30 o'clock car to Long Beach, and were met at the pier by the launch. They cruised all about the breakwater and finally landed on a tiny island, where a delicious supper was served beneath the light of the shimmering moon. A pleasant feature of the evening was the music by half a dozen colored minstrels, who accompanied the party. Later the party landed at Terminal and enjoyed much sport at the Pinkham home.

Those who enjoyed the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson P. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. F. Irwin Herron, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tyler, Dr. and Mrs. Rea Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carhart, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Gieson Posey, Mr. and Mrs. William Parrish Jeffries, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman and Mr. and Mrs. Temple.

—o—

Entertain Northern Belle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Widney and family of West Jefferson street have returned home, after spending the month of August at Long Beach.

Miss Mary Widney has had as her guest during the summer Miss Edna Butz, a bright and charming belle from Visalia, who, in her home town, is rated one of the beauties. While here, Miss Widney entertained with a number of informal soirées for Miss Butz at the beach and here. Miss Butz is a blonde and Miss Mary Widney and her sister, Miss Katherine Widney, are also pretty, fair-haired girls, and the three attracted much attention by the seaside, where they were inseparable, and also incidentally were much courted by the summer beaux.

Miss Butz left last evening for her home, leaving behind a host of admiring friends as a result of her visit.

Back from Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Banning and their children, Katherine and Joe Banning, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mellus and the Misses Grace and Katherine Mellus, have returned from a summer of rare sport spent in the wilds of the Banning ranch, which is near the Malibu ranch.

—o—

Fetes Visitor.

Mrs. Frank Walsh of South Alvarado street entertained on Saturday with a charming luncheon party at the Jonathan Club, in compliment to Mrs. Samuel Staats Shepard and her house guest, Miss Margaret McDonald of Oakland.

In compliment to Mrs. Shepard and Miss McDonald, Mrs. William Corwin of Hotel Alvarado will entertain this afternoon with a card party. Mr. and Mrs. Shepard expect to leave with Miss McDonald for Lake Tahoe next week, where they will remain several weeks.

—o—

Davidsons Return.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Aubrey Davidson of No. 2242 Scarff street returned from a delightful three months' trip in the East, having visited all the principal cities and resorts of note. Their trip took them to Canada and about the Great Lakes, where they spent an enjoyable period. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, with their small son, G. Aubrey Davidson, Jr., are now on Sunset avenue, Ocean Park, where they will remain until October 1.

—o—

Miss Golding Engaged.

The many friends of handsome Miss Alice Louise Golding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Golding of No. 327 Golden avenue, doubtless will be surprised to learn of her engagement to Harry Frank Wilbur of Spencer, N. Y., but recently of Globe, Ariz. The wedding is to take place the middle of this month at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Golding is a native daughter of this State, and her father is one of the pioneers, having come here in 1868, while the city was yet a Spanish pueblo. She has attended school here and has many friends, and it is a surprise that she was able to keep her secret so well. Mr. Wilbur came here about two years ago for a short time, and it was then that he met Miss Golding, to whom he immediately lost his heart. Since then the young people have been engaged, but as Mr. Wilbur was away, the news has not even been rumored. After the marriage, Mr. Wilbur will take his bride to Globe to make their home for the next few years.

—o—

Mrs. Fayram Leaves.

Mrs. Charles Herbert Fayram of No. 767 Garland avenue left last evening for the East, where she will visit friends and relatives. She will spend part of her time as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reeder of Tipton, Iowa, where her husband will join her in October. From there they will visit friends in Monmouth, Iowa, and thence home.

—o—

For Mrs. Sepulveda.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Solano of South Figueroa street will entertain this evening with a dinner party in compliment to Mrs. Sepulveda of the City of Mexico, wife of Judge Sepulveda, formerly of this city. A number of old-time residents will be present to greet the charming visitor.

—o—

Miss Lewis Weds.

Monday evening a quiet little home wedding was that of Miss Ina Lewis and James F. Mauzy, which took place at the home of the bride's parents at No. 116 West Thirty-third street. Rev. Will A. Knighten officiated. They will live at the corner of South San Pedro street and Stanford avenue.

—o—

Young Folk at Work.

No small part of the success of the Barlow fete a few seasons ago was attributable to the energetic efforts of the little folk, many of whom, with the added weight of these two years on their heads, might possibly object now to be styled "little folk," but who still are many summers away from the debutante age. And to these same girlies and ladies must be credited much of the promised success of the coming fete. The little group of children who have enjoyed their frolics for many a day past on the broad lawn of the hospitable W. B. Cline home at Adams and Figueroa streets, has done many good deeds between school hours, and to the lasting credit of these young folk is due, among other beneficences, the establishment and maintainance of the Maria Louise bed in the Children's Hospital. These young workers include Mr. and Mrs. Cline's two little daughters, Alice and Constance, Miss Marjorie Utley, Miss Frances Richards, Miss Marguerite Hughes, Miss Marjorie Freeman, Miss Rae Belle Morlan, Miss Agnes Whittaker, Miss Jeune Jeremy, Miss Norma Haupt, Miss Virginia Walsh and Miss Mary Peyton, a group of willing workers who will serve under Mrs. Morris Albee as strolling peddlers on the two days that the fete will absorb the interest of Los Angeles folk.

Mrs. Arthur F. Morian will be in charge of the tin-type gallery, where one can have a souvenir picture made, and Mrs. J. F. Conroy will assist her. Antonio Apache will be in chareg of the Indians who will have wares of their own making on sale, and Mrs. Walter J. Trask, assisted by Mrs. William M. Caswell, will preside over the merry-go-round. The hall of mystery will be conducted by C. S. Vance, whose assistants will be Messrs. J. S. Lang and E. U. Steinman. Mrs. Jennie Kempton, at the wheel of fortune, will have as helpers Mrs. Rogh Hamilton, Mmes. Edwin G. Howard, William Hutchison, Frank Colby, Henry Pettibone, Boyle Workman, Lewis Carlisle, Misses Bessie Chapin, Edna Chapin, Helen Judson, Emma Marmon, Mae Myer, Helen Leighton, Grace Pirtle, Laura Pirtle, Bessie Roup, Florence Riley, Bessie Whitcomb. Mrs. John Foster will be in charge of the fish pond and with her will be Mmes. H. S. McKee, Edward Silent, Sam Hammond, Godfrey Holterhoff, Jr., C. C. Parker and J. F. Porter. The Misses Greene will present the shadow show, and the concert band in charge of H. G. Johnson, will be otherwise sponsored by Messrs. G. A. Melsing, W. S. Swartout, H. H. Boyer, C. J. Blumenthal, T. A. Brath, Roy E. Ward, C. F. Stamps, W. J. Goldsmith, W. J. Bilsener, E. C. Wetzel, H. S. Roman and W. G. Smith. The chairman of the spielers will be H. M. Corlette and his assistants will be James R. Page, F. S. Peachy, O. C. Miller and Y. A. Garcia.

Miss Clute Back.

Miss Mabel Clute of Orange street, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Howard Robertson, at Ocean Park, returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will remain at the beach until the end of this week, after which they will come to the Hotel Ingraham, where they will pass the winter.

—o—

Gives Concert Party.

Mrs. Dewey entertained a party of Los Angeles friends who are passing the summer at Santa Monica with a concert party at the Venice Auditorium. Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Rowley, Miss Grace Rowley, Tom Karl, W. Kay Crawford and others.

—o—

From Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan C. Balch and Mrs. Willoughby Rodman have been enjoying a most delightful two weeks' sojourn at Santa Barbara, having gone with their motor, and have just returned.

—o—

Wife of Commissioner Leaves.

Mrs. Dean Worcester, wife of Commissioner Worcester of the Philippines, left recently to visit different points of interest in the East.

On Saturday previous to her departure, Mrs. Frank B. Long entertained with a delightful luncheon at the Hotel Alexandria in honor of Mrs. Worcester. Mrs. Long was a girlhood friend of Mrs. Worcester, and others who sat at the table were Mmes. J. A. Osgood, F. E. Fay, Calvert Wilson and Bishop. The party afterward enjoyed the performance at the Belasco.

—o—

Mrs. Maier Entertains.

Mrs. Fred Maier of No. 1986 Hobart boulevard, entertained on Monday afternoon with a pretty children's party in honor of the birthday anniversary of her niece, Miss Adele Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Smith, Jr.

—o—

Euch and All Club.

The Euch and All Club closed its beach cottage at Ocean Park on Saturday after a very successful summer. Over sixty girls were entertained during July and August, also a number of the mothers and friends of the club members. The club is now ready to begin its winter's work. The first plan is for a large reception, to be held on its first birthday, September 17, after which the usual weekly meetings will commence. The president, Miss Kathryn Romer Kip, who served during last year, being unanimously reelected twice, has resigned on account of other duties. Miss Kip will retain her membership in the club.

—o—

Orphans on a Picnic.

Children of the Los Angeles Orphans' Home to the number of about one hundred enjoyed a picnic at Long Beach, through the courtesy of the Pacific Electric Railway. Mrs. A. N. Davidson, president of the board, the superintendent, Miss Love and the teachers of the school were in charge of the small folks. Supplies for the day were contributed by C. M. Rasmusses, C. B. Dudderar, Mrs. Jotham Bixby and Mrs. H. S. Callahan. The use of suits and the plunge were donated by Mr. Drake of the Long Beach bathhouse and the Masonic Temple provided a pleasant place for the midday spread.

—o—

Vivel and Farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Humphrey of No. 1614 Trinity street gave a dinner Sunday evening in honor of the birthday of Mr. Humphrey and also as a compliment to the latter's two brothers, Charles O. and Arthur T. Humphrey, who will leave this week for the East. The Messrs. Humphrey will visit their old home at Wilmington, Del., and will then go on to their former home overlooking beautiful Lake Eustis, in Florida. They are to be away about six months. Besides the host and hostess and the Messrs. Humphrey there were present at the dinner, Mrs. Mattie B. Evans, Mrs. Virginia Bowers, Miss Helena Humphrey, Messrs. Amos Rutter, Will Panary and Master Russell Humphrey. Green and white were combined in the decorations, white jasmine being the flowers chosen for the table.

A Trip to Yellowstone.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Lacey of No. 690 South Burlington avenue, have rented their residence to Frank L. Smith of Denver, for the winter, and Mr. and Mrs. Lacey and daughter, Miss Louise, are at present staying at Hotel del Monte. They expect to go as far as Yellowstone Park, visiting on the way, Santa Cruz and the big tree country, San Francisco, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, and British Columbia. They will return about October 1, and will occupy their new cottage on Clubhouse avenue, Ocean Park, for a time.

—o—

Mann-Fiske Nuptials.

Under a beautiful canopy and in a parlor banked with choice flowers occurred the wedding of Perry V. Mann and Miss Lutie Fiske. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, 4213 Moneta avenue. Rev. Will A. Knighten of Hollywood officiated. After the ceremony a wedding supper followed. The young couple are spending their honeymoon at Catalina and will be at home to their friends after September 15, in a charming little cottage at No. 651 East Forty-second street, a gift to the beautiful bride from the groom.

The bride was treated to several showers before the wedding and was also the recipient of many valuable wedding gifts. Mrs. Mann is one of the most popular members of the young crowd on the south side and the young couple have the best wishes of their friends in their journey through life.

—o—

Lunch at Hermosa.

Mrs. Chas. L. Hubbard entertained the ladies of the Philomath Club with a luncheon in her cottage at Hermosa Beach. After a bath in the ocean and lunch the rest of the day was spent in games and exchange of vacation reminiscences. Copies of the club's new year book were distributed. The subject for study this year is Russia.

Those who enjoyed the outing were: Mmes. Geo. B. Cash, C. Milton Adams, Russell Barber, H. H. Becker, J. B. Brown, R. E. Charles, G. B. Corwin, C. J. Cheney of San Francisco, F. B. Crozier, C. T. Crowell, Kena Wadley of Texarkana, Tex.; E. W. Davies, Wm. Eckert, Charles W. Harding, S. J. Linkenbach, Miss Gertrude Crissy and Miss Belle Crowell.

—o—

Notes and Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harwood, who are at Ocean Park, have as their guests this week, Misses Leola Allen and Carrie Bogart.

Misses Alice and Olive Harpham are spending a few weeks with their aunt in Santa Barbara.

Mrs. John T. Jones of Portland street is spending a few weeks at Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell and family have returned to their home, "Ard-Eevin," North Glendale, from Ocean Park, where they spent the summer.

Miss Agnes Woodward, who has been spending six weeks in the mountains of Las Casitas expects to return today to take up her work in the Blanchard building, where she has a studio in which she teaches the art of whistling.

Miss Ray Wolf of Chicago, daughter of H. Wolf, a retired capitalist, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Seymour Swarts, corner Lake street and Ocean View avenue. Miss Wolf is very much impressed with Los Angeles and may make this her future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Curtis of No. 1134 West Thirtieth street, accompanied by their two children, Miss Lucile Curtis and Meredith, have returned from a two weeks' stay at Matilija.

A Rip Snorting Clash.

An incomparable tremendous collision between two giant locomotives impelled against each other at a speed of 30 miles an hour will be witnessed on Monday next at Agricultural Park.

The locomotives are the regulation kind and weigh 150,000 pounds, and the crash will come as a quick exciting wrestling battle of mechanical monsters for mastery.

Cheap rates are to be put on by railroads and an immense crowd is expected. A great band of music will be engaged for the occasion.

Notice.

Anyone desiring work at the Spreckels Sugar Factory during the coming season, will please apply personally or by mail at the Superintendent's office, at Spreckels, Cal.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT

BUNDY MAY BE TENNIS CHAMP.

Will Play Long for the Honor on Friday.

Southern California Women Finishing Strong.

Gentlemen's Doubles Are on the Programme Today.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Tennis honors in the singles championship tournament now be between Northern and Southern California. Melville Long of the California Tennis Club and T. Bundy of Southern California succeeded in reaching the final round by today's play. Both won their matches with comparative ease, contrary to expectations, and a good match should result when they come together Friday.

Long was opposed to Charles Foley the semi-final round, and the outcome of the match came as a surprise. The winner played the same good tennis he has through the tournament, and did not have to extend himself to win. Foley was not at his best, but it is doubtful if he could have won if he had been. In the first set Long went into the lead, and before any one realized it he had taken six straight games and the set. Foley improved somewhat in the second set, but Long outplayed him and won by 6-3. The winner used his short drives and chop strokes continuously, and was remarkably steady in his play.

Griffin's winning streak came to an end when he went up against the somewhat awkward game of Bundy. The latter's forte is volleying, and by aggressive play he managed to assume a net position the greater part of the time. Griffin tried hard at all times, but his chop strokes were not effective against the strong volleying of his opponent. Bundy's reverse service also worried Griffin. He has a remarkable cut on the ball, which makes it particularly difficult to chop. Bundy led at all times and won 6-2, 6-1.

LADIES PLAY WELL.

The greater part of the day was devoted to the playing of the ladies' events. Five of the original eleven players remained in the singles competition when play ended for the day. Miss Hazel Hotchkiss of Berkeley reached the semi-finals in the upper half, where she will meet the winner of the match between Mrs. Bruce and Miss Peralta.

Miss Dobbins of Southern California and Miss Ratcliffe of Berkeley will play together in the lower half of the semi-finals.

The match between Miss Hotchkiss and Miss Myer of the Golden Gate Club was the only one of interest. Both players were in good form and the outcome was in doubt until the final point had been won by Miss Hotchkiss. Miss Myer played a strong game and came dangerously near winning after having been roundly beaten in the last set. With the score standing set all and Miss Myer to serve, Miss Myer struck her stride and evened up matters at 4-4. Miss Hotchkiss kept a game in the lead at several stages needed but failed to win, but each time Miss Myer managed to pull out the game. Miss Hotchkiss ended matters by a fine play at the net. The complete score was 6-4, 7-9, 8-6.

Miss Hotchkiss and Miss E. Ratcliffe reached the finals of the ladies' singles by defeating Miss Seymour and Miss Garland of Southern California 6-2, 6-1. The only other match of interest was one in which Mrs. Seymour and Miss Peralta defeated Miss Bruce and Miss Jones 6-2, 6-3. The winners of this match will meet Miss Hotchkiss and Mrs. Bruce for the other place in the finals.

Pairings are the drawings of the doubles to be played tomorrow: Preliminary round, Elliott and James vs. Long brothers; Guerin and Code vs. Payne and Sinsabaugh; Henry vs. Whitewood vs. Bell and Bundy. Second round, Nourse and Shanks vs. Griffin and Foley; Rolfe and Schmidt. Winners of match between Gatewood Henry and Bell and Bundy; Griffin and Griffin vs. Getz and

Every nerve is a live wire connecting some part of the body with the brain. They are so numerous that if you penetrate the skin with the point of a needle you will touch a nerve and receive a shock—pain it is called. Aches and pains come from a pressure, strain or injury to a nerve; the more prominent the nerve, the greater the pain. When the pain comes from a large nerve it is called whether it be the facial nerves, or the heart, stomach, sciatic or other prominent nerve branch. To stop pain, then, you must relieve the strain or pressure upon the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this.

"I suffered intense pain, caused by neuralgia. I doctored and used various medicines without getting relief until I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. CALIFORNIA TO BOSTON TO ACCUSE OF BIGAMY.

Husband Who Thought First Wife Dead Stunned When She Appears and Has Him Arrested—His Second Wife Also Thought Her Dead. Children Figure in the Mix-up.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Across the entire continent has come Mrs. Rose Perry, admittedly the first wife of Joseph Perry, aged 34, of No. 40 Winter street, East Cambridge, to charge him with bigamy. Perry is utterly stunned because, he says, he thought his first wife dead.

They were married fourteen years ago. She alleged cruelty and left him seven years ago, going to California, where she has worked as nurse in hospitals, latterly at San Francisco. They had two children, whom Perry put in an institution here. In 1905 Perry married Caroline Anjos, now aged 22. His first wife is 33.

The institution authorities wanted Perry to take away his children. He would not, and while looking him up the authorities heard of his former wife, the children's mother. They wrote her and she arrived today and filed the charge of bigamy.

Perry's second wife also thought his first wife dead.

Perry is under arrest.

LEWIS AFTER FAKE DOCTORS.

Corporation Counsel of Chicago Sees Muck Quackery Which He Will Suppress.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The arrest of scores of "quack" doctors and the prosecution of bogus medical companies which annually are mulcting the public of thousands of dollars by imposing on the credulity and hope of the sick may follow a movement begun by Corporation Counsel Lewis, yesterday.

Col. Lewis has asked Chief of Police Collins for a special detail of detectives to investigate the "fake" medical companies with the result that scores of complaints have reached his office from those who have been lured by the advertisements of the "quack" doctors and induced to spend their savings in the vain hope of recovering from their maladies, in some cases incurable.

Dividend Announcement

INDUSTRIAL

The Company has just declared a cash mortuary dividend on Policies over 5 years in force which have matured and shall mature in 1906. To all death claims on Policies over 5 years in force it adds 5 per cent.; to all death claims on Policies over 6 years in force, 6 per cent., and an additional 1 per cent. for each year of duration. Thus the dividend on claims under Policies over 10 years in force is 10 per cent.; over 15 years, 15 per cent.; over 20 years, 20 per cent.; over 25 years, 25 per cent.; 1879 (the earliest issue,) 27 per cent. The cost of this dividend payable during the current year is approximately

ONE MILLION TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

In addition to this the immediate benefits (payable during the six months after date of issue) on adult Industrial Policies, excepting Term and Endowment, issued during 1906 have been doubled. Certain increases have also been made in the benefits on infantile Endowment Policies during the first year. The cost of these, which will operate as a dividend on all claims maturing during this year, on the issue of this year, is approximately

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

These dividends are over and above the dividend declared on Industrial Policies January 1 last, which was a quinquennial cash dividend, amounting to about 20 per cent. of the premium for a year, declared on all Policies (except Increasing Life and Endowment Policies, which by their terms carry benefits increasing yearly after the third year) issued in 1881, 1886, 1891, 1896 and 1901. The amount appropriated for this dividend was about

SIX HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Thus the Company THIS YEAR has declared and IS PAYING dividends on Industrial Policies amounting to

Over Two Millions of Dollars

Every one of these Policies is non-participating, promising a definite sum only at maturity without dividends. The payment of the dividend is PURELY VOLUNTARY. Dividends have been actually paid without promise for many years by the Metropolitan. The total amount now approximates in 12 years. Included among these Policies are hundreds of thousands of Policies issued by other companies and assumed by the Metropolitan.

INTERMEDIATE

Intermediate Policies for $500 each have been issued by the Metropolitan for 10 years past. They are Policies designed for such of the Industrial classes as can afford to pay annual, semi-annual or quarterly premiums instead of weekly. As the plan was new there was no actuarial experience to guide the Company as to the mortality cost. The Company promised to pay, if earned, dividends after five years and annually thereafter. This year the company set aside over to be paid in dividends on Intermediate Policies during 1906. Payment of these dividends has brought the cost of the Policies very nearly down to the non-participating rates of this and other Ordinary companies.

Six Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars

ORDINARY

The Ordinary Policies issued by the Company for the last 15 years has been practically all written on non-participating rates—plain business contracts for plain business men, which tell their whole story upon their face, leave nothing to the imagination, borrow nothing from hope, require definite conditions and make definite promise in dollars and cents. The rates, therefore, are low. The Company has in force, however, a considerable, though, compared with its total business, a very small percentage of participating business. Some of the Policies were issued on annual dividend and some on deferred dividend plan—many of the latter having been issued by other companies and assumed by the Metropolitan. Upon these Policies the Company has this year declared and is paying a dividend equal to the excess premium charged by mutual rates over the non-participating rates charged on its current business. The amount of this dividend is nearly TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, which is a voluntary extra dividend.

Thus the amount of dividends the METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY is paying this year is nearly

Three Millions of Dollars

THREE-QUARTERS OF WHICH IS A VOLUNTARY GIFT BY THE COMPANY TO ITS PATRONS.

Valley Hunt clubhouse of Pasadena, destroyed by fire yesterday.

VALLEY HUNT HOUSE BURNED IN PASADENA.

Wind-Fanned Flames Started from a Steam Roller Attack the Building and Unfortunate Circumstances Block Fire-Fighting Operations. Priceless Mementoes Destroyed.

Office of The Times, No. 36 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Sept. 4.—The Valley Hunt Clubhouse, an old landmark, and for many years the social center of Pasadena, was totally destroyed by fire late this afternoon. The blaze was started by a steam roller, which, threw a spark into the dry grass, and the strong west wind which was blowing fanned the flames into a volume which soon got beyond the control of the fire fighters.

The men who first discovered the flames tried to fight them alone and delayed turning in an alarm of fire until it was seen that the clubhouse was seriously threatened. The flames spread with lightning rapidity, and by the time the fire department reached the scene, the building was ablaze in several different places.

The steam roller which was the cause of the trouble is the property of the city, but had been loaned to the firm of Gillette & Gates for street work. It was being used to smooth down the roadbed in back of the clubhouse and was driven by L. C. Jones. George Kirkpatrick, a teamster, was the first to notice the flames, and at once called the attention of the engineer to the fact that the grass was burning. The men made heroic endeavors to stop the spread of the fire, but the wind was too strong for them and they were driven from their posts.

The first alarm sent in brought out the hook and ladder and engine from the Dayton-street engine house. The long pull up West Colorado-street hill was a heavy tax on the horses and much valuable time was lost in reaching the scene of the fire. As soon as the department reached the place of the trouble the hose was connected and a stream turned o nthe blaze. Although the flames had already gained great headway, the fire fighters might have stood some show of conquering them but for the fact that a cylinder head on the engine blew out and put the machine out of commission.

The Villa-street engine was at once telephoned for, but in the interim the flames recovered their lost headway, and when the engine arrived on the scene it was too late to do anything toward saving the building.

Had both engines been in working order it would have been impossible to have made use of them, as the only available fire hydrant is at the corner of Orange Grove avenue and Colorado street, and it would have taken more hose than was at hand to connect a second engine with a tap. The Villa-street engine was not strong enough to force any considerable body of water the distance required, and the firemen had insufficient pressure in the hose the greater part of the time to keep it taught.

Instead of trying to gain access to the burning building, the firemen were kept on the outside, playing a lonely stream of water against the solid wooden side. There was a lack of discipline exhibited at almost every stage of the game.

The Valley Hunt Clubhouse was valued at about $7000, mostly covered by insurance. Some of the furniture was saved, but the heavier part, such as the piano and billiard table, was a total loss. The charter of the club and several treasured pictures of the founders and earlier members were saved, but many mementoes of priceless value were destroyed.

The Valley Hunt Club was founded in 1888 by twenty-seven members of Pasadena's aristocratic colony. It had its inception in the days when every one in this part of the country followed the hounds, and was for years a hunt club in every sense of the word.

During the first four years of the club's existence it was without clubhouse, and the members used to meet for the hunts and later congregate at the home of some one of the members to dine. Originally the club kept a pack of foxhounds and also a pack of rabbit hounds. The advent of orange groves and barbed-wire fences put an end to the hunting feature, and since 1894 no master of hounds has been elected.

The Tournament of Roses, one of the famous events of the year in Southern California, was first conceived by the members of the Valley Hunt Club and for four years was conducted under the auspices of the club. It then grew to such proportions that the members and directors did not feel able to carry it on and turned it over to the Board of Trade.

The house which was destroyed today was purchased in 1894 from a Mr. Clark of New York City, who built it for a summer residence. Additions were made by the members of the club and, though old-fashioned, it was considered in every way suitable to the needs of the organization. Of late there has been some agitation to secure a new building on the part of the newer members and last winter an offer of $20,000 for the building and site was received but, after considerable discussion, rejected. The older members of the club have objected to any change as there were associations connected with the old clubhouse which they did not wish to have broken.

Arrangements will probably be made at once for the erection of a new clubhouse, and an effort will probably be made to have it completed in time for the commencement of the winter season. With the burning of the Valley Hunt Clubhouse passes the last visible trace of the early history of the organization that did much to make Pasadena the favored resort of wealth and fashion that it is today.

LIGHTING SERVICE OFFER.

At the meeting of the City Council this morning a contract was presented for ratification making an agreement with the Edison Electric Company for the furnishing of street lights until such time as the municipal plant shall be in working order. It is the contention of the administration that the contract of 1904, under which the company has heretofore been furnishing light, is null and void and for this reason a new contract is needed if the service is to be continued.

The contract expressly stipulates that nothing in it shall be construed in such a way as to prejudice the position of either the city or the company in case a suit should ensue for the collection of the claim which the company holds against the city.

The contract explicitly states the amount of power that shall be furnished for each light, the length of time which the lights shall be kept burning and the sum to be paid for the lighting. Each of the arc lights shall be paid for at the rate of $6.50 per month and each incandescent light shall be paid for at the rate of 65 cents per month. Power for the illumination of the municipal buildings shall be furnished at the rate of 5 cents per kilowat hour.

Either party to the agreement shall have the privilege of abrogating the contract on giving thirty days' notice.

It is stated that the Edison Electric Company is willing to enter into such an agreement and that the officials of the company have signified their willingness to forego their original demand that the contract shall be ironclad for one year.

A resolution was also introduced calling upon the City Clerk to call for bids for the installation of a municipal lighting plant. According to the resolution the supplies are to be in Pasadena and erected ready for use by February 1. On that date the city promises to have everything in working order in order to commence the operation of the municipal plant.

The question of the grade of Elm street came up for final settlement. Assistant City Clerk Gregory, on behalf of the property holders objected to the grade as recommended, but the city attorney was present to defend his side of the case. He stated that the only reason which he had for objecting to the grade as recommended was that it would jeopardize the shade trees along the line of the street. Councilman Crandall called attention to the fact that he and the City Engineer had gone over the ground carefully and had come to the conclusion that the trees were in no danger. He asked that the matter at least be laid over until Councilman Ashby, the chairman of the committee on streets and alleys, who was absent, could be heard from. It was finally voted to make the change demanded by the property-holders.

Los Robles avenue improvement projects received another boost when the property-owners on the avenue between Mountain and Washington streets asked to have their street asphalted. The petition was signed by the requisite number of land owners and was referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

The City Treasurer reported that on August 31 there was a total of $68,327 on hand. The money was divided among the different funds thus: General fund, $29,214; executive fund, $30,009; commissioners' fund, $1158; library fund, $1924; educational fund, $529; street fund, $1481; fire and sewer sinking fund, $587; library sinking fund, $203; municipal improvement fund, $462; sinking fund, municipal waterworks, $2725.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER.

Miss Annie Bannister assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. W. Bannister, gave a pre-nuptial shower this afternoon in honor of Miss Esther Wright, who is to be one of the September brides.

"Sunland Villa," the attractive home of the Bannisters on South Marengo avenue, was profusely decorated with appropriate bridal emblems such as hearts and wedding bells. Festoons of red hearts strung on white satin ribbon were used in the reception room. Chimes of red and white wedding bells depended from the chandeliers and doorways. The windows were filled with masses of deep red geraniums.

A small book bearing upon its cover a Cupid with his little arrow and a red heart as a target, was presented to each of the guests. Within the book were the names of many of the guests present, cleverly arranged in conundrum form. For guessing the largest number of these a prize of a brass vase was awarded.

To each guest was given a heart-shaped card and on this was written a verse of good wishes for the prospective bride. They were then gathered up and strung on a white ribbon and presented to Miss Wright. Following this came two little girls dragging the shower basket which was piled high with numerous useful gifts.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served from small tables. The ices and cakes also carried out the red and white color scheme.

Forty guests were present most of whom are members of the J. O. C. Society of which the bride-elect is the president.

RECONSTRUCTING THEATER.

The work of renovating the Lowe Opera house and reconstructing it so that it will comply with the fire regulations is now in progress, and it is announced that it will be reopened within the next two weeks. Extensive changes are being made, and when the theater is again opened to the public it is to be up to date. The house was closed during the winter by order of the Chief of the Fire Department, after the manager and owner had refused to make the changes required by the city fire regulations. At first the management refused to do anything and announced that it would leave it closed, but the demand for a theater caused them to change their minds.

VALLEY CROWN JEWELS.

Tom Hawkins, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, came up for trial this morning. He was charged with having fired a revolver bullet into the leg of C. F. Hillis, thereby causing the injured man great bodily inconvenience. Hillis was on hand and refused to prosecute, so, as it was plainly shown that Hawkins had not intentionally done any harm, the case was dismissed. Hawkins received a good scare, however, and it is pretty certain that he will not flash revolvers promiscuously in Pasadena henceforth.

The City Commissioners met this morning to transact routine business. Chief Pinkham asked for $160 to expend in the purchase of helmets, wreaths and other necessary equipment for the police department. His request was granted. C. B. Webster was appointed a hoseman in the fire department. The application of W. T. Vaughn for appointment as a callman was filed. Humane Officer McAney was granted special policeman's star, with the understanding that he was to serve without pay. Demands were approved thus: Fire department, $1464; park, $559; police, $1053.

This evening at the Japanese Garden on South Fair Oaks avenue the Young Woman's League gave a garden fete for the benefit of the league piano fund. The affair was liberally patronized and was a social and financial success.

Mrs. Frank Welles Parker of Herkimer street left this evening on the overland for an extended visit to her two sons in the East.

Miss Mabelle Lewis of No. 324 North Raymond avenue has as her guest Miss June Yeakle of San Francisco.

Dr. Ralph Arnold of No. 70 Orange Grove boulevard has as his guest Dr. M. R. Campbell of the United States Geological Survey. Dr. Campbell is in charge of the government survey's fuel investigations and is here to become better posted on the oil problem in this State.

Announcements are out of the engagement of Miss Irma Bradshaw and Frederick Swan. Miss Bradshaw is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradshaw of Boston, and is a regular winter visitor here. Mr. Swan is the only son of Mrs. James Swan of East Colorado street. The young couple will reside here.

Miss Edna Hanna of Rivera, who has been the house guest of Miss Edna Jay of No. 230 North Fair Oaks avenue for the past week, returned home this morning.

ROOSTER IN COURT.

Santa Monica Plymouth Rock on Witness Stand Before Justice Jenness. Crab for Charity.

SANTA MONICA, Sept. 4.—The identity of a Plymouth Rock cockerel was the question at issue this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Jenness. Thomas McGovern had been placed under arrest upon the complaint of his neighbor, Henry Herring. The two families live not far apart on the Marine-street hills near Eighth street, and each is engaged in a small way in chicken ranching.

Several days ago Herring missed a young rooster from his flock, and at about the same time McGovern was making a search of the neighborhood for one of his young roosters that had gone astray. McGovern sighted what he presumed to be his rooster in the Sanders lot, where the Herring chickens ruminate. He caught the bird and took it to his home. His arrest on a charge of petty larceny followed.

At the trial today the bird was in evidence and took the witness stand, although no oath was administered to the feathered victim of mistaken identity. Witnesses swore pro and con that the cock with the clarion crow and clipped wings was the property, respectively of McGovern and Herring, and between the two stools the justice failed to see that the chicken had been taken by McGovern with criminal intent, and the action was dismissed upon motion of the defendant.

But this decision failed to settle the point in question, which concerned the possession of the rooster. Throughout the trial, although it had been brought into court by the defendant, the bird occupied a front seat on the lap of the complaining witness.

When the trial was over and the accused had been given his freedom from charge of crime, Herring hung onto the rooster. He insisted that it was his chicken and refused to replace it in the box in which it had been confined for safe transportation into court. McGovern said it was his chicken, but Herring held fast to the nine points of law which are supposed to be vested in possession.

"Hand that chicken over to McGovern!" This was the command given by the justice in stern voice, "or I will fine you for contempt or court."

With tears in his voice and a sob in his eye, Herring handed the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hdye Plymouth Rock over to the man whom he had accused of purloining the member of the feathered tribe.

CRAB FOR CHARITY.

The charitable institutions of Los Angeles are indebted to Game Warden Pritchard for a toothsome feast of crab on Labor Day. The open season for these edible inhabitants of the deep closed with the last day of August, but while making a round-up of the Los Angeles fish markets, Mr. Pritchard uncovered nineteen dozen of the forbidden crustacea, which he promptly confiscated and turned over for the benefit of the eleemosynary institutions.

The little hard-shelled animals had been shipped from San Francisco on August 31, the last day of the open season. Arriving at Los Angeles during the closed season, the dealers were in a pickle until the Game Warden pointed to them the easy way out of the difficulty.

CRICKET ADMISSION DAY.

The Santa Monica Bay Cricket team will have its next game on the grounds at Venice on next Monday, Admission Day, when the Oceanside aggregation will come north to try conclusions for a second time. The Santa Monica team has won the last five games played, and has lost but two out of the last eight games. Another Admission Day attraction at the beach will be a polo game at Santa Monica, between the Beach and Los Angeles teams. The present contest is for silver cups to the winners of three games in five. Santa Monica lost yesterday to Los Angeles in a score of 16 to 1. This is the Angels' first victory, while the bay players have won two. Should Los Angeles carry off the honors next Monday, the final game would certainly be an exciting one.

CALL TO THREE CITIES.

Steps for Union of San Pedro, Long Beach and Also Wilmington.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 4.—A mass meeting of the citizens of this city, Wilmington and San Pedro will probably be called in the near future to discuss the question of the consolidation of the three cities. It is likely that Wilmington will be chosen as the place. A band and a barbecue have been suggested for the gathering.

FIX CITY TAX RATE.

The Board of City Trustees, which recently met as a Board of Equalization, has decided upon a tax rate of $1.25 on property in the old city limits, and $1.01½ on recently-annexed territory. Of this amount 75 cents is for general city purposes. This year $40,000 worth of bonds will be retired, and interest will be paid on outstanding bonds amounting to $20,360. The budget also makes provision for paving and sidewalking on the streets around the City Hall, City Park and Knoll Park, and oiling the unimproved streets. The property valuation this year shows an average increase of 40 per cent., and amounts to $11,715,530. The revenue derived will be sufficient to pay all outstanding claims, the retiring bonds and interest, improvements, and run the city during the present municipal year.

LONG BEACH POINTERS.

The fall and winter term of the Long Beach High School opened today, with a registration of 310, as against 212 last year. Arrivals the next two weeks will swell this to 425, which will crowd the school. The commercial course added this year will be quartered in the basement, and from the interest manifested today will be the popular study. The grammar schools of the district will open next week, and indications point to a large increase over last year.

Sig. Marco Vessella, director of the Royal Italian Band, may leave the organization at the close of this week to accept a New York offer, though strong inducements are being made him to remain in Long Beach through the winter.

On Saturday night the union carpenters will vote on a resolution pending, demanding an increase of 50 cents a day, a Saturday half holiday and a closed shop.

From April 20 to September 1, the City Marshal's office has made 181 arrests, with a conviction of every violator of city ordinances.

Ada Fast, 8 years old, wandered from home last night, became lost and was picked up by Jans Steels, who after several hours' search located the frantic parents and restored the child.

Mrs. Harriet F. van Orman, a resident of Long eBach thirteen years, died last night as the result of a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Van Orman was a native of Massachusetts and 95 years of age. Two sons and twelve grandchildren are left.

City Recorder Hart today granted a change of venue asked for by Thomas Mayhew, who had a fight with Officer Austin two weeks ago. Justice Browning of San Pedro will try the case.

Thursday afternoon the City Trustees will meet to hear protests against the proposed opening of Chestnut, Cedar and American avenues through to the ocean. The protests filed are formidable.

Ocean Park Says Santa Monica Is Not to Use Septic Tank—Move of Kinney.

OCEAN PARK, Sept. 4.—The Ocean Park City Trustees tonight adopted an order serving notice on the city of Santa Monica that the use of the Ocean Park septic tank as a receptacle for Santa Monica sewage must cease within ten days. The action was taken at the instance of Abbot Kinney and other interested property owners.

If the Santa Monica City Trustees comply with the notice, they will have to have the Santa Monica sewage turned into the Pier-avenue outfall, which is broken at about the middle of the pier.

Santa Monica voted bonds some time ago for a septic tank, but it cannot be completed and ready for use for several months.

OCEAN CLAIMS YOUTH.

Old ocean claimed a victim in the person of Goudy Twitchell of Denver, who, with other members of the family, had been summering on the beach. His death resulted from his narrow escape from drowning a few days ago.

At tha time a party of five bathers near the foot of Paloma avenue were knocked down by a heavy wave and became entangled in submerged seaweed. Rescuers who were on the shore and observed the predicament of the bathers and hurried to their rescue, but did not succeed in bringing them out of the water until it was with difficulty all were resuscitated.

Twitchell, a young man of 20, did not rally from the effects of the shock so speedily as the other members of the party, and after a few days his condition became critical. Death came as result of pneumonia and reaction to the severe shock suffered by his whole system.

DEFINITELY DECIDE TO OPEN STORE HERE

Frederick H. Barrett, representing the Pacific Syndicate Stores Company, which is incorporated for the purpose of establishing 5, 10 and 15-cent stores on the Pacific Coast, is in the city. Mr. Barrett stated to a representative of The Independent today that it had been fully determined to place one of the stores in Santa Barbara, and that the main purpose of his visit at this time was to negotiate for a site for the building.

"I may say that we have practically concluded our negotiations for the property," said Mr. Barrett. "I expect Colonel J. B. Fuller, president, and Hon. Truman Reeves, secretary and treasurer of the company, here tomorrow and the matter may then be consummated. The new store will be centrally located, and one of the handsomest in the city when completed. I am also here for the purpose of selling some of the stock of the company in order that the concern may be locally represented. I have already sold some of the stock here, but the matter of locating a store here had been determined upon independent of whether we sell any stock at all."

My practice is the largest because I invariably fulfill my promises.

THERE IS A POPULAR impression that specialists' fees are exorbitant. If such be true, we wish to state that it is not applicable to us. On the contrary, our very large practice and unusual facilities for treating men enable us to offer the very best treatment inexpensively.

Not a Dollar Asked for Until a Cure is Affected

VARICOCELE.
Varicocele interferes with local circulation and the process of waste and repair throughout the organs involved. When neglected it brings total or partial loss of power and may even result in a wasting away of the organs themselves. I cure varicocele in one week. My method is absolutely painless, no surgical operation is involved, and there need be no detention from business. The lost tone and elasticity is restored, the weakened and dilated veins vanish and normal circulation and health are again established.

Contracted Disorders
Every case of contracted disease I treat is thoroughly cured; my patients have no relapses. When I pronounce a case cured there is not a particle of infection or inflammation remaining and there is not the slightest danger that the disease will return in its original form, or work its way into the general system. No contracted disorder is so trivial as to warrant uncertain methods of treatment, and I especially solicit those cases that other doctors have been unable to cure.

Stricture
My treatment for stricture is entirely independent of surgery. A complete cure is accomplished without cutting or dilating. All growths and obstructions in the urinary passage are dissolved, the membranes cleansed and all irritation or congestion removed throughout the organs involved.

SO-CALLED WEAKNESS
Perhaps the most prevalent of all ailments peculiar to men yields readily to the mild methods of treatment I employ.

"Weakness" is merely a symptom of local disorder, usually an inflamed condition of the prostate gland. This I overcome by a thoroughly scientific system of local treatment, and the full and normal degree of strength and vigor is permanently restored.

SPECIFIC BLOOD POISON
Until the perfection of my system of treatment, specific blood poison (commonly known as syphilis) was regarded as incurable, and the limit of medical aid was to keep the disease dormant by the use of strong mineral drugs. I positively drive the last taint of poison from the system. My cures are absolute. Every symptom vanishes to appear no more. I use harmless blood-cleansing remedies only, such as were never before used in the treatment of the disease.

Nothing But Lasting Cures

Functional Decline, Termed Weakness by Some

I am positive the treatment I employ in the cure of this derangement is the most potent, rational, direct and certain, whereby functional activity of the parts can be restored. Many men suffering from that condition will find the cause directly traceable to the reproductive system.

Varicocele

Many men have treated for this diseased condition and few have found permanent cure. My treatment is thorough and cures in 4 to 6 days and there is no relapse of the old weakness that accompanied the disease. The treatment is direct and for the exact cause. It is a treatment not in common use and is most effective.

Stricture

I cure in 10 to 15 days. I have devoted years of study to the formation of a complete eradication of urethral stricture. I restore health and tone to the membrane. My treatment removes the necessity of any surgery. The right treatment, applied the right way, will always bring good results.

Contracted Disease

I cure these ailments more quickly, with less pain and inconvenience than any one claiming to treat successfully these difficulties. Has your case become complicated through improper treatment or through the use of caustic remedies? Has it caused a deep-seated inflammation or irritation in the urinary tract, the result of which you now suffer from? My treatment cures these conditions quickly and the cure is permanent.

PROCURE FUNDS FOR CITY PAR

WOMEN OF SAN BERNARD WILL RAISE $1500.

Two Acres to Be Added to Ea Third Street Park—Traction Com pany Interests Help Movemen Along—Surveys Through Tow Made for New Railroad.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 4.—T ladies of the Civic Department of Woman's Club, at a meeting toda decided to raise $1500 with which purchase an additional two acres the East Third Street Park. Of t amount, $377 has already been su scribed, and it is the fond belief of t ladies that the total amount will subscribed before the close of t week.

Of the $4000 which has been raise the San Bernardino Valley Tractio Company interests are the heavie subscribers, their subscriptions total ing $709, or almost a fourth of the to tal amount. The interest taken by the Traction Company is due largely to the fact that the improvement of that section of the city in which the park tract is located, will add materially to Traction business.

The ladies will at once commence the improvement of the tract, one of the first efforts being to lay out an artificial lake, plant flowers and shrubbery and lay out winding walks. Benches and rustic shelters will come next, and it is not unlikely that the tract will be graced with a music stand, while a children's playground, with swings and other means of improvement, will be provided.

The ladies have invited the subscribers to vote on a name, the result to be announced next Monday night.

SAN BERNARDINO BRIEFS.

The funeral of Mrs. Nettie Jones, who was drowned in a pool while fishing near Reading last week, was held this morning at the Catholic Church. Mrs. Jones, formerly a popular girl of this city, was fishing with her 13-year-old son, and in stepping from one rock to another, lost her footing and was precipitated into a deep pool, drowning before the eyes of her little boy.

A lively game of tennis between the Mount Vernon and Valley teams, was suddenly terminated this afternoon as a result of John Hansen, one of the former team, dropping from heat prostration and overexertion. Until the moment Hansen suddenly keeled over he was playing remarkable tennis. His condition is quite serious.

It is announced that surveys have been completed through this valley for the projected trans-continental railroad, from Denver to San Diego, which is to be financed by a syndicate which recently incorporated at Denver for $20,000,000. Some months ago a large and well-equipped party of surveyors spent several weeks surveying through this valley, and it is now said they were surveying for the new railroad.

Word was received this morning of the sudden death at Bloomington, Ill., of John P. Johnson, father of County Recorder Johnson. The deceased left thirty six weeks ago in seeming perfect health to visit eastern relatives. The remains will be shipped to this city for burial, the deceased having lived here for over thirty-six years.

YUCAIPE VALLEY HAY.

Good Horse Feed is Moving Into Redlands—Grain to Be Used Near There.

REDLANDS, Sept. 4.—Baled hay is being brought into the city from the Yucaipe Valley for the Graham-Cope Commercial Company at the rate of seven loads or about twenty-two tons a day. It will probably take about three months to bring in the hay crop alone, which has been secured by this company which has about 1600 tons of hay contracted for.

The grain on the Graham-Cope ranch will amount to about 5000 sacks. In addition the firm has purchased about 1000 sacks from the Cook ranch. All will be hauled to Redlands and be used in and about this city.

FOOTHILL BREVITIES.

For the first time since the Bear Valley dam was built no water has been drawn from the reservoir up to this date this season. The flow from the Santa Ana River is still great enough to supply the needs which are about 7 inches.

Nearly 1400 registrations have been made to date by the registration officers for Redlands. This means that 700 have not yet registered.

A Mexican row at Redlands Junction on Sunday night resulted in one man being stabbed to what will probably be his death by a fellow-countryman. Knife and a Mexican señorita are responsible for the trouble.

Company G members participated in the first State shoot for gold, silver and bronze bars, Sunday. These contests are to be ended in November. There were six contestants Sunday.

Within the past few days several breaks of local water companies have occurred, burst by the street roller, thus causing considerable damage and inconveniencing the patrons of the water company.

BUNCH OF COLTON NEWS.

COLTON, Sept. 4.—The Methodist Sunday-schools' Association of San Bernardino and Riverside counties met at the Methodist Church yesterday. Rev. E. J. Inwood, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Riverside, read a paper on "Sabbath Law," which was followed by a discussion on the subject.

The funeral of Alexander Salazar, who died Sunday at the Hospital for Insane at Patton, was held yesterday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Julia Lugo, in this city. Interment was in the Mission Cemetery. Salazar was a descendant of the early Spanish settlers of the valley.

It is reported that September 25 has been set as the wedding day of John Rowe, of this city, and Miss Nora McGinnis of Colorado. Miss McGinnis will be remembered in California in a few weeks. Miss Albertine Fox and Miss Annie Rowe left yesterday for Los Angeles, where they will attend the State Normal School.

J. Welch, foreman at the cement works, has gone to San Diego for a visit.

Addie Cottrell will return this week from Upland, where she has been for several months. Mrs. R. Greenwood will accompany her for a visit with relatives in Colton friends.

Clarissa McLean left yesterday for San Diego, where she will become a student at the State Normal School.

Mrs. L. E. Polhemus has returned from a two weeks' visit at Los Angeles.

Mrs. T. A. Adkins and their daughter are enjoying an outing at Huntington Beach.

J. Haygood, a resident of San Bernardino, and Miss Ida White, both from Texas, were married this week by Justice Hanna.

PROCURE FUNDS FOR CITY PARK.

WOMEN OF SAN BERNARDINO WILL RAISE $1500.

Two Acres to Be Added to East Third Street Park—Traction Company Interests Help Movement Along—Surveys Through Town Made for New Railroad.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 4.—The ladies of the Civic Department of the Woman's Club, at a meeting today, decided to raise $1500 with which to purchase an additional two acres for the East Third Street Park. Of this amount, $377 has already been subscribed, and it is the fond belief of the ladies that the total amount will be subscribed before the close of the week.

Of the $4000 which has been raised, the San Bernardino Valley Traction Company interests are the heaviest subscribers, their subscriptions totaling $700, or almost a fourth of the total amount. The interest taken by the Traction Company is due largely to the fact that the improvement of that section of the city in which the park tract is located, will add materially to Traction business.

The ladies will at once commence the improvement of the tract, one of the first efforts being to lay out an artificial lake, plant flowers and shrubbery and lay out winding walks. Benches and rustic shelters will come next, and it is not unlikely that the tract will be graced with a music stand, while a children's playground, with swings and other means of improvement, will be provided.

The ladies have invited the subscribers to vote on a name, the result to be announced next Monday night.

SAN BERNARDINO BRIEFS.

The funeral of Mrs. Nettie Jones, who was drowned in a pool while fishing near Reading last week, was held this morning at the Catholic Church. Mrs. Jones, formerly a popular girl of this city, was fishing with her 12-year-old son, and in stepping from one rock to another, lost her footing and was precipitated into a deep pool, drowning before the eyes of her little boy.

A lively game of tennis between the Mount Vernon and Valley teams, was suddenly terminated this afternoon as a result of John Hansen, one of the former team, dropping from heat prostration and overexertion. Until the moment Hansen suddenly keeled over he was playing remarkable tennis. His condition is quite serious.

It is announced that surveys have been completed through this valley for the projected transcontinental railroad from Denver to San Diego, which is to be financed by a syndicate which recently incorporated at Denver for $[illegible],000. Some months ago a large party of well-equipped party of surveyors spent several weeks surveying through the valley, and it is now said they are surveying for the new railroad.

Word was received this morning of the sudden death at Bloomington, Ill., of Dan F. Johnson, father of County Clerk Johnson. The deceased left this city six weeks ago in seeming perfect health to visit eastern relatives. The remains will be shipped to this city for burial, the deceased having lived here for over thirty-six years.

YUCAIPE VALLEY HAY.

Horse Feed Is Moving Into Redlands—Grain to Be Used Near There.

REDLANDS, Sept. 4.—Baled hay is now being brought into the city from the Yucaipe Valley for the Graham-Cope Commercial Company at the rate of [illegible] loads or about twenty-two tons daily. It will probably take about [illegible] months to bring in the hay crop [illegible], which has been secured by this company which has about 1600 tons of hay contracted for.

The grain on the Graham-Cope ranch will amount to about 5000 sacks. In addition the firm has purchased about [illegible] sacks from the Cook ranch. All of this will be hauled to Redlands and will be used in and about this city.

FOOTHILL BREVITIES.

For the first time since the Bear Valley dam was built no water has been taken from the reservoir up to this time this season. The flow from the Santa Ana River is still great enough to supply the needs which are about [illegible] inches.

Only 1490 registrations have been made to date by the registration officer in Redlands. This means that 700 [illegible] have not yet registered.

The Mexican row at Redlands Junction on last night resulted in one man being stabbed to what will probably be death by a fellow-countryman. A [illegible] and a Mexican señorita are responsible for the trouble.

Company G members participated in the State shoot for gold, silver and bronze bars, Sunday. These contests will be ended in November. There were [illegible] contestants Sunday.

During the past few days several [illegible] of local water companies have been hurt by the street roller, thus causing considerable damage and inconveniencing the patrons of the water company.

CHURCH OF COLTON NEWS.

COLTON, Sept. 4.—The Methodist Episcopal Association of San Bernardino and Riverside counties met at the First Methodist Church yesterday. Rev. J. Inwood, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Riverside, read a paper on "Sabbath Laxs," which was followed by a discussion on the subject.

The funeral of Alexander Salazar, who died Sunday at the Hospital for the Insane at Patton, was held yesterday from the home of his aunt, Mrs. Julia Lugo, in this city. Interment was in the Pioneer Cemetery. Salazar was a descendant of the early Spanish settlers of the valley.

It is reported that September 25 has been set as the wedding day of John Barton of this city and Miss Nora McFarland of Colorado. Miss McGinnis will visit in California in a few weeks.

Miss Albertine Fox and Miss Annie Fox left yesterday for Los Angeles, where they will attend the State Normal School.

Mr. Welch, foreman at the cement works, has gone to San Diego for a visit.

Miss Addie Cottrell will return this week to Upland, where she has taught several months. Mrs. R. Greenwood will accompany her for a visit with friends.

Miss Ethel McLean left yesterday for Chicago, where she will become a student at the State Normal School.

Mrs. E. Polhemus has returned from a few weeks' visit at Los Angeles.

Mrs. T. A. Adkins and their daughter are enjoying an outing at Huntington Beach.

Mr. Lee Haygood, a resident of Colorado, and Miss Ida White, of Texas, were married this morning by Justice Hanna.

RIALTO NOTES.

RIALTO, Sept. 4.—The residence of Ed Barnard on Olive avenue, which would have been ready for occupancy the last of the week, had a narrow escape from destruction by fire last night shortly after 9 o'clock. The interior of one of the rooms and under the house was a mass of flames when discovered by a member of the family. The fire was put out before the hose arrived. It was supposed that some one walking out stopped to examine the interior and, lighting a cigar or cigarette, dropped the match. A hole was burned through the floor and a large front window broken.

George Watts, candidate for justice of the peace, is in the north attending the Republican State Convention.

VETERAN HOST DOES OVERFLOW.

TENT CITY TOO SMALL AT HUNTINGTON BEACH.

Would-Be Campers Regretfully Leave Because of Insufficient Canvas Habitations to Accommodate Them—Soldiers of Sixties With Sons and Families Out for Pleasure.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 4.—"This is going to be the biggest time ever for the G.A.R. in Southern California," says Commander C. P. Wilson of the Southern California Veteran Association.

For two days the cars have come crowded with veterans bound for the annual encampment on the tented field here. The camp is swarming, and not enough tents can be procured to accommodate the crowd. Many have been standing about the place today without tents, hoping that by hook or crook, they may accidently secure one, and many have turned their faces back to Los Angeles, much disappointed at not having the chance for a few days camp life.

There are 270 tents now occupied, and Quartermaster James Mack has ordered thirty-six more. It is estimated that 1500 old soldiers and ladies are here, said to be more than at any other time on opening day before.

Plenty of rooms are available to "sleep" the crowd downtown, but the desire of most of the comers is to enjoy camp life.

Five hundred cots have been procured, and the large Methodist auditorium is turned into sleeping apartments, so that the visitors will not have to sit up all night. The following officers are present for opening day: Commander Wilson, Quartermaster James Mack, Adjt. J. H. Lewis, Past Commanders Van Horn, A. B. Paul, E. C. Seymour and Senior Vice-Commander L. D. Phillips.

Twenty-five Sons of Veterans from Long Beach arrived today with the cannon, "Teddy," whose welcome voice will wake the echoes at sunset and sunrise. The officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary present are Martha G. Kiger, President; Nellie Bray, Vice-President; Lina Brady, Secretary; Emma B. Holley, Treasurer; Maud Pennebaker, President of Penny Club. The camp is named "Gen. W. W. Blackman."

A large tent has been nicely fitted up as a "clubroom" for the soldiers, where they expect to have many a merry hour. The ladies also have their "club tent," and, no doubt, will put it to good use.

Grandma McCall, aged 81, is the only army nurse in camp at present. She served as nurse in one of the Iowa regiments of which her husband was a member. Grandma has three generations with her in camp.

Another of the interesting personages in camp is the mascot of San Diego Corps, "Baby Bray," 3 years old, and who was successful in selling the greatest number of pictures for the purpose of securing a flag to don the top of a San Diego school building.

There are plenty of comical things in camp. One of the incidents which raised a roar today took place on the public streets this afternoon, when one comrade was kissed by a charming dame, and so much enthused that he kissed the next one who came along, whom he did not know, thinking it was his old friend. Two of the comrades went fishing and caught a few large fish. When their backs were turned another veteran took the fish and hid them in somebody's bed.

A large drove of pigs is reported fattening for the bean bake. They will be driven to camp and slaughtered in time to supply the filling for the luscious legumes to be served Friday from 12 to 2 p.m.

The veterans and campers generally are transported to and from the camp grounds free, also their baggage, enough rigs have been provided to suit the demand. The tent city looks well with the electric lights and tents all decorated with flags and bunting.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon Commander Wilson formally opened camp. A salute was fired by the Sons of Veterans' field piece, and the large flag was raised on the tall staff.

This evening's programme includes a reception, and following this an address of welcome by J. V. Vickers, president of the Huntington Beach Company, and a response by Justice H. C. Gooding.

Tomorrow a reception by the citizens of Huntington Beach will be given at 2:30 o'clock. In the evening there will be a camp fire, when the "old boys" will give war reminiscences, and there will be music by the Fife and Drum Corps.

KICKED IN FACE BY HORSE.

Bad Accident to Santa Ana Boy—Los Angeles Business Man to Bring Home a Bride.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 4.—Little Eddie Mendelson, son of the proprietor of the Mendelson Hotel of San Juan Capistrano, was kicked in the face last week by a vicious horse, and the little fellow is now in a Los Angeles hospital in a serious though not dangerous condition. The boy is six years old and his experience in life had not taught him that some horses do not like to be suddenly slapped with a stick. He had seen the vaqueros ride all kinds of animals and he was not aware that fear of a horse was something that a small boy should carry within himself.

Eddie stole quietly up behind a horse in the corral. He thought it would be a joke on the horse if he struck him suddenly. The horse was struck and the heels of the animal flew out like a thunderbolt. One of the animal's hoofs caught the boy square in the face, breaking bones, crushing in the nose and knocking out a number of teeth. The boy was taken to Los Angeles in an unconscious condition.

SANTA ANA SAYINGS.

C. E. Lapp, the oil man against whom action was brought to hold up his bills, today cashed warrants for about $1500 worth of oil delivered to the county. Lapp is the man who sold 4000 barrels of oil to the county on a bid calling for 1000 barrels more or less. District Attorney Head and Attorney George L. Sanders appeared in an injunction suit to stop the payment of Lapp's bills, but Lapp last week got a decision declaring the bid legal.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Turner to Mr. Thomas Inch, a young Los Angeles business man, took place tonight at the home of the bride., who is the daughter of J. A. Turner.

FINDS MISSING GIRL.

Ventura City Marshal Locates Los Angeles Young Woman in Former Town.

VENTURA, Sept. 4.—Dorothy Briggs, the 17-year-old Los Angeles girl who is said to have left her home in July last with a girl named May, to pay a visit of a few weeks, in the way of a vacation, to the various beach resorts, has been found in Ventura.

The girl was located by Marshal Russell in a questionable resort in the west end of town, where she had been for several weeks living under the name of Maude. She was identified by the pictures of her which have been printed, and did not deny the Marshal was right when he told her who she was. The Los Angeles police department was communicated with last evening, and word was returned to Russell to place the girl in custody. He did so this morning, her brother arriving on the train.

The girl did not want to return to her home, but her brother and the Marshal insisted upon this step, and she consented to return to Los Angeles in company with her brother this afternoon. She said she had not communicated with her home folks because she did not intend to return home, and did not want her whereabouts known.

In her pitiful little tale the girl lays all her trouble to a married man, a telephone lineman of Los Angeles. She says that she left Los Angeles with him, and that they went to Santa Barbara, where they lived for some time, after which Baker brought her here and placed her where the Marshal found her, after which he left her to take care of herself.

NOTED WOMAN DYING.

Mrs. Theodosia B. Shepherd, the famous flower grower of this city, is expected to live but a little while. Indeed, it is said to be only a question of hours with her. She is constantly growing weaker and weaker. Mrs. Shepherd is one of the best-known women in California, and is the originator of many rare flowers and ornamental plants. She is to the flower world what Luther Burbank is to the fruit world. She has resided in Ventura since 1873, and is in her sixty-first year of age.

NEEL-CAMPBELL.

Willie Neel, son of H. H. Neel of this county, and Miss Dessie Campbell, daughter of Mrs. W. P. Lincoln, were made man and wife this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Hammons on Poli street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mills of San Pedro, who came up for that purpose. The bride wore white collenne over white taffeta, trimmed with satin ribbon and lace and gold beads. Miss Lou Reppy acted as maid of honor, while Ross Neel, a cousin of the groom, was best man. The young couple left for Los Angeles on the afternoon train. On their return they will reside on the Neel ranch, east of this city.

VENTURA BRIEFS.

John Lagomarsino has left for the North to place his two sons, John and Will, in Santa Clara College.

Assessor James Donlon has moved to Oxnard.

Amos Miller was painfully hurt yesterday by the overturning upon him of a load of hay which he was hauling from the Santa Ana. He was driving six horses, but lost control by reason of a faulty brake. The team ran and the load went over, Miller being thrown and suffering a broken shoulder.

HELD FOR ACCEPTING CHECK.

Peculiar Condition of Railroad Employee as Result of San Francisco Earthquake.

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 4.—One of the most peculiar cases called to the attention of the local courts developed at the preliminary hearing of L. D. Parchman on a charge of larceny. During the days following the earthquake when the business of the Southern Pacific Railroad was demoralized, the railroad company adopted an emergency method of paying their men.

Among the checks sent out was one to Parchman, delivered to him by the agent at Beaumont. Parchman had been previously paid and cashed the check in Yuma within a day or so following. He told various stories about his ownership of the check, many of them contradictory.

There is no allegation that he stole the check except that he took it from the agent knowing that he had been previously paid for his services. Dist.-Atty. Evans appeared for the county and LaFayette Gill for the defendant. The arguments were extremely technical, and Justice Hibbard was prevailed upon to hold Parchman in $500 bonds for trial before the Superior Court.

ELSINORE PERSONALS.

ELSINORE, Sept. 4.—A. W. Sailor, who has been appointed deputy fish and game commissioner of the State of California, will look after the protection of game in this vicinity this season.

T. H. Sherrell, cashier for the Santa Fé at Santa Ana, is spending some time in Elsinore.

Horace DeBorra has taken the position in the Santa Fé office here recenly filled by E. L. Daniels. Mr. Daniels has returned to Hemet.

C. S. Traohagen leaves today for Santa Cruz to attend the Republican State Convention, to be held there September 5.

Mrs. H. L. Dunning and daughters have returned from a two months' visit in Long Beach.

SIERRA MADRE NOTES.

SIERRA MADRE, Sept. 4.—Master Don Baxter, as "Jack Horner," gave a Mother Goose party at his home, Hotel Sierra Madre, Friday evening. After a course dinner, which was served out of doors at 6 o'clock, they joined in games and dancing. Among those who participated were: Mrs. Stevenson, as "Mother Goose," and Misses Dorothy Brown, "Mother Hubbard," with her dog; Katharine Torrance, "Cross Patch;" Janet Stevenson, "Mistress Mary;" Elinor Coffeen, as "Dorothy Douglas, Queen of Hearts;" Margery Douglas, "Red Riding Hood;" Margery Rice, "Maiden All Forlorn;" Master Stanley Tolley, "Humpty Dumpty;" Raymond Andrews, "The Baker;" Charles Clark, "Jack;" Harold Costillo, "Jill;" Charles Camp, "Man All Tattered and Torn;" Lewis Torrance, Jr., "Old King Cole;" John Coffeen, "Little Boy Blue;" Samuel Steinberger and Earl Kraft.

The public schools are announced to open September 17 in the old building, where school will likely be held till the holidays, when it is hoped the new schoolhouse will have been completed.

Mrs. F. M. Britton, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Potter and Mrs. S. C. Collins and children leave today for two weeks' stay on Catalina Island.

W. W. Coates, the new school principal, has leased the Smith place on Laurel avenue.

LA VERNE ORANGE GROVE SOLD.

LORDSBURG, Sept. 4.—A sale was consummated here today by the W. T. Michael & Son Realty Co., whereby the Realty and Trust Company of Los Angeles sold their forty acres of citrus orchard in La Verne to James H. Wood, a retired banker from Pittsburgh, Pa., but now a resident of Los Angeles. The stated consideration was $22,000 cash. This property, which consists of twenty acres in lemons and twenty acres in oranges all 9 years old, was recently traded by its owner, L. S. Thacker, to the Realty and Trust Company for a valuation of $26,000. Mr. Wood will reside in Los Angeles, and erect a house on the ranch for his foreman.

BRIEFS OF HOLLYWOOD.

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 4.—The residence of Maj. Toberman on Prospect just west of the hotel has been sold to Mrs. S. C. Jones, who will take possession October 1. Maj. Toberman has bought property on Crown avenue and will erect a new home at once.

Johnnie Thompson, known in the athletic world as "Cyclone Thompson," has leased a home in Hollywood and will establish training quarters here. He will also open a men's gymnasium in the near future. Mrs. Thompson and small son will join him soon.

L. P. Bishop has let the contract to A. W. Baird for a twenty-five-room family hotel at Brokaw Place and Prospect avenue. The building will be three stories high and will cost about $15,000. Work will begin at once.

ELECTRIC ROAD TO NAPLES.

NAPLES, Sept. 4.—A large force of men has been at work this week constructing a road-bed for the Naples extension of the Pacific Electric Railway. The new line, which will be about a half-mile in length, will extend from the Huntington Beach-Newport line to the head of the Colonnade. Work has been commenced on the six miles of reinforced concrete bulkheading to be constructed on the bay, and the Gabriella, Naples and Riva Alta canals.

EVERYBODY TALKS ABOUT GLENDALE VALLEY VIEW TRACT.

The following is a verbatim copy of a letter written by a Los Angeles man to a friend in Tampa, Fla. We can't put the merits of our tract any stronger!

My Dear Old Friend:

After a long time I did finally receive two postal cards and a map of the Glendale Valley View Tract. Well, I went out to Glendale and saw the two lots you selected and they are in a beautiful location. One is a corner lot, which you will note by the map. There is cement all over the place, and as to the beautiful part and the extreme beauty of Glendale, I shall not attempt to explain that to you in detail, as there cannot be possibly too much said of Glendale. There are about fifty houses under construction and not one shabby house in the entire lot. It is by far the most beautiful section around Los Angeles, and is surrounded by beautiful mountains. Water is already in all the streets, which are graded and being oiled. You do not know anything about oiled streets, but I tell you they are all O.K., for we used oiled streets in Texas. No electric or telephone poles in the streets to obstruct the view and to look bad. Now, —— there is no place on the face of God's green earth today where you could put your money and have it double itself in so short a time. I really think it perfectly safe and I don't think there is any chance of a bad investment in or around Los Angeles. It is as impossible for you to make a mistake to buy in Glendale Valley View Tract as a speculation as for the sun to rise in the west, and I think that is what you want to buy them for.

The prices of these two lots are as follows: The corner, $550; the next one, $500; one-quarter down, balance 6, 12 and 18 months, no interest and no taxes until paid for. I am perfectly satisfied that you can earn more than double your money in two years. The agent will also write you and explain things to you better than I can. Let me know what you want to do about these lots.

Respectfully yours, as always,

Join the procession and come in and go out at our expense. Don't delay.

MEN

Successfully Treated

In the treatment of the numerous Pelvic Diseases so common among men, we believe that our experience, and past success warrant us in saying that we can accomplish all that is possible, and invite every man to come and see us who has either STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, WEAKNESS, DISCHARGES, CONTAGIOUS PRIVATE DISEASE, BLOOD POISON, ETC.

"It is no more than we expect to hear nearly every time who consults us relate a long story of his having been unsuccessfully treated, but in nine cases out of ten such experience can be attributed to the fault of the afflicted man, for he has had himself under the care of physicians of not sufficient experience to be past their experimental practice."

Any man seeking treatment should know that to insure himself of effectual treatment, he should employ a specialist or ripe age and long experience.

Come to see us and note the difference in the way experienced specialists will treat you, and how soon you can be benefited by the right kind of treatment. If you are skeptical we can refer you to former patients, who will vouch for our conscientious, successful, "GOLDEN RULE" dealing with them.

To demonstrate our cures we will until Sept. 1 charge only ONE-HALF our regular fee.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Trade started in well yesterday morning and all the staple lines were in active demand with prices firm. Receipts of all kinds of produce were light, and the outlook was for increased trading from now on.

Eggs were steady at quoted prices. Local ranch were in light receipt, with the demand active, and eastern fresh were also moving well, although the bulk of the eastern are purely storage stock. The difficulty in the way of a raise on the part of the jobber is that owing to the abundance of eastern the retailer will not handle local except at a good margin, and as fresh eastern and storage can be purchased for much less than local ranch, no change is looked for soon.

Fresh eastern move well at sustained prices. No eastern shipments of any kind arrived yesterday.

Cheese is steady. Butter was in heavy request, and many of the dealers were cutting up eastern cubes to fill local orders. By order of the Board of Directors of the Produce Exchange twenty per cent. is to be deducted from now on from the weight of butter and cheese in the daily reports on account of the weight of the cases.

Sweet potatoes are getting weaker. The potato market is in a fairly good condition. Some of the potato jobbers were quoting potatoes cheaper yesterday, but the potatoes were a cheaper grade of stock. Onions are steady.

The fruit market was reported exceedingly dull in all quarters. Apples had a good tone but prices were no firmer. Berries sold moderately well. Peaches moved actively. Watermelons had a wide range, from $6@7.50. Tangerines brought $.25@.50. Kelsey plums were quoted at 75. French prunes are cleaning up @75. Muscat grapes had a firmer tone at $1@1.50.

Vegetables were in large supply and unchanged.

Large and small fish were plentiful.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 279 cases; butter, 14,389 lbs.; cheese, local, 6344 lbs.; beans, 321 sacks; onions, 401 sacks; beans, 50 sacks; sweet potatoes, 63 sacks.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The excited speculation in stocks was continued today, although on a somewhat diminished scale of activity from that of last week. The tone of the market became feverish in the course of the day. This was principally due to the contending effects of the gloomy forces on the one hand and the tightening money market on the other. Prices broke all around when call money reached 20 per cent. Incidental to the furious trading in the early part of the session of the day, and by habitual speculators of the millionaire class, a churning process was forced up against a quantity scale, consisting of manipulative orders placed in the market for both accounts and from the same sources, solely for effect on prices. There was much confusion and no little conflict in the arguments heard in connection with the eager speculation, and these arguments afforded some striking contrasts with the views on the same subjects professed in Wall street in times past. So far from showing any fears of the effect on prices of an additional floating market supply, Baltimore and Ohio was made the favorite for the speculation today. The alleged purpose of the Southern Pacific to control St. Paul continued to keep the latter stock in the forefront of the speculation during the day. The speculation showed every symptom of unrestrained progress, until it was forcibly arrested by the practical exhaustion of available funds in the call-loan market. Withdrawals to meet the necessities of other departments of the money market forced the call loan rate to 30 per cent. in the afternoon, and induced large speculative liquidation of a forced character. Union Pacific and American Smelting suffered most in the selling, but the whole market was forced downward, sharply converting the earlier gains into general net losses for the day. Gold was secured during the day for import into New York to the extent of $1,700,000, partly in London and partly in Paris. But this was scarcely more than sufficient to offset the day's losses to the government and by telegraphic transfer to San Francisco, while shipments of currency to the interior by express were on a heavy scale, with certainty of their continuance for some time to come. The stock market closed feverish and unsettled in consequence. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value $2,230,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

BETTER DEPOTS FOR SAN PEDRO.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC PREPARES FOR IMPROVEMENTS.

Sailors' Strike Likely to Be Settled Soon and 'Longshoremen Who Struck in Misguided Sympathy Will Prospectively Be Out of Employment.

SAN PEDRO, Sept. 4.—Extensive improvements in the matter of passenger and freight depots for San Pedro by the Southern Pacific will soon be made. A force of surveyors is at work, and several cars of lumber have been received for the purpose.

It is stated that the old depots at Fifth street and at the end of the wharf will be abandoned and moved. The wharf depot will be moved up town to the foot of Sixth street, on Beacon, and will be used largely for local freight and baggage. The Fifth-street depot will be moved to the foot of Fourth street, near the old Consolidated Lymber Company's office.

An elegant new passenger depot is to be built on the wharf at the foot of Fifth street for the accommodation of the heavy Catalina Island traffic, the business of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company and the local passenger traffic over the Southern Pacific to and from Los Angeles and other towns.

Improvements are also planned for Firmin's Point by the Southern Pacific, which will necessitate the expenditure of many thousands of dollars. It is stated that the E. K. Wood Lumber Company will be moved back from its location on the water front at Timm's Point, and that slips will be built out for the accommodation of shipping. This latter improvement will add greatly to the facilities of the inner harbor.

ROB DEAD OF HONOR.

Much unfavorable comment has been occasioned through the recent action of the Board of Trustees in changing the name of White street, named after the lamented Stephen M. White, who made the fight in the United States Senate for San Pedro, to that of Grand avenue.

It is pointed out by friends and admirers of the late Senator and statesman that by denying him this small honor, San Pedro proves herself ungrateful.

BIG BOSS ARRIVES.

Andrew Fururth of San Francisco, big chief of the totemites, arrived here today and held a sailor-union pow-wow. eH refused to be interviewed, but it is stated that, as far as the sailors' end of the present controversy is concerned, it will probably be settled in a few days. The sailors will likely return to work and the several hundred local longshoremen and yard men who foolishly went out in sympathy with the sailors, will be allowed to shift for themselves.

These latter had no grievance, but simply followed the dictatorial lead of deposed "Boss" Craig. Their places have been filled by men from abroad and only a small percentage will be able to find employment with their old companies.

All the local yards are working, and vessels are receiving good dispatch. The ship McLaurin and the schooners Sausalito, Ludlow and Mildred are discharged, but cannot get to sea, being unable to obtain crews.

FULLERTON NEWS BUDGET.

FULLERTON, Sept. 4.—Miss Sarah Crowther, of Placentia, daughter of City Trustee William Crowther, died at the Fullerton Hospital this morning, having been for some time an invalid. She was an active member of the Round Table and Philharmonic Society, and past worthy matron of the Eastern Star. The funeral will be at the residence at 2 p.m., Thursday.

Alvin Davis and bride have returned from their wedding trip to Catalina, and occupy their cottage on South Spadra street.

Field Superintendent F. P. Hill, of the Union oil wells, reports the sinking of two new wells in progress on the company's Brea Canon holdings, also that No. 32 lately completed at a depth of 2550 feet is producing 600 barrels per day.

Four hundred sacks from the thirty acres of sweet potatoes raised on the Jim Baxter ranch have been forwarded to Los Angeles. The product of the tract will total 6000 sacks.

W. H. Hines has taken a position in the sugar factory at Alamitos, and has moved with his family to that place.

Little Erma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gregory, celebrated her sixth birthday last Saturday, with fifteen little friends as guests.

Prof. Daniels, late of Pomona, and teacher of science in the High School, has bought of T. G. Dips, a residence on East Commonwealth avenue.

John Steffens, of the Stern & Goodman store, has gone to Minneapolis to spend the winter.

Among those who have returned to home or business duties from their seaside outings are: Messrs. Albert Vail, Horace Skinner, Loui and Jake Edwardson, and George Johnson, from Bay City; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Glase from Huntington Beach; Mrs. Carrie Ford and sons from Balboa; Miss Hilda Fossek from Bay City.

A special programme Sunday night at the Methodist Episcopal Church included short addresses by members of the Epworth League Cabinet, including Mrs. Jessie Callings, Mrs. Rebecca Alberts, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Ethel Cline, Miss Katherine Hardy, Mr. Ernest Stone, and a short address by Pastor Cocking.

Miss Florence Goodwin, a graduate of the Fullerton High School, went to Los Angeles Monday to take up a course in the State Normal School.

Miss Nelle Hoag, who had been a guest of Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Vincent, went, Sunday, to Azusa, to begin work as a member of the High School faculty.

Mrs. C. W. Kenley and daughter, Miss Thelma, guests of Mrs. O. J. Harvey, returned Sunday, to their home at Needles.

PUZZLE OF PRESBYTERIANS.

Union With the Cumberlanders Brings Peculiar Problems Now Being Worked Out.

The Presbyterians of Los Angeles and of Southern California are preparing to meet the new conditions and the changes in the adjustment of the various presbyteries that are soon to present themselves as a result of the union of the Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian Churches.

The local Presbyterian churches will convene in conference here on the fourth Tuesday in September to discuss the situation prior to the departure of delegates to the synod at San Rafael on October 17, which will have the deciding vote on what is to be done.

The situation in Los Angeles is more perplexing than in most localities for the reason that in this section of the country the Presbyterian branch greatly outnumbers the other branch, and some plan will have to be hit upon that will provide for the including of the Cumberland churches in the regular presbyteries and at the same time to maintain their identities.

The churches at Pomona, Coronado, and Azusa have been considering the calling of pastors, and it is expected that the first two will have calls in at the presbytery meeting. Among the calls that are sure to be announced on that occasion is the call of the Rev. John D. Habbick to the pastorate of the Church of the Redeemer, where he has been filling the pulpit for several months.

The Young People's Society of the Los Angeles Presbytery will hold its eleventh annual convention at the Second United Presbyterian Church, corner of Santee and Washington streets, the session beginning today and ending tomorrow. Ten churches are represented and the programme will be an extensive and varied one including devotional exercises, musical features and conferences on varied lines that the young people of the church are interested in.

Under the chairmanship of the Rev. E. P. Ryland, president of the organization, the Executive Committee of the Federation of Churches held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Federation Coffee Club rooms, corner of Third and Main, and discussed plans for the coming winter. The matter of chief interest to the Federation at the present moment is the revival movement in Los Angeles. As the movement had its origin in the tent meetings of the young people held at the corner of Twelfth and Hope streets, the federation gave its hearty stamp of approval to the work and urged its extension as far as possible throughout the other churches.

Arrangements are being made by the Los Angeles W. C. T. U. for a matron's silver medal oratorical contest tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist Church, corner of Sixth and Hill streets. The program will include: Scripture reading, song, prayer, reading, "A Terrible Charge," Dr. Laura Locke; vocal solo, Mrs. Sarah Haggard Payne; reading, "The Nation's Last Hope," Mrs. S. B. Watson; vocal solo, "The Lost Cord," H. Tiney Watson; reading, "The Age of Savagery," Mrs. E. M. Hugh Gibson, the field secretary of the State Sunday-school Association of Southern California, has just returned from the East, where he held a conference with the members of the Executive Committee of the International Sunday-school Association, in the interest of bringing the International convention of 1911 to Los Angeles. The matter has not yet been decided but the committee seemed favorably disposed to the idea.

FALL FROM WAGON HURTS.

Paul Burger of No. 1038 East Thirty-seventh street fell from a wagon at Main and Twelfth streets yesterday afternoon and sustained slight concussion, lacerations about the face and severe bruises. Burger was sent to the Receiving Hospital. Later he regained consciousness sufficiently to talk, but did not know how he was injured.

ROBBERS USE KNIVES.

By lowering his head so that he received a slash on the side of the left cheek that will disfigure him for life, J. Garcia saved his life early yesterday morning, when two Mexicans attacked him at Ord and New High streets. Garcia, who lives in Long Beach, came to Los Angeles to see friends. As he was walking toward the city to secure a night's lodging the highwaymen attacked him. Garcia fought them for awhile until they assaulted him with knives. When cut Garcia fell to the pavement and his assailants ran. Finding that he was left alone, Garcia made his way to the central station.

GOOD GOLF SCORES.

Walter Fairbanks Plays Well Enough to Qualify in First Round of Western Golf Event.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 4.—The qualifying round of the amateur championship of the Western Golf Association was played on the course of the Glen Echo Club today, W. C. Fownes, Jr., representing the Oakmont Country Club of Pittsburgh, was the winner of the gold medal for low score on the 36-hole play. He scored 75 in the morning round and made the afternoon round in 76. Among those who qualified are Rev. P. R. Talbott, Wichita, Kan.; T. P. Mumford, Town and Gown, Colorado Springs, 171; and Walter Fairbanks, Denver Country Club, 177.

GOVERNOR GETS BUSY.

Pained to Think Gambling on Prize Fight Was Carried on in New Hampshire.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CONCORD (N. H.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. McLane took summary action today when he read in the morning papers that there had been wholesale pool selling in Nashua on the Gans-Nelson fight yesterday and on local horse races. He directed Prosecuting Attorney Edward H. Wasons to stop all pool selling and betting at once and proceed against all offenders. The fair was crowded with big and little gamblers. Mr. Wason visited the fair grounds today and found bookmakers from Boston, Manchester and Nashua preparing their charts and blackboards for the day's work, while forty-four different gambling joints, including "tub roulette," chuck-a-luck and the old familiar shell game, were running full blast. Gov. McLane declares he will permit no pool selling or gambling at race meets and fairs while he is Governor.

DR. M'NAB TAKES CUP.

Gentleman's Singles for Trophy Develop Fair Tennis in the Hotel Leighton Tournament.

Dr. T. R. McNab won the trophy cup in the gentlemen's singles in the Hotel Leighton tennis tournament, yesterday, on the courts at Sixth and Alvarado streets. To do so he had to defeat the best players among the guests of the hotel, the final sets being contested with. Herbert Burdett, formerly a champion of the Canadian Northwest in the fashionable circles of Vancouver and Victoria.

In the doubles for prizes, Burdett and M. C. Reynolds won, contesting in the final sets with H. B. Crouch and Dr. Davis.

The tournament began at 8 o'clock in the morning and continued until nearly dark, when the championships were decided. Intermissions were taken for luncheon and between events. A gathering of hotel guests and invited friends watched the contests and saw very fair tennis. H. B. Crouch acted as master of ceremonies. The management of the hotel presented the silver trophy cup.

Davis began by smashing the ball to the back court, but McNab's clever returns offset Davis's strenuous game and kept his successive opponents chasing well-placed balls. Reynolds gave McNab a strong game in the first event, but in the succeeding contests Mc. ab was not forced except in the second set of the final, which Burdett won largely through McNab's carelessness.

The contests showed that Wilkinson has a novel style, hard to fathom, as he serves a high lob ball which puzzles his opponents. Burdett's strongest service is a sharp twist ball which has a tendency to take a bad bound. Wilkinson has a good record on the Florida courts. Mr. Montgomery has played much in the American colony in the City of Mexico.

In the doubles, Crouch and Davis qualified for the finals by defeating Wickham and Zerfing, and McNab and Montgomery, who previously had defeated Mayr and Alsop by a clean score. But Burdett and Reynolds were resting while the others were contesting the preliminaries, having drawn a bye, and they defeated Crouch and Davis in straight sets.

The scores of the singles are:

FIRST PRELIMINARIES.

McNab beat Davis, 6-2.
Zerfing won from Hains by default.
Wilkinson beat Mayr, 6-4.
Reynolds beat Montgomery, 6-2.
Burdett won from Smith by default.
Alsop won from Kelly by default.
Wickham beat Crouch, 6-2.
Juis won from Vail by default.

SECOND PRELIMINARIES.

McNab beat Reynolds, 6-4.
Burdett beat Alsop, 6-2.
Wickham beat Juis, 6-2.

SEMI-FINALS.

McNab beat Wickham, 6-1.
Burdett beat Wilkinson, 6-4.

FINAL.

McNab beat Burdett, 6-1, 4-6, 6-4.

The scores in the doubles were:

PRELIMINARIES.

McNab and Montgomery beat Mayr and Olsop, 6-0.
Crouch and Davis beat Wickham and Zerfing, 6-4.
Burdett and Reynolds won from Wilkinson and Smith by default.

SEMI-FINALS.

Crouch and Davis beat McNab and Montgomery, 6-4.

FINAL.

Burdett and Reynolds beat Crouch and Davis, 6-4, 6-3.

BECALMED SMACK SEIZED.

Mexican Authorities Take American Fishing Vessel and Complaint Is Made to Washington.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GALVESTON (Tex.) Sept. 4.—A cablegram has been received by Manager J. W. Munn of the Gulf Fisheries Company of this city from the captain of the smack Alao, which states that that vessel has been seized by the Mexican transport Progresso, while lying at anchor, becalmed, close into Arenas Reef.

The captain also states that he and his son are in friendly hands and that there will hardly be a repetition of the imprisonment and cruelty practiced on American sailors of the Galveston, Pensacola and Mobile fishing smacks seized by the Mexican government a few months ago.

Since the seizure of three smacks, some time ago, they have continued to fish in the same localities, but have carefully observed the three-mile limit set out by Secretary Root as free water for all fishermen.

In this case, the captain states, he had become becalmed and drifted into within about one and one-half miles off the shore and dropped anchor to await sufficient wind to move out of the fishing grounds when taken by the Mexican vessel.

Manager Munn notified Secretary Root of the seizure.

Introducing A New Shoe for Boys

A Watch Free With Every Pair

HAMBURGER'S "WATCH SHOE"

Is introduced to Los Angeles parents this week as positively the best boys' shoe on the market. The watch doesn't enter into the value of the shoe at all. They are given AS A PREMIUM ONLY to introduce the shoe. Stock in these shoes is a strong, smooth box calf with oak tanned soles, and are made to stand the grinding wear boys give shoes. Moreover they are designed stylishly—like the men's mannish," yet conform scientifically to all the physical requirements of a boy's foot. They are made by workmen whose experience is all in the construction of boys' shoes. We will show you one of these shoes split in two, so you may see for yourself the quality and make. They are either straight lace or blucher style; sizes 1 to 2, 2½ to 5½, 6 to 8; the heels have steel circlets to prevent running over; we guarantee every pair equal to any $3.50 boys' shoe sold elsewhere. The watch that is given free is a regular dollar quality, guaranteed to keep time for one year. Remember you are buying the shoe and not the watch—these shoes are worth every penny of the price.

FLOODS OBLITERATE VILLAGES

LAHORE (India) Sept. 4.—[illegible] have devastated a large section of the Behar district. Whole villages have been obliterated, great areas of crops have been destroyed, and the [illegible] crop is ruined. There are nine feet of water on the low-lying lands. The inhabitants have sought refuge in the hills.
